

Polk County Observer

J. C. HAYTER,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

Published Semi-Weekly at $1.50 per Year.
Strictly in Advance.

Entered as second-class matter March 1, 1907, at the post office at Dallas, Oregon, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

DALLAS, OREGON, FEBRUARY 14, 1908.

The way to build up Dallas is to parisonize Dallas people.

One of our exchanges remarks that there is a law business down in Astoria that is being sadly neglected.

Some of the owners of property on the south side of Court street are having sewer connections built this winter, so that there will be no need of breaking the pavement, in case they should desire to install a sewage system after the macadam has been laid on that street.

It is now generally believed that the District Attorneyship muddle will be settled by the appointment of Hon.
George H. Burnett to that important and responsible office. Schueler (Senator Bourne's candidate) is out of the way, and there is no likelihood of T. J. Cleeton (Senator Fulton's choice) being appointed. It is said that Judge Burnett is satisfactory to the entire Oregon delegation, and it seems reasonably certain that his name will be presented for the office and that President Roosevelt will make the appointment. Judge Burnett is a clean, able lawyer and a citizen of sterling worth, and is admirably qualified for the important office of Federal prosecutor. His appointment would be satisfactory to the people of his district and to the entire state of Oregon.

Joseph E. Wing, one of the best agricultural writers in the world, in an address at the Oregon Agricultural College recently, said: "I am proud of several things that I can do: I can pack a mule; I can cut a tree so it will fall where I want it to—mostly, I can how a plank straight; I can strike a drill all day without striking the other follow; I can rig a plow so you can hold it with the thumb and first finger; I can walk five miles an hour; and something things I can do I am proud of. I am prouder of the things I have done than the things I have said. It takes more brains to rig a plow right than to do a problem in Algebra.
When you learn a thing, you want to do it, and the man who gets the most out of life uses his arm as well as his brain." If Mr. Wing's philosophy is right, and it undoubtedly is, then it is possible for the farmer to get more out of life than any other class, for brains and muscle are a necessary part of the equipment of every good farm, and there is abundant opportunity there for the employment of both.

AIRLIE.

I. M. Simpson will plow up his hop field this spring.
A. N. Newbill made a flying trip to Corvallis, Monday.
Manly Bevens went to Woolburn this week on business.
J. O. Staats has recently purchased property in Corvallis.
Mrs. Glassford, of Corvallis, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Buchanan.
It is reported that work will be commenced on the new Airline depot by April.
Mrs. Walter Maxfield returned home Sunday, from a week's visit among friends in Independence.
Very few of the people in this neighborhood have escaped the recent epidemic of lagrippe.
Mrs. Kemp, of Salem, spent a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
Robert Phillips, this week.
Reuben Conn is getting to be a skillful taxidermist. He has several fine specimens mounted by his own hand.
Percy Hadley took the iron rods from the Turner bridge to Dallas, Monday, where they will be worked over so as to be suitable for use in the new bridge that is in process of construction.
The members of the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church, were delightfully entertained by Miss Allie Fuller at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fuller, Wednesday evening.

"A Good Name at Home"

"Is a tower of strength abroad"—and the excellent reputation of C. I. Hood Co. and their remedies in the city of Lowell, where they are best known, inspires confidence the world over, not only in the medicines but in anything their proprietors say about them. "If Made by Hood It's Good."
"I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla the best all-around family medicine known today." Mrs.
G. D. FARLEY, 622 Wilder St., Lowell, Mass.
"I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to any one." JOHN B. DUFFY, 14 Auburn Street, Lowell, Mass.
"I am a strong and healthy woman today, from taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I keep in the house for all the family." Mrs.
FANNIE BALCH, 125 Leverett St., Lowell, Mass.
"I consider Hood's Sarsaparilla the best blood-purifier in the world." Mrs. JESSIE E. CARLSON, 112 Liberty St., Lowell, Mass.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere.
In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsatabs. 100 Doses One Dollar. Prepared only by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

PREPARE FINE PROGRAM

Polk County Teachers Will Hold Meeting in Independence, Saturday, February 22.

The date of Saturday, February 22, was set as the time for holding the School Convention in the Airline district, but owing to the recent high water, which has made travel in that locality difficult, it was decided to postpone the meeting and hold the Polk County School Teachers' Institute in Independence at that time.
Teachers who failed to secure the required 15 hours of attendance at the Institute in November, will be allowed to have their attendance at the coming institute credited.
The completed program, as prepared by Superintendent Seymour, follows: Language and Composition, Superintendent R. F. Robinson, of Multnomah county; Grammar and Arithmetic, Professor L. R. Traver, of the Monmouth Training Department; "How to Prepare for Teaching Agriculture," Miss Loretta Smith, of Monmouth; "The Appreciation of Art," Mrs. E. M. Pannel, of Monmouth. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the famous faculty quartette of the Monmouth Normal School, and the program will be interspersed with numbers rendered by the pupils of the Independence public school.

THE CANDIDATE.

BY DEAN COLLINS.
My hair is gray, but not with years; (My locks grow gray through many a day Of dubious thoughts and fears.) My shoulders bowed, but not by weight
Of tell; I have a slinking gait, Like a small boy who softly goes To wash his jam marks from his nose; I am a candidate.
Of every man I seek to know, "Is he a friend or mortal foe?" I yearn to learn from everyone,
"Now, are you 'pro,' or are you
'con'?"
I eye each man I meet askance, And mentally compute my chance, Searching my men's 'ry's archive's dim To find if I'er injured him.
There's Smith, a man I well could use—Egad, it gives my heart the blues—I often wake in icy sweat, It seems that I can ne'er forget How, one day in the past afar,
I gave poor Smith a bum cigar; I wonder if a chance there be That he still holds a grudge at me?
There's Johnson—well, I chanced to meet His St. Bernard upon the street; I gave him a head a pat or two—I darned near gnawed my trousers through;
And, worst, I do not know to boot
How, one day in the past afar,
If not, my bit of friendly play Was so much labor thrown away.
O, thoughts that prey upon my mind, How bitterly the past can blind!
When I'm pumpeled Simpson's shoats, I lost at least a dozen votes;
And, spanking Jackson's little lad, I spoiled my chances with his dad.
For each one of those little knocks, They'll fix me at the ballot box.
Each smiling youngster that I meet, Paternaly I stop and greet;
And, gazing at his vacant phiz, I tell the kid how bright he is;
But when he's gone, a horrid doubt Sits in my brain and straggles out, (Alas, too late!) reminding that I should have kissed the little brat.
How hard the row that I must hoe, As through the long campaign I go!
Like captured thief, I sink and squirm.
As humble as the writhing worm,
And do my level best to see I get no voter sore at me.
Forsooth, it has no feather weight—
The burden of a candidate.

F. E. B.

We heard a man say the other morning that the abbreviation for February—Feb.—means Freeze every body, and that man looked frozen in his ul-ter. It was apparent that he needed the kind of warmth that stays, the warmth that reaches from head to foot, all over the body. We could have told him from personal knowledge that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives permanent warmth, it invigorates the blood and speeds it along through artery and vein, and really fits men and women, boys and girls, to enjoy cold weather and resist the attacks of disease. It gives the right kind of warmth, stimu-lates and strengthens at the same time, and all its benefits are lasting.
There may be a suggestion in this for you. (adv.)

Electricity for Lighting Is only expensive to people who are wasteful and careless. To you, who are naturally careful, it does not come high.
It is economical because it can be quickly turned off when not needed.
With gas or kerosene there is the temptation to let light burn when not needed to save bother of lighting and adjusting. In some homes the electric light bills amount to only one or two dollars per month.
You can probably get some kind of artificial light for less money than electric light, but does it save you anything when it limits opportunities for work and recreation—ruins your eyesight—smokes your walls—mars decorations and increases household work. You could probably save a dollar tomorrow by going without your meals but it wouldn't be economy. It is not so much what you save, but how you save that counts.
WILLAMETTE VALLEY CO. RATES—Residence on meters, per Kilowatt 15c; Residence, flat per month, 15c per 20c. RATES FOR BUSINESS HOUSES—25c per drop and 5c per Kilowatt up to 10 drops; over 10 drops 20c per drop and 5c per Kilowatt up to 40 drops; over 40 drops 15c per drop and 5c per Kilowatt. A drop figures 15c or less.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and to publish broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed all suspicion from among secret nostalgic of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.
By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that he is not afraid to subject them to the strictest scrutiny.
Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, his famous medicine for weak stomach, rapid fever or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing the leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, the medicinal ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines.
One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents, and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants occurring in the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Sarsaparilla." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most effective remedy for regulating all the organic functions, correcting displacements, as prolapse, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Polk County, Department No. 2.
William J. Crowley, Plaintiff, vs. William Jackson, Defendant, Summons.
To the above-named Defendant, William Jackson:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause within seven weeks from the date of publication of this summons, to-wit: the 21st day of December, 1907, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint plaintiff will move the Court to grant him the relief demanded in his complaint, to-wit: for a decree removing a cloud from the title of the following described real property, to-wit: Beginning at the N. E. corner of the D. L. C. of H. M. McNary in T. 7, South of Range 4 W.; Williams Meridian, thence West 81.10 chains, thence South 10 degrees East 45.01 chains; thence E. 1.27 chains; thence S. 10 degrees East 2.25 chains; thence N. 83 degrees 20 minutes E.
32.16 chains; thence N. 13 10 chains; thence W.
32.16 chains; thence N. 30 chains to the place of beginning and containing 182.49 acres, more or less, in Polk County, Oregon.
That in the year 1881 John Hendershot and Francis M. Hendershot mortgaged the aforementioned premises to said defendant for the consideration of $5000, but that since that time said mortgage has been paid in full and the same repaid by said mortgagor to said mortgagee, yet through neglect or oversight of the said William Jackson the same has never cancelled or satisfied upon the records of Polk County, Oregon, and the same now remains apparently a lien or cloud upon said property and said property, and it is such cloud that plaintiff brings this suit to remove.
That plaintiff craves such other, further or different relief as may seem unto this Honorable Court according to the principles of equity, and that the defendant, and all persons holding under him be barred of all and every right in and to said premises.
You are further notified that on the 17th day of December, 1907, the Honorable William Jackson, one of the Justices of the Peace, made an order at the City of Salem, Marion County, Oregon, authorizing and directing this summons to be published in the Polk County Observer, a newspaper of general circulation, thereof once a week for seven consecutive weeks in the Polk County Observer, a newspaper of general circulation, and that the first publication of this summons was made on the 31st day of December, 1907.

of said day, at the law office of Oscar Hayter, in the City of Dallas, in said County, proceed to sell the said real property wholly, at private sale, for cash in hand on day of sale, in accordance with the said order of sale and in the manner prescribed by law, subject to confirmation by said County Court; said real property being particularly described as follows, to-wit:
The North half (1/2) of the Northwest quarter (1/4) and the East half (1/2) of the Northwest quarter (1/4) of Section eleven (11) in Township six (6) South, of Range four (4) West of the Williams Meridian, in Polk County, State of Oregon, containing one hundred and sixty (160) acres.
