GRAND LEAP YEAR BALL

Lady Members of Dancing Club Will Give Elaborate Party on March 18.

The ladies of the Carnation Dancing Club held a meeting Wednesday evening, and chose committees on preparation for a "Leap Year" dancing party, to be given at the Woodman Hall, Wednesday evening, March 18. It is the determination of those who will manage the entertainment to make it beyond comparison the most brilliant social event of that nature that has ever been held in Dallas, and judging from the enthusiastic manner in which they are going about the business of preparation, it seems most probable that they will achieve their purpose.

No effort will be spared to make every element that enters into the entertainment as complete and perfect as possible, from the details of the hall decorations, to the personnel of the orchestra. Tom Stockwell who has charge of arranging the latter feature, promises an orchestra of eight pieces, and the most complete and up-to-date program of musical numbers that can be prepared. The tickets for the dance will be $1.50, and will include the admission of the couple to the dainty supper which will be served during the evening.

The work of preparing for the dance has been placed in the hands of the following committees, and knowing their skill in arranging excellent entertainments, the young man whom they deign to honor with an invitation to this party may well consider himself fortunate.

Invitation—Mrs. G. N. Cherrington, Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mrs. R. L. Chapman, Miss Maud Robertson, Miss Flora McCallon.

Supper—Mrs. H. L. Fenton, Mrs. I. N. Woods, Mrs. A. P. Toner, Mrs. Joseph Craven, Miss Meda Holman.

Decorations—Mrs. Will Tatam, Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Mrs. G. N. Cherrington, Miss Flora McCallon, Miss Maud Robertson.

Floor Managers—Mrs. E. C. Richmond, Mrs. C. E. Shaw, Miss Edna Simonton, Miss Ruth VapOrsdal.

Entre Nous Entertained.

Mrs. L. A. Bollman entertained the young women of the Entre Nous Club at her home Tuesday evening, with a pleasant informal party. A short business meeting of the club was held, after which the remainder of the evening was spent in various social amusements, light refreshments being served during the course of the entertainment. Those present were: Mrs. L. A. Bollman, Mrs. W. R. Ellis, Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Misses Nora Robertson, Mina Hughes, Fannie Dempsey, Maud Hart, Evangeline Hart, Ollie Howe, Jennie Muscott, Ora Collins, Maud Robertson and Efa Brown.

Fritz Osterwald, a preacher in the Apostolic Mission, was brought before Justice of the Peace Hatdy Holman yesterday, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon upon Miss Zilphia Sneed, of North Dallas. He was found guilty and sentenced to a fine of $15 and costs, or seven and one half days' imprisonment, and accepted the latter sentence. He put in most of his time last night singing gospel hymns.

WILLIE GETS A JOB

Well I've hired out to help run the U. S. Loughary grocery store. I start in as Office Boy. I have to help unpack the new goods, keep the shelves and boxes filled up, sweep out, clean the windows, and write the ads. I guess I'll earn my five per all right all right.

Honest, I think I'm going to like my job. I like the looks of the customers, the people around the store, the boss looks good to me and I've been out of a job so long I'm actually itching for a spell of work. The busy season is on us, and I see by the way the clerks are jumping around that I won't have any excuse for growing corns. Only forty minutes for lunch. But say, they're calling me already.

College Outclasses Rink.
The First Team of Dallas College defeated the Dallas Skating Team in a game of basketball at the Colosseum Rink, Tuesday night, easily scoring 66 to its opponent's 6. The rink team although fast enough for anyone, while on skates, was clearly out of its class when it doffed the rollers and tackled the husky college five afoot. The college team will practice on the rink floor daily during the coming week, desiring in this way to become better accustomed to a large floor, and to be able to meet Corvallis on a more nearly equal footing when the big game is played in the O. A. C. armory next week.

Program at Colosseum Rink.

Skating every afternoon and evening at the Colosseum rink. Good music. Admission, skaters, 25 cents. Thursday evening's session will be reserved for the skating clubs.
