GAVE FINE CONCERT

Colored Jubilee Singers Delighted Large Audience at Woodman Hall.

The entertainment given by the Dixie Jubilee Singers under the auspices of the Dallas Public School, at the Woodman Hall last night, was attended by an exceptionally large crowd and proved to be a complete success in every respect.

The program was composed of choruses, quartettes and solos ranging through every degree, from the old plantation melodies to the difficult and classical compositions of Cowles and other modern composers. In its chorus work the company proved to be almost perfect, and the male quartette is without doubt the best that has ever sung in this city. Especially fine in the richness of their harmonies were the "Bridal Chorus" from "The Rose Maiden" rendered by the full company, and "The Sunset" by the male quartette. The solo work was up to its usual standard of excellence. Mr. Crabbe's bass solos, and Mrs. Greene's rendition of "The Swallow" evoking especially hearty applause.

Trained almost to perfection by years of vocal work together, and presenting programs delightfully mingling humor and pathos, the Dixie Jubilee Singers present without doubt one of the most attractive and artistic entertainments now before the American public.

NEY-FRANCIS WEDDING

Former Dallas Girl Becomes Bride of Popular Young Man of Portland.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Francis, at 1209 Hawthorne Avenue, Portland, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening, February 26, when their daughter, Sadie May, was married to Mr. William H. Ney. Dr. Benjamin Young, the pastor of the happy couple, was the officiating clergyman.

The bride was daintily attired in white lansdown silk, trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bride's maid, Miss Mina Hughes of Dallas, wore champagne silk zephyr and carried pink carnations. Mr. Frank Rupert acted as best man. The ceremony was preceded by "When Song is Sweet," sung by Miss Eda Starr, and a piano solo, "Annie Laurie," by the bride's brother, Frank, who also played the wedding march from Lohengrin as up to its usual standard of excellence.

The bride and groom are popular young people of the best type, and a host of sincere friends, both present and absent, joined in congratulations and best wishes. Miss Francis was formerly a resident of Dallas, where she had many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ney will be at home to their friends at 228 East 51st street, Portland.

MUSIC, MIRTH AND MIMICRY

Transcontinental Trio Will Give Fourth Entertainment in Dallas College Course.

The Transcontinental Trio, presenting a program of musical work and clever readings, will appear at the Woodman Hall, Thursday, March 19, under the auspices of Dallas College, this being the fourth number in the attractive course given by the Lyceum Bureau of Salt Lake City.

The personnel of this company is as follows: George Bartlett Cutter, the singing humorist, of Boston; Miss Maude Annette Drake, of Chicago, a dramatic reader, and Miss Helen Goff, of Los Angeles, a prima donna contralto. The program which they offer is most unique and attractive, filled with humor and with numbers of more serious appeal.

Miss Drake is a reader of long experience and unusual strength and Miss Goff is a trained singer and has a voice of remarkable depth and richness over which she has perfect control. Mr. Cutter however is conceded to be the strongest factor in the trio. A musician of fair ability, he plays his own accompaniments, fitting them admirably to the sense of his irresistibly funny songs and as a monologist and humorist impersonator he holds an enviable position among the entertainers now on the American stage.

Wise Talks

By U. S. Loughary's Office Boy

Did you ever have the grip, ache all over in spots, and have your head feel as though you'd been out the night before trying to make "Milwaukee famous," when in reality you went to bed at 7:30 with an antitoxigenic plaster over your wishbone and your system full of hot lemonade and flaxseed tea and your mouth all puckered up with quinine? Pa says there is no parting so bitter as the parting of a quinine capsule just as you are in the act of swallowing it. Ma hasn't any doctor's diploma, but when it comes to things like grip or cold, she knows the proper dope to knock them silly. And when you're coming through, she knows how to make the dandy broth and gelatine and poached eggs and lots of things to bring you right up on the bit and make you feel like old self again. We have all the things and lots more, like olive oil and grape juice and stuff to tone up your system after you have been up against it.
