POLK COUNTY CASES REVERSED

Supreme Court Hands Down Decisions in Two Important Lawsuits.

The Supreme Court of Oregon on Tuesday last reversed the judgment of the Circuit Court of Polk County in the case of D. H. Simpson vs. A. C. Miller, tried at the May, 1906, term, in which D. H. Simpson of Airle, sued for the agreed price of standing timber sold by him to Miller. Judge Burnett granted the defendant's motion for nonsuit and dismissed the case, but the Supreme Court held that this was error, and remanded the case for re-trial.

The Supreme Court also reversed the decision of Judge Galloway in the suit of Preston Richardson vs. Annie S. Griggs, brought to cancel a deed, and dismissed the case. The trial in the lower court resulted in a decree in favor of Richardson.

CONFERENCE NEXT WEEK

Bishop Hartler, of Pennsylvania, Will Preside Over the Sessions.

The annual conference of the United Evangelical church will be held in Dallas next week. Wednesday will be devoted to the examination of junior preachers and the annual meeting of the conference missionary society. Bishop Hartler will preach the annual missionary sermon at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Classes in Dallas College will be dismissed for the regular Spring vacation during the week, and the annual business meeting of the Board of Trustees will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Bishop Hartler will preside at all sessions of the conference which will close Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited to attend all the meetings.

H. G. Campbell, secretary of the Dallas Canning and Packing Company, says that he is in communication with an experienced cannery man from California, who makes him a most advantageous offer on the installation and operation of a canning plant in Dallas. He offers to take charge of the enterprise, install the plant and operate it on a salary basis. He also promises to take $1000 worth of stock in the company, provided a sum of $7000 is secured for the purpose of building and equipping the plant, since he claims that it is not worth while to start into such an enterprise with smaller financial backing.

Conrad Stafin is having the interior of his drug store renovated and repainted, giving it a very attractive appearance.

LIBRARY BENEFIT TONIGHT

Advance Sale of Seats For Recital at Rink Has Been Heavy.

The entertainment which will be given at the Colosseum rink tonight, for the purpose of securing funds for the better equipment of the Dallas Free Library, is one of exceptional merit, and deserves a liberal patronage from the citizens of Dallas.

Mrs. McGuire will be assisted in her lecture-recital, "Echoes from Dixie Land," by Miss Beulah Cadwell, a well-known soprano, of Portland, who will add to the beauty of Mrs. McGuire's rare impersonations with a complete setting of beautiful Southern songs. Mrs. McGuire will present not only her amusing darky dialect sketches, but will also read Glew, "Ode to the South," and Grady's description of a Southern Battlefield.

Entertain at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Toose entertained a party of friends at dinner Sunday evening at "The Tavern." Covers were laid for eighteen, and the table was simply yet elegantly set, the service perfect, and the menu all that could be desired. Those at the table were: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Toose, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Nichols, Mrs. Packard, Miss Jessie Pugh, Miss Ethel Toose, Mr. W. T. Belcher, Mr. Harry Packard, P. J. Shepard, Edgar J. Sherman, Dale D. Bell, Leslie Toose, Lamar Toose. After supper the evening was pleasantly passed with music and conversation.— Falls City News.

Miss Ethel Smith, who has for some time been employed as a stenographer for the firm of Sibley & Eakin, has returned to her home in Portland.

Girlhood and Scott's Emulsion are linked together.

The girl who takes Scott's Emulsion has plenty of rich, red blood; she is plump, active and energetic.

The reason is that at a period when a girl's digestion is weak, Scott's Emulsion provides her with powerful nourishment in easily digested form.

It is a food that builds and keeps up a girl's strength.
