CAKE DISCUSSES RESULT

Says Personalities Cut No Figure in Senatorial Nomination Last Friday.

"The splendid victory of the people is, to my mind, the clearest indication that they will not permit their rights to be tampered with," said Mr. Cate. "It is plainly evident that personalities had nothing whatever to do with the result of Friday's primaries. I attribute my victory absolutely to the determination of the people to hold fast to the rights which they have labored so hard to gain. My firm conviction with reference to the popular election of United States senators and Statement No. 1, and my earnest advocacy of that cause is, without doubt, the cause of my selection by the Republicans of this state.

"An incidental but powerful cause of Friday's victory, together with the sentiment in favor of Statement No. 1, was the newspapers throughout the state of Oregon. To my mind, there could be no more striking illustration of the power of the papers which are not metropolitan papers. I estimate that fully 80 per cent of the newspapers of the state are ardent advocates of the popular election of senators and Statement No. 1. As exponents of that cause they supported me, not personally, but the people's rights. There is nothing that I can say with reference to the power of these newspapers further than to point to the result of Friday's election.

"The defeat of Senator Fulton was due in no sense to his personality, to his record, or to anything that he has ever done. In my estimation it is due simply, as I said before, to the fact that the people insisted on a more positive position than the senator assumed with reference to the legislators to carry out the expressed will of the people."

DALLAS HORSE FOR PARADE

Walter Sears Offers Fine Riding Animal For King of Portland Rose Fair.

Walter Sears, of Dallas, thinks he has just the horse which the Rose Festival association wants for Rex Oregonus to ride upon and it is possible that his animal may be selected. In a letter to The Journal Mr. Sears writes:

"I have in my livery barn here a horse that I think will fill the bill to perfection. It is a snow-white mare, weight about 925 pounds, standing 15 hands and one inch, long flowing mane and tail; in fact I think it is especially fitted for the leadership of the parade. I would be pleased to hear from the proper committee regarding the matter."

The festival association wished to secure a horse to lead the triumphal entry of the king of the festival into the city and if Mr. Sears' animal fills requirements it will probably be used.—Portland Journal.

Prohibition Oratorical Contest.
The intercollegiate oratorical contest will be held in McMinnville, Friday evening, and many of the students of Dallas College are planning to accompany the Dallas representative, Miss Lillian McVicker, and support the oratorical fame of their college to the best of their ability. Dallas College has made an excellent showing in every contest held since the Students' Prohibition Oratorical contest was first established, winning three first places and two second places in seven contests, and twice winning second place in the interstate contest, in which Oregon, Washington and California were represented. Miss McVicker won second place in the state contest held at Dallas last year, and her friends believe that she stands an excellent chance to carry off the first prize in the coming contest.

Raise Funds For Ball Grounds.
The newly organized baseball team of Dallas has found great difficulty in securing grounds suitable for laying out a diamond, and it was feared that the team might have to disband for lack of a place to play. A petition is now being circulated among the citizens of Dallas for the purpose of raising funds, and the young men hope soon to be able either to purchase or lease grounds for the coming season.

Suit on Hop Contract.
Krebs Brothers have commenced action against T. A. Lively & Company to recover $8,000 alleged to be due on account of the failure of the latter concern to buy the Krebs hops according to contract. Two thousand dollars of the amount named in the suit is for advance payments on the 1908 crop, due this month. The other $6,000 represents the value of the 1906 crop.—Salem Statesman.

Floods Bring Sawlogs.
Heavy flooding is bringing down an enormous quantity of sawlogs from the camps in the mountains to the pond of the Dallas Lumber Company's sawmill. The entire pond and race are crowded with logs, and a large jam is collected along the northern banks of the Rickreall near the Howe property.

OBSERVE MAUNDY-THURSDAY

Scottish Rite Masons of Polk County Gather at Festal Board in Independence.

The Scottish Rite Masons of Polk county, following their usual custom, observed Maundy Thursday by giving a banquet in the Masonic Hall at Independence on the night of April 19. Eleven members of the rite, accompanied by their wives or lady friends, were present to enjoy the elaborate spread that had been prepared. The banquet was held in the Masonic Hall dining room, which was beautifully decorated with wild currant, Oregon grape and ferns. Numerous electric lights added brilliancy to the scene, and carnations and roses in profusion adorned the tables. Highly appropriate menu cards, designed and drawn by Paul Belt, of Portland, were distributed among the guests, and were greatly appreciated by all.

The evening was delightfully spent at table, the pleasure being heightened by numerous musical numbers by the Independence orchestra, under the leadership of Mrs. Lottie Hodges-Dorris. H. Hirschberg presided as toastmaster, and toasts were responded to by Dr. J. R. N. Bell, Oscar Hayter and J. B. V. Butler. The hour was long past midnight when the merry company broke up and the visitors from Monmouth and Dallas boarded the special motor for home.

Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Butler and H. Hirschberg, of Independence; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. V. Butler, of Monmouth; Miss Maude Hill, of Portland; Dr. J. R. N. Bell, of Corvallis; Dr. and Mrs. Mark Hayter, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Staffin, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Cherrington, Mrs. Emma Belt, Miss Emma Dempsey, Miss Nora Robertson, Messrs. R. E. Williams and J. C. Hayter, of Dallas.

GAVE "SEASON SOCIAL"

Young Women of Dallas College Realized Neat Sum For Local Y. W. C. A.

The young women of the Y. W. C. A. of Dallas College, gave a "Season Social" in the college chapel Friday evening, for the purpose of securing funds to pay the traveling expenses of their delegates to the Y. W. C. A. Convention, which will be held at Gearhart Park in June.

The hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens and college pennants, and in each of its four corners, was a booth appropriately trimmed to represent one of the four seasons. A program consisting of readings and musical numbers was rendered and after its close those in the audience were invited to patronize any of the various booths and to enjoy themselves to the fullness of their ability.

The "Winter Booth," presided over by Misses Etta and Eula Phillips afforded coffee and sandwiches, while the "Summer Booth" in the opposite corner, under the management of Misses Edna Hall, Alice Grant and Vera Cosper ran opposition with a tempting service of ice cream and punch.

The "Autumn Booth" was presided over by Misses Ada Osfield and Lillian McVicker and carried a line of dainty homemade candies, and in the "Spring Booth," Misses Nola Coad and Ella Roy sold fine salads and similar dainty dishes.

The social proved highly successful, nearly all of the visitors patronizing each of the booths often and liberally, and a handsome sum was secured toward the payment of the delegates' expenses to the Gearhart Convention.

Married in Portland.
Married, at the home of the bride's uncle, D. C. Salling, 1122 East Morrison, Thursday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock, Miss Viola Martin and Harry H. Volheim, Rev. J. J. Staub, of the Sunnyside Congregational Church, officiating. The bride was formerly of McMinnville, where she is well known. Mr. Volheim has been with Fleischner, Mayer & Co., for the past five years, and is well known in Portland. Only a few relatives and friends attended. At home after May 1st, 914 East Morrison.—Sunday Oregonian.

Mrs. Volheim, who is a sister of Mrs. J. C. Uglow, made her home in this city a few years ago.

Falls City Rink.
The Falls City skating rink will be formally opened on Thursday night, April 23. The fine hardwood floor has been put in perfect condition, and every preparation has been made for the successful celebration of the opening of the big new amusement hall. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Dallas orchestra and it is anticipated that large parties of skaters from neighboring towns will be present to take part in the "first night" celebration. The admission will be 10 cents for spectators and skaters will pay 25 cents for use of the floor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Collins, of Sever, visited relatives in Dallas, Friday. Mr. Collins is enjoying excellent health and has entirely recovered from the effects of the severe injury received in Portland last summer.
