THE PROPHETS.

BY DEAN COLLINS.

The "lection day was over, and the clerks had shed their coats, and untiringly had counted all the fateful little votes; And they added up the totals and declared that it was plain That Charley wasn't slated as a Senator again; And they added (sotto voce) that beyond the slightest doubt, "The Democrats will get us, if we don't watch out."

"They're as cunning as the serpent, they're as subtle as the fox, And we greatly fear they've got the Grand Old Party in a box; As Republicans, the Democrats have registered in scores, From the swamps of Harney county to the broad Pacific shores, And they've planned a coup by which they hope to drive us into rout, And the Democrats will get us, if we don't watch out."

"These 30,000 Democrats have got us all surrounded; They're hacking at the stable base on which our hope is founded; Already we are on the run, in terror of the end, For the Democrats will beat the man on whom our hopes depend— We don't know how they'll do it, but there isn't any doubt That the Democrats will get us, if we don't watch out."

"The 60,000 voters, whom the Grand Old Party boasts, Must quail before the onslaught of the Democratic hosts— We cannot see exactly how the enemy will land us, But we feel sure they've got a juicy lemon that they'll hand us; Although in voting force we've got them skinned beyond a doubt, Still the Democrats will get us, if we don't watch out."

"By 30,000 voters, the Republicans surpass The motley horde that rides upon the Democratic ass; But dark and grim disaster is imminent to us— There is no other outcome to the sorely-tangled mess; And so we deem our duty plain to raise the warning shout, That the Democrats will get us, if we don't watch out."

No election was held in Rock Creek precinct. Only two voters were registered. It is probable that this precinct will be annexed to Falls City at the next election.

The work of drilling for coal on the Brown property north of Dallas was commenced this morning. The machinery arrived in Dallas, Saturday night and was taken out to the farm and set up in readiness for work yesterday.

Two Republican candidates in Polk county will also be the Democratic candidates. They are B. F. Jones for joint representative and R. L. Chapman for coroner. Each received a higher Democratic vote than any Democrat and hence will be the nominees of the minority parties in the event that they accept the nomination. W. I. Reynolds was nominated for school superintendent, A. M. Holmes for Commissioner, and Luther Ground for surveyor, their names having been written on the ballot. It is not known whether any one of them will accept a nomination.
