IN CUPID'S REALM

Miss Florence Palmer Becomes Bride of Mr. Paul Hunter, of Portland.

Mr. Paul L. Hunter, a rising young business man of Portland, and Miss Florence Palmer, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Palmer, Wednesday, at noon, the Rev. M. P. Dixon of the Methodist Church, officiating.

Both of the young people are well known in this city, and about sixty of their friends were present at the ceremony.

The rooms were decorated with Oregon grape and lilacs, a lovely arch of the evergreen interspersed with white lilacs being arranged in the parlor. Under this arch the bridal party took its station, while the minister pronounced the words of the simple ceremony that made them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of cream colored silk, trimmed with white lace and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Ruth Adams played the reverie, "Meditation," during the ceremony.

After the ceremony a delicious wedding dinner was served in the dining room, and at 1 o'clock the young couple started for Portland where they will make their home in future.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter were the recipients of several handsome and valuable gifts from their many friends.

Wednesday, May 6, was the forty-first anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Palmer, and the wedding of their daughter commemorated that event in a most appropriate manner.

He has the best equipment and can do the best horse-shoeing that is done in the county. He has none but the best of help, and therefore can back up just what he says. Just give him a trial and be convinced. There is no better work put out than is put out at his shop. 4-21-81.

The two literary societies are preparing the most elaborate programs that have ever been given on such an occasion, and the rivalry runs closely between them, to determine which is to have the better entertainment.

SPRING OPPORTUNITIES

WISE TALKS BY U. S. LOUGHARY'S OFFICE BOY

Good morning, everybody! Look what's impersonating an Easter card, also the awakening of Spring, the arrival of broilers and other good things. Don't it make you feel good to see old winter on the operating table and old Sol peeping out from behind the clouds saying, "Come on out; the fishing's fine." I tell you winter has its good points, but I like to see Easter come, for Easter is the Christmas of Spring, when the bells ring for sulphur and molasses and Opportunity begins to knock at your door again. That's about all that knocks in the spring for most everything and everybody wants to boost. It's in the air. One opportunity to help boost yourself and boost my boss, is at your door. I want everybody that loves a kid to help me earn my salary this year. Keep me busy. We can deliver. Put me to the proof.
