CASE IS STILL UNDECIDED
Fate of A. J. Hembree Will Not Be Settled Before Monday, September 21.
The famous Hembree murder trial, which has been carried through the courts of one county already, and which has been dragging out for two months in Polk county, seems little nearer decision than it was at the beginning.
The argument before Judge George H. Barnett, on the motion of the defense for a new trial, occupied almost the entire day yesterday, and at its close the judge adjourned the court until Monday, September 21, announcing that he would consider the evidence and the arguments advanced, and render his decision at that session.
The attorneys for the defense express the utmost confidence that a new trial will be granted on the ground of the insufficiency of the evidence on which the prisoner was convicted and they profess perfect satisfaction with the progress of the case thus far.
Hembree, who seemed to relax into a despondent mood after the close of the session of July 9, now takes a more cheerful view of the case, and seems more hopeful than ever of its successful outcome in his favor.
Texts For Teachers' Examinations.
The following will be of interest to those who intend taking the teachers' examinations in August: State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman announced last Wednesday that the sources from which questions will be taken for State and County examination papers are as follows: Bookkeeping, office methods and practical bookkeeping, part one; physiology, Hutcheson; U. S. history, Doub; civil government, Strong and Shafer; theory and practice, White's Art of Teaching; arithmetic, Smith; grammar, Buehler; geography, Redway & Homan, National School Geography; psychology, Buel; English literature, Newcomer, and the following classics: "Sketch-book," "Rip Van Winkle," Legend of Sleepy Hollow, "Merchant of Venice," "Ivanhoe," "Westminster Abbey," "Stratford-on-Avon," "Christmas," "The Spectre Bridegroom." Remaining subjects will be taken from the state text books. Mr. Ackerman has further decided that none of the questions for the August examination shall in any department be taken from the Course of Study, since the limited supply of these books now available would make it next to impossible for many to give suitable preparatory study to that branch of the work.
Accidentally Shot With Revolver.
Mrs. M. G. Govro was shot in the left thigh yesterday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a 38-calibre Smith & Wesson revolver. She was making up a bed and in turning the mattress, the gun which lay unnoticed beneath it, fell and was discharged, the bullet passing through her thigh from front to back. Fortunately the bone was uninjured and unless complications arise her recovery will be rapid. She suffered considerable loss of blood before a physician could be secured, but is doing nicely, and no serious results are anticipated.
Mrs. James Howe Is Dead.
Mrs. James Howe died last night at six o'clock, after a long and heroic fight against an attack of peritonitis. Every effort was made to save her life, but she steadily grew worse and at noon yesterday her case was given up as hopeless. She was well known and respected throughout Dallas and vicinity and the sad news of her death will be regretted by all. The Observer hopes to be able to give a suitable sketch of her life in its next issue.
Hand Crushed In Mangle.
Curtis Houser, who drives the wagon for the Dallas Steam Laundry, accidentally caught his hand in the mangle Wednesday and was quite seriously hurt. The end of his thumb was crushed off, and the palm of his hand laid open in a wide gash, which required several stitches to close. Fortunately none of the joints of his fingers were injured and he will practically recover complete use of his hand.
The case of the State of Oregon vs. D. E. Blanchard was heard before Justice of the Peace Hardy Holman yesterday, the argument occupying almost the entire afternoon. Blanchard was accused of trespass on the property of W. E. Garber, of Ballston, but upon hearing the evidence, Justice Holman dismissed the case and discharged the prisoner.
E. E. Gilliam, of Salem, was a business visitor in Dallas yesterday.

ENJOYABLE LAWN PARTY
Miss Retta Campbell Delightfully Entertains Several Members of Christian Endeavor.
Miss Retta Campbell entertained a number of her friends with a pleasant lawn party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Wednesday evening.
The trees and shrubbery on the lawn were trimmed with Japanese parasols, and the dainty penants of the Christian Endeavor, and light was furnished by means of Japanese lanterns suspended among the branches.
The earlier part of the evening was consumed with a short business meeting of the Endeavor officers after which a pleasant social hour was spent in various lively outdoor games. Toward the close of the evening's entertainment a delicious luncheon consisting of fruit and other seasonable delicacies was served.
Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lane, Mrs. Frank Brown, of Portland, Misses Ethel Gwin, Cecil Blasing, Frankie Hayter, Ella Roy, Messrs. Robert Kelly, Will Caldwell and Alphas Boyd.
Miss Bessie Young returned yesterday from an extended visit at the home of her brother, Walter, in Portland.
