It is reported that Father J. H. McDevitt, of St. Mary's Cathedral, in Portland, is preparing to have a Catholic church established in Independence, having taken a census and found the Catholic representation in that city to be quite large. When in Dallas this week Father McDevitt said that he was yet uncertain as to the advisability of establishing a church in Dallas also, but he believes that this step will be taken in the near future provided the number of Catholics increases sufficiently in the meantime.

Leaves Property to Widow.
The will of Joshua McDaniel, who died July 6, leaving property in Multnomah, Clackamas and Polk counties valued at $35,000, has been admitted to probate in the county court. McDaniel left all his property to the widow, Virginia A. McDaniel, bearing in mind his children and grandchildren and declaring his belief that his wife would deal fairly with them. He names them as follows: The children, Andrew J., Willis H., Newton M., and Lee H. McDaniel, and Hannah E. White; the grandchildren, Ernest F. McDaniel, Cecile Wilcox and Geneva Wilcox. As executrix and executor McDaniel names his widow and W. H. Fulkerson, her brother. These will act without giving bonds. The personal property is valued at $20,000, $9000 being the value of the real estate.—Oregonian.

Boy Falls From Wire—Breaks Leg
Raymond Hanor, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hanor, was painfully injured yesterday morning, by falling several feet and breaking the bone of his left leg between the knee and the hip. It appears that several of the boys who witnessed Professor Wildez "slide for life" during the carnival in June, and fired by the spirit of emulation, had fitted up a miniature wire for themselves. They had made the slide successfully scores of times, and, until the wire broke under the boy's weight yesterday, not one of them had met with the slightest accident. Young Hanor will recover rapidly from his injuries, and will suffer no permanent ill effects from his thrilling experience.
