WILLIE'S DEFIANCE.
BY DEAN COLLINS.
What! Clubbed by the club of the Iriquois Club?
Blackballed and kicked out like the veriest duff?
Yet over your frost I shall never repine,
I spurn your black stogies and spue out your wine
And boldly defy you. Come on! Do your worst.
On William—who-also-one-time-Randolph Hearst!
Ye say I've forsaken the Democrat head,
For which I once fought and so freely was bled;
Abandoned the flag of the Democrat host,
Where once I stood staunchest and holered the most!
Your bitter arraignment serenely I view
And calmly admit that indeed it is true.
The Democrat's symbol, with long twirling ears,
Crops nothing but thistle weeds every four years,
While Bechemoth, foe of the doctile jackass,
Swipes deep with his trunk in the succulent grass.
Say, why should I cherish and hold as a friend
The beast that eternally gets the short end?
But you, who have followed his footsteps so far,
Pray tell me what breed of a donkey you are?
Do you bray of the tariff or bray of the treat,
Or silver, or which you at one season fussed,
Or lift up your voices in doctile acclaim
And bray at the sound of the "Com-mers'" name?
What, kicked by a mule? You are welcome to kick!
I bare my broad breast to the murderous lick!
I bless the cruel knife stroke by which I'm undone
From the Democrat party I never could run!
Farwell! I defy you! Proceed! Do your worst
Against William—who-also-one-time-Randolph-Hearst!
Larceny Case Dismissed.
The case of H. S. McCormick, accused of larceny by Irwin Devine, of Oakdale, was heard before Justice of the Peace Hardy Holman yesterday morning at 10 a. m. and was dismissed without prejudice. Mr. McCormick and his partner were camped near Dallas with a band of horses, which they were selling and trading among the residents of this vicinity. Mr. Devine claimed that he had negotiated with McCormick for the purchase of a mare valued at $30, and had offered to pay $15 cash and give his violin to complete the payment. He said that he was showing the instrument to McCormick, Wednesday evening and, some objection arising, refused to close the deal, whereupon McCormick, who was sitting in his buggy, declared that it was a trade anyhow and drove away taking the violin with him. Devine immediately had a warrant sworn out for his arrest but upon hearing both sides of the case, Justice Hardy Holman decided that the evidence was not sufficient to warrant the charge of larceny. It appeared that the trade had in reality been closed and that although the horse trader had perhaps bullied the young man into making it, to a certain extent, there was no ground for the accusation that he had stolen the violin.
J. T. Johnson and family returned Wednesday from a trip to Newport.
J. H. Nies, the tinner in William Faul's hardware store, has been busy for several days making sheet iron pipes for hop driers in this vicinity. In spite of the reduced crop this year, the demand for hop drier pipes is almost as great as ever.
The sample blocks of concrete in both the smooth and the rock front finish which F. H. Pepper and Wes Vaughn have made with their new machine and have on display at the Dallas Ice Factory, are excellently made and will no doubt soon come into general use for building purposes in this city. Their machine for making concrete tiling has also worked successfully and Messrs. Vaughn and Pepper expect a large demand for the new commodity.
The test of the county road roller on the Butler hill near Salt Creek proved highly satisfactory to the County Commissioners who witnessed it. Although the hill is comparatively steep and very long, the machine climbed it with apparently no trouble, and this test was considered sufficient to prove the efficiency of the engine on any of the roads in Polk county. The roller is considerably lighter than the one in use on the streets of this city, but is a much speedier machine.

Furniture Company Changes Hands.
M. E. Schoweller has sold his share in the Dallas Furniture Company to Ralph Adams, and will retire from business temporarily. Yesterday was spent in making an invoice preparatory to the transfer of ownership. Mr. Adams has been in business in Dallas for several years and has proven himself to be a thoroughly competent and up-to-date business man, and there is no doubt that the business will continue to prosper under his individual management. Mr. Schoweller has won many friends in Dallas during his short residence here, who will regret the circumstances that make it necessary for him to retire, but it is to be hoped that he will continue to make his home here as he has always proven himself a loyal and progressive citizen and one whom we could ill afford to lose.
Lee Smith will have a cement sidewalk and curbing laid in front of his cetyery on Main street.
MELONS AND COFFEE
WISE TALKS BY U. S. LOUGHARY'S OFFICE BOY.

Well, Sir, school has been out two weeks and I haven't had any melons yet. I suppose its my own fault for they are certainly getting plenty enough. I tell you what it is, next to the strawberry, a melon is the best thing a man can eat in the morning, and coffee is the best thing he can drink. A lot of folks have a kind of grouch against coffee drinking, but maybe they never get the right kind. Really good coffee hasn't a grouch in a gallon of it. Poor coffee contains too much of the bitter principal "tannin." I think they call it) and that makes a fellow peevish, especially too much of it. Lots of good coffee is ruined in the making; boiled too long; made too weak, and dozed with poor milk. To be a good and wholesome drink, coffee should be roasted fresh, made strong, and brought just to the boiling point (or made in a coffee percolator by pouring boiling water over the powdered coffee) and served with rich cream such as the St. Charles or Pioneer brands. Ma says this is so and that good coffee, properly made, never hurts anyone. Have you tried our M. J. B. coffee?
