DEATH ENDS LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Frank Gibson Dies of Lung Trouble at Her Father's Home in West Salem.

Mrs. Frank Gibson died at the home of her father, James Simonton, in West Salem, Sunday morning September 6, after an illness of nearly three years from lung trouble.

Mrs. Gibson was born in Lawrence county, Pennsylvania, November 18, 1873, and came to Oregon with her parents in 1888. In 1891 she entered the State Normal at Monmouth and after a two years' course in that institution, taught school for two years in West Salem.

On June 26, 1895, she was married to Frank Gibson and the young couple settled at Rickreall, where they made their home until last year, when they moved to Bellingham, Washington. Previous to that time Mrs. Gibson had traveled in Arizona and California in an effort to recover from the disease that had fastened itself upon her. Last June she returned to Oregon and remained at her father's home until the time of her death.

Mrs. Gibson was a woman of many amiable qualities and her affliction and death at such an early time in life, is a sad blow to her relatives and many friends.

She is survived by her husband; her father, James Simonton; four sisters, Mrs. H. W. Thielson and Misses Katherine, Edna and Della Simonton; and six brothers, Willis Simonton, of this city; Charles, of Crestline, Ohio; Ellis, of Bellingham, Washington; James, of Independence, and John and Prescott, who are in Eastern Oregon.

The funeral was held yesterday morning under the auspices of the Naomi Chapter of the Eastern Star, of this city, of which she was a member. About twenty of the members drove to Salem and attended the burial services which were held at the grave in the Salem cemetery. Mrs. Gibson was also a member of the Artisan lodge at Rickreall.

Catholic Mission Closes.

They returned to Portland yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Father H. J. McDevitt will remain in Dallas a few days longer attending to business concerning the permanent foundation of a church in Dallas and the establishment of a hospital in the near future.

The peaches brought into the market from the Howe orchard west of Dallas are exceptionally beautiful specimens of fruit. Large, firm, well-formed and highly colored they are considerably above the average of excellence and, if still in season at that time, a well packed box of them would make a remarkably fine showing at the Oregon State Fair in Salem next week.

Dr. Robertson, of Salem, drove over to Dallas in his auto Friday evening to assist Drs. Bollman and Starbuck in an operation upon one of the twin babies of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gleason which was suffering from a serious rupture. At the last moment, however, they were able to reduce the rupture and avoid the necessity of operation. The child is doing nicely with prospects of a rapid and complete recovery.

The concrete arch on Main street between Mill and Oak is completed and as soon as the curbing along each side of that block is completed the laying of the macadam will be commenced. The necessary excavation is already well under way and will probably be finished by the time the curbing work is completed. That block is the most difficult with which the street improvement crew has been equipped.

CHEESES

WISE TALKS BY U. S. LOUGHARY'S OFFICE BOY

Yesterday a motherly looking lady came into the store and asked the main squeeze if there really was such a kid around the store as the one that looked like me. She said she had often seen boys with faces that resembled mine, but she couldn't recall ever having one on her calling list that had such an open countenance as I had. Honest, I had to just grin right out loud and dodge under one of the counters that have our imported cheeses on it. You know we carry every kind of good imported cheese that's wanted and some of them are "just the cheese," you bet. A nice thing about it is you don't have to make an ocean voyage to get them. If you want a nice brick of Limburger, you come right straight to us and you can get it. We have a new lot of Tillamook Twists and Young American. I am getting $4 a week now and I am going to get a 50 cent raise the first of the month. I like Club cheese better than any kind. What's your choice?
