AGED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

J. C. White, a prominent Polk County Farmer, Dies at His Home Near Oak Grove.

J. C. White, a prosperous farmer of Polk county, died at his home near Oak Grove, Monday night, September 14, his death being due to the general physical decline of old age.

Mr. White was 69 years of age at the time of his death. He was born in Missouri and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1865 settling near Oak Grove, where he has made his home ever since.

Although his health had been declining for several years, his condition did not become critical until a few days ago. A message was sent to his brother, W. W. White, of Wallowa county, asking him to come at once, but he was unable to reach his brother's bedside until late last night, arriving only to find that death had already occurred.

The deceased is survived by his wife; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Kantner, of Seattle, and Mrs. Lizzie Starbuck, of Portland, and three brothers, W. W. White, of Wallowa county; Jackson White, of Marion county, and M. F. White, of Rickreall.

Mr. White was a prominent man of affairs of Polk county during his life, taking an especial active interest in the grange work.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Zena church.

Mrs. J. C. Gilmore, of Los Angeles, California, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. VanOrsdal, Saturday.

During the absence of Captain C. D. Chorpening and until further arrangement is made, Conrad Staffin will have charge of the armory.

The public school building will be connected with the city sewer system and new toilets will be installed before the beginning of the school term on September 28.

G. B. Morrison left Saturday for his home in Shreveport, Louisiana, after an extended visit in Dallas. He was accompanied as far as Portland by his brother, F. H. Morrison and niece, Miss Edna Morrison.

Ground was broken for the sewer ditch on Washington street, between Main and Church, yesterday morning and the sewer on that block will be laid before macadamizing is commenced on that street.

P. A. Finseth, accompanied by his brother-in-law, M. A. Paulson, of Porter, Iowa, was a guest of C. L. Starr in Salem, Friday. Mr. Paulson is now in Silverton visiting his sister, Mrs. M. G. Gunderson.

Mrs. Metzger, wife of Prof. D. M. Metzger, of Dallas College, went to McMinnville, Monday evening, after spending a couple of weeks in Newberg visiting with her sister, Mrs. W. W. Nelson.—Newberg Graphic.

William Mackie, a prominent farmer residing near this city, is critically ill with blood poisoning resulting from a wound in his foot caused by a rusty nail. It is feared that it may become necessary to amputate the affected limb.

C. D. Chorpening left this afternoon for Eugene where he has secured a position with the Portland Electric Engineering Company. Tracy Staats will take his place in Dallas as assistant manager of the Willamette Valley Company.

J. H. Hart received a painful bruise on his elbow while working in the planing mill yesterday, his arm becoming entangled in the machinery. Fortunately he was able to break away from the machine without receiving serious injury.

Cooper & Whiteside, proprietors of the moving picture theater in the Black Tent will have their new room in the Riley building fitted up for occupancy by the end of this week, and expect to give the first show in their new quarters either Friday or Saturday evening.

Collections.

I have been conducting a collecting agency in Dallas for more than a year, and have thus far met with almost uniform success. All accounts placed in my hands for collection will receive prompt and careful attention, and I feel that I can assure complete satisfaction to all my clients. 8-18-11

L. D. BUTLER

Felix Comegys, of Perrydale, went to Salem yesterday with his fine horses for exhibition in the livestock department of the State Fair. Mr. Comegys has for years taken prizes on his horses, and expects to have better success this season than ever before.

The Spaulding sawmill in this city resumed operations yesterday after a summer of idleness. A full crew of men is employed both at the mill and in the camps at the head of the LaCredole, and the work will be carried on actively during this fall and the coming winter.

The series of meetings conducted in the Adventist tent closed Sunday evening, but services will be continued in the Adventist church on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Pettit, of Portland, who have been assisting in the services have rented property in Dallas and may move to this city to reside. They are greatly pleased with the hospitality shown them during their stay here, and with the large attendance at all of their meetings.
