COST OF STREET BUILDING

City Engineer Files Itemized Report at Council Meeting—Other Important Business.

City Engineer F. H. Morrison submitted at last night's council meeting, the following itemized report of the cost of the street improvement work which has thus far been finished:

Main street block between Court and Jefferson—$1177.71.

Court street block between Main and Jefferson—$1148.83.

Court street block between Main and Church—$1518.50.

Mill street between Main and Jefferson—$1202.98.

Intersection of Main and Court streets—$331.03.

Concrete arch over mill race on Main street—$153.18.

Several minor subjects were discussed, the ordinance for licensing establishments selling non-intoxicating malt beverages was read for the second time, and the committee on Fire and Water was ordered to have the hose in the city fire department subjected to a careful and thorough test.

An ordinance was ordered drawn up calling for the building of a concrete conduit to be installed over that portion of the mill race running in front of the Crider property on Main street, so that a concrete sidewalk may be laid along that portion of the street.

Before adjournment, a motion was also carried ordering that the sum of $100 be paid to the city library committee for current expenses.

GUILTY OF SELLING LIQUOR

Proprietors of "Blind Pig" Near Independence Arrested and Fined Heavily.

Robert E. Gibbons, of Portland, and Ed Keibert, formerly of Black Rock, were brought before Justice of the Peace B. Wilson in Independence yesterday afternoon, charged with the illegal sale of liquor in a dry county and a fine of $50 was imposed upon each.

The arrest was made Saturday night by Sheriff J. M. Grant and his deputy, Horatio Morrison. Mr. Morrison had for some time been confident that the sale of liquors was being carried on in the hopyards about Independence, but so shrewd and cautious were the dealers, that he was unable to secure any proof sufficient to warrant the arrest of the suspected parties.

Sheriff Grant was in Independence, Saturday, and knowing that the liquor dealers would be on their guard while he was there, had the report given out that he had returned to Dallas late in the evening.

When he was reasonably sure that all was quiet, he sent two men to the tent in the Horst hopyard, where it was claimed the liquor was being sold with instructions to buy a bottle of whiskey. Taking Mr. Morrison along with him he witnessed the transaction and stepping out from his place of concealment, immediately took Keibert, who had sold the liquor, into custody. Gibbons was not at the tent at the time and Mr. Morrison hurried up to the dance hall and effected his arrest there.

Finding that he was effectually caught, Gibbons withheld nothing but gave all the information on the subject that he could, implicating several parties hitherto unsuspected, in the illicit traffic in the hopyards and a number of arrests are expected to follow in a short time.
