Koser's Fine Farm.

F. A. Koser, of Rickreall, had a fine exhibition of his Berkshires at the Oregon State Fair. Mr. Koser has a fine farm, where he raises and raises not only Berkshire hogs, but Cotswold sheep. This year he had about 60 acres of clover which he threshed for seed, and in conversation with him, we find that the yield throughout the valley this year will not be much more than one-half crop. Mr. Koser believes that a farm should be better after it is farmed 50 years than when first started and runs his farm upon this basis.—Oregon Agriculturist.
