WILL VISIT POLK COUNTY Farming Demonstration Train Will Be in Dallas and Independence, Friday, November 6.
H. A. Hinshaw, Traveling Freight Agent for the Southern Pacific Company, was in Dallas yesterday making arrangements for the visit to Dallas, of the farming demonstration train, which will make a tour of the Willamette Valley during the coming week, under the auspices of the Southern Pacific Company and the Oregon Agricultural College. The train will consist of seven or more coaches donated for the purpose by R. B. Miller, General Freight Agent, who was the originator of the demonstration train idea. Each car will be devoted to the practical demonstration of up-to-date methods of farming in some special department.
One car will be devoted to agriculture, the growing of grains and grasses and the practical application of the latest improved agricultural machinery. Another will deal with dairying in all its phases from the use of the modern milking machine, through the whole process of separating, testing, etc. A feature of especial interest will be the car containing the model stalls in which a thorough demonstration of the use of milking machines will be given. Horticulture with its various phases; budding, grafting, spraying, packing of fruit etc., will receive a full share of attention and all of the other departments of the farming industry will be thoroughly dealt with.
The demonstrators and instructors will be taken largely from the faculty of the Oregon Agricultural College.
The personnel of this faculty, which will consist of the finest specialized talent to be procured in Oregon, will be as follows: Dr. James Withycombe, director of Oregon Experiment Station; M. O. Lounsdale, horti-cultivist; Professor A. B. Cordley, Entomologist; Professors C. I. Lewis and R. W. Allen, horticulture; Professor H. D. Scudder, agronomist; Professor F. L. Kent, dairy husbandry; Harry Ashbahr, herdsman.
In addition to the instructors the train will carry its official photographers and numerous other assistants, and beside the demonstration coaches, a day coach, sleeper, business coach, etc., will be run.
The train is being made up at Corvallis at the Agricultural College and will start on its itinerary Wednesday, November 4, running according to a strict schedule. Two stops will be made in Polk county, one at Dallas and one at Independence, both on Friday, November 6. The train will be in Dallas from 11 o'clock a. m. to 12:45 and the stop in Independence will be from 1:30 to 3:25 p. m.
The purpose of the company and the Agricultural College in running this train is to give the farmers throughout the Willamette Valley equal opportunities, in a measure, with the students of the Agricultural College, in gaining a comprehensive knowledge of the most advanced and practical methods of agriculture. Mr.
Miller ran a similar train in Eastern Oregon last year and so successful was its work that he has been fairly besieged with requests from the farming people of those sections for a repetition of the tour through their territory this season.
C. L. Crider returned last evening from a hunting trip on Salmon River.
Messrs. Bruckner & Fuchs, proprietors of the Dallas Bakery, are preparing to move their establishment into the place now occupied by the Barnhart & Grant meat market, which is to be moved into the Williams building. The owners of the bakery are already laying a concrete floor and preparing to build a big up-to-date oven in their new establishment.

WISE TALKS BY U. S. LOUGHARY'S
OFFICE BOY

The boss told me Saturday night that if he heard any one say I was a good-hearted boy I might go home and stay there. "When they can't say anything good about you," he went on to explain, "they'll say you are a good-hearted fellow, which is just about the same as saying you are no account." I spunked up a bit and said, "What am I to be when I'm not good-hearted?" He came right back at me and says: "I want you to be known as a hustler, and when they see you wheel up in front of their place I want them to know that their order has arrived right on time, and that it will open up just as they expected it would when they bought it, without any omissions or commissions; well, sir, there are certainly no commissions or tips of any kind on this job, and not much chance for any omissions for the reason that the old man watches us too closely. He is good natured, all right, if everything goes right, but if anything goes wrong, he makes it right and that's no fairy tale. You should see what a lot of home product we are selling now. Dallas bread, butter, cookies and cakes give perfect satisfaction and the boss takes pleasure in selling them."
