HENRY HOWE IS DEAD

Former Resident of Dallas Succumbs To Sudden Attack of Heart Failure.

A telegram was received in Dallas, Wednesday morning, announcing the death of Henry Howe at his home in Bellingham, Washington. The telegraphic message was followed yesterday by a letter from Frank Howe, a son of the deceased, giving the particulars of his sudden death, which was due to an attack of asthma and heart trouble.
Mr. Howe had gone to bed on Monday night apparently in the best of health. Shortly after he awoke Tuesday morning the attack occurred, resulting in death within the period of only two hours.
Henry Howe was a son of William and Catharine Howe and was born in Newtown, Indiana, November 11, 1832. He came to Oregon in 1851 and lived near Perrydale until 1860, when he moved to Dallas.
He was married in Goldendale, Washington, August 20, 1867, to Miss America Jenkins, who died in this city October 15, 1897. After her death he moved with his family to Skagway, Alaska, and after a few years residence in that city, went to Bellingham, Washington, where he resided until the time of his death.
He is survived by three brothers, Robert and James Howe, of Dallas, and Zachary Howe, of Seattle; a daughter, Mrs. Nellie Shoemaker, of Seattle, and a son, Frank Howe, of Bellingham.
The remains will be brought to Dallas this morning and the funeral service will be held in the Methodist church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Burial will be in the old cemetery west of the Old Fellows cemetery.
A man of many excellent qualities, Mr. Howe gained the respect and friendship of all, and his sudden death will occasion the deepest and most sincere regret among his many friends.

December 1, only a little more than a week off, will bring to a close the hunting season, which has been poorer than usual in this vicinity. Birds have been quite scarce and the majority of the hunters enjoyed but indifferent success. An equally unsatisfactory season is reported in many other portions of the Willamette Valley, and it is thought that these conditions will bring about an effort on the part of the sportsmen to have more stringent game laws enacted, so that the game birds may be better protected and given a better opportunity to multiply.

Good Coffee Values

WISE TALKS BY U. S. LOUGHARY'S OFFICE BOY

I was reading about a fellow who was asked what he had had for lunch, and he said: "A piece of baconine, some almost shaghigh berries, (eggs) a grunt and a cackle (ham and eggs) a cup of near coffee and some not quite pie." Well, you won't find any "near coffee around this shop; that is, if we sell it to you for coffee. Our eggs are fresh—no eastern or packed eggs. It's easy for a grocer to give you a good run for your coffee money if he isn't too stingy. Our coffee is better than ever before. It all depends upon how much a grocer is willing to pay for his coffee. You can buy the real Old Govt. Java or you can buy near Java which comes from Brazil, but whatever we sell you whether it is Java, Mocha and Java or Costa Rica, you may know it is the best grade that can be sold for the money. Loughary has a big coffee trade and that helps to give you fresh roasted coffee any old day you want it, and not the tasteless kind which has lost most of its strength. I expect a lot of ladies in the store today to buy their coffee.
