DALLAS, OREGON, DECEMBER 11 1908

The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

The business men of Dallas took a step of prime importance in the organization of the Dallas Development League, Tuesday morning, and the people of this city who are really interested in its welfare will give the new organization all possible assistance in the prosecution of the advertising campaign which it is to take up. The time is particularly opportune. The Oregons, backed and supported by the people of Dallas, will leave next week on their basketball tour through the East and with proper advertising material placed in their hands, can sow the name and resources of Dallas broadcast until this city, like Eugene and other cities that have advertised, will become a point of crystallization for a large portion of the throng of immigrants that will sweep westward next summer. In addition to the colonist movement, the three big celebrations to be held on the Pacific Coast next summer—the Rose Fair at Portland; the Alaska-Yukon Exposition at Seattle and the Three Years After Fair at San Francisco—will attract an enormous tourist travel. Dallas wants its share from the colonist travel and wants the tourists to know that it is decidedly on the map as one of the most promising of the Willamette Valley cities, and the work that the Dallas Development League intends taking up is the very work that will accomplish that end.

Young People's Meeting Tonight.

The Young People's Society of Dallas will hold an important meeting in the Methodist Church tonight at 8 o'clock for the purpose of discussing subjects concerning the work of the organization and electing officers for the ensuing year. The meeting will be one of great importance and they have made extensive preparations for the occasion. All will be welcome and as large an attendance as possible is desired. The following program will be given: Song, The Love That Won; scripture reading, Miss Elizabeth Young; song, Worship The Lord; prayer, Rev. M. P. Dixon; song, Lift Me To The Light; address, Needs of the Y. P. S. of Dallas, L. A. Matthews; song, He Called Come Home; Discussion of channels through which the society works for the moral betterment of the community opened by Professor D. M. Metzger, open parliament led by Miss Ella Roy.

The Teddy Bear Jubilee Singers.

The manager of the Star theater has secured for the coming week, at a great expense, The Teddy Bear Jubilee Singers, who will give a performance each evening in connection with the usual program. They sing; they dance; they play; giving an entertainment that has been highly commended in every city that they have thus far visited. Their engagement in Dallas will begin Monday, December 14. The Teddy Bear Jubilee Singers' entertainment is given in addition to the regular program, but the admission price will remain the same—10 cents. The citizens of Dallas will have, therefore, the opportunity of seeing two first-class shows for the price of one and surely it is an opportunity they can not afford to let slip by them.

Expect Hard Game.

The basketball game to be played between Dallas College and Multnomah Athletic Club on the local floor tomorrow night is admittedly one of the most important games of the League season. Every year, the struggle between these two teams for supremacy has been hard and close, the teams breaking even two years ago, each with a victory to its credit. This year it is believed that the victor in the first game between the two teams may reasonably be expected to carry the League championship and Saturday night's game will consequently be one of the most bitterly contested that has ever been played on the local floor between two Oregon teams.

Telephone Meeting.

A telephone meeting will be held in the Courthouse, Saturday, December 19, for the purpose of discussing switching arrangements. The meeting will be called at 10 o'clock and it is desired that a representative from every line centering in Dallas be present, as there is much important business of general interest to be transacted.

The Christmas Dinner.

In spite of the fact that the word dyspepsia means literally bad cook, it will not be fair for many to lay the blame on the cook if they begin the Christmas Dinner with little appetite and end it with distress or nausea. It may not be fair for any to do that—let us hope so for the sake of the cook! The disease dyspepsia indicates a bad stomach, that is a weak stomach, rather than a bad cook, and for a weak stomach there is nothing else equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It gives the stomach vigor and tone, cures dyspepsia, creates appetite, and makes eating the pleasure it should be.

Important Notice.

A $40.00 Banquet Steel Range to be sold to the highest bidder, regardless of price.

Adams & Brobst Company, housefurnishers are going to sell a $40.00 Banquet Steel Range, one of the best ranges on the market today, to the highest bidder, without reserve. Sealed bids will be received for the range up to the 24th day of December, 1908, at 12 o'clock noon. All bids must be securely sealed, marked bid on range, and addressed to Adams & Brobst Company, Dallas, Oregon.

The Banquet Range is without a peer among the steel ranges on the market and Adams & Brobst Company have adopted this plan of calling the attention of the public to the merits of this particular range. The company will be glad to show the range and explain its merits to anyone interested, and if anyone bids on the range either after seeing it, or without seeing it, and find they do not want it, they will be under no obligations to take it as it will then be awarded to the next highest bidder. The range to be sold in this novel method is one of the very best.

A dispatch from Falls City to the Telegram, Wednesday, says that a tree cut at Powell's logging camp near Black Rock slid down the hillside for a distance of about 600 feet and crashed through the donkey engine, completely demolishing it. The men in charge of the engine were standing a short distance away and only one was hurt, his injuries being slight. The company's loss in the strange accident was about $1500.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stout left yesterday morning for the East. Mr. Stout is sent out as advance man for The Oregons and will travel over the proposed route of the basketball team, sign up contracts for games and attend to the advertising. He was to have started Saturday but was delayed by business affairs. The team will leave Monday and will probably play its first game in Vancouver, Washington.

Doesn't make much difference whether you drive for pleasure or business, you need a good warm robe anyway, one that you can wrap yourself up in, one, that if necessary can cover up two or three people without letting the wind in. That's the kind to have—that's the one I want to show.
