FAST SKATING RACES

Big Features Planned For Last Three Days of This Week at Colosseum Rink.

Frank Kerslake, Grover McDonald and George Brown were in McMinn-ville last week attending the races in the Walnut City rink. Mr. Brown met Chester Gaunt, of McMinnville, in a skating race Friday night and was defeated, Gaunt being out run on the following night by Jesse Little, of Portland.

Mr. Kerslake has arranged for a three days' series of entertainments, including racing and exhibitions of trick and fancy skating, to be held in the Colosseum rink in Dallas, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week. At that time Brown will have an opportunity of meeting Gaunt in another race and on Saturday night the winners in the events of the two previous nights will compete. Saturday night's races will probably be the fastest and most exciting ever held on the local floor.

In addition to the racing features Kruse and Little, of Portland, will give excellent exhibitions of trick skating and acrobatic work on skates. This will be the first exhibition of its kind held in the local rink and will no doubt be looked forward to with great interest by all those who are interested in fine skating.

The Teddy Bear Jubilee Singers, appearing at the Star Theater this week, certainly proved a drawing card last night, for every seat was filled and standing room was at a premium throughout the evening.

The dance to be given by the social committee of Company H., Saturday night, will be the last one before the Christmas holidays and unless some of the plans of the committee go astray it will prove to be the most enjoyable event of the season.

J. E. Yoakum, of Perrydale, was a business visitor in Dallas today. Mr. Yoakum was for several years man-ager of the big Moulson hopyard near Rickreall, but has recently withdrawn from the hop business and moved to Perrydale, where he is conducting a mercantile establishment.

A report comes from Ballston of the death of Valentine Sears, which occurred early yesterday morning. Mr. Sears was about 82 years old and had been a resident of Polk county for many years. He is survived by two sons, J. G. Sears, of Hillsboro, and Charles Sears, of Tillamook.

Mrs. Edwin W. Freeman, of Los Angeles, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Anna Coad. Mrs. Freeman had come up to Ashland with the remains of her father, the late E. H. Stone and from there she came on for a short visit with her many friends in this city, where she formerly made her home.

C. W. Bower, of Marcellus, Michi-gan, a dealer in fine thoroughbred stock, has been visiting in Polk county during the past week. Mr. Bowers is very favorably impressed with the land and climate of Oregon and says that he regards the Willamette Valley as the most promising section of coun-try on the Pacific coast.

Olives, Pickles Etc

WISE TALKS BY U. S. LOUGHARYS OFFICE BOY

I know what's the matter with me. I thought I had indigestion or dys-pepsia or something like that. By gum, I couldn't eat lately and felt weak and lifeless. Now I know what it is. I'm in love—got it big too. If I didn't, you needn't think I'd kiss Julia right in the mouth, in front of everybody, too. Father has warned me, though, to keep myself heart free for at least seven years yet. You see, I'm only 13 coming 14, and he says it's foolishness for a boy like me to get that call look on my face, and roll my eyes like I had fits, and to CUT IT OUT. Now to business—you can't mix love and vinegar, or sentiment with pickles and chow-chow. Don't tell anyone about my being in love, for if the old man hears of it again, he'll wallop me good and plenty. When you want good pickles or olives or any nice kind of relishes, come straight to Loughary's store. We have received 650 pounds of candies for Christmas trade. We are now using on our third sack of those fine walnuts, everybody says they are the best ever.

Keep Your Horses Warm

Freeze yourself if you enjoy it. Sit on the seat and shiver all the time you are driving, but for goodness sake when you hitch, see that your horse is blanketed. You owe that much to your faithful servant, even if you didn't—its business—It costs less to keep a horse if you keep him warm.

Many a horse has gone to the bone yard because of the need of a blanket.

There's no sense in it when I sell blankets as low as I do. Full-lined blankets from $1.50 to $2.50. Call and see for yourselves at the Harness Shop.
