THE FARM DAIRY.

Proper Facilities Needed to Make Butter For the Market.
The very best butter is made on farms when the women thoroughly understand the business and have the proper facilities. When the milk from good healthy cows is run through a cream separator as soon as possible after milking and the cream cooled to the right temperature and kept in clean, pure air and churned when it is just old enough and not too old, you get the very finest butter that skill and energy can make. Such butter, if shipped regularly to consumers in large cities, will bring a larger price than the best creamery butter, says the Farm Press. It is no more work to make butter right than to make it wrong. In fact, there is less work, because you have a proper system, and that always helps.
The farm dairy may be very simple, but it should be by itself. You cannot make thick edged butter in the kitchen. There are too many orders from cooking and sometimes from tobacco smoke. Cream is very touchy when it comes to odors. You can insult cream with a bad smell quicker than any other food product, and when it is once contaminated no cleansing process can possibly eliminate the trouble.

The dairy may open off from the kitchen, but you must keep the door closed. You will need some means of heating this room in winter time, but during the spring, fall and summer it will be warm enough without, and if it is on the north side of the building it will be cool enough most of the time without using ice, but ice is cheap enough to have and use when you need it.
The plan of dairy shown in the illustration is intended for from ten to thirty cows. If you have more cows you may need more room, but that will depend to some extent on how often you ship the butter.
The intention is to pack the butter in one pound prints or five pound cranks and to ship in neat little crates holding two or three cranks each in boxes holding ten or twenty prints. If you have the proper storage and the butter is made to keep you can hold it in your storeroom until you get ready to ship it. Good homemade butter is just as good in six months as it is the day it is made, only you cannot hold a customer unless you ship regularly.
If you agree to ship once a week, do so, and if you agree to ship once a month remember the date and don't let it go by, for it is just as important to sell right as to manufacture right.

How to Handle Sick Stock.
Place the sick animal in a well ventilated and dry stall with plenty of bedding and sunlight avoid drafts. In cold weather place a blanket on the animal and feed sparingly with digestible food, such as bran mashes made of linseed tea. Keep manger sweet and clean. Water should be pure and clean and warmed when necessary. It is always necessary for new milk cows to be given warm water. An injection of warm water should be given all sick animals, excepting those you can be sure do not require it.—Dr. David Roberts, Wisconsin State Veterinarian.

Remedy For Cowpox.
Oxide of zinc ointment rubbed on the cow's leg morning and night is a very good remedy for cowpox. The disease is carried from cow to cow on the hands of the milker, so when the disease is in the herd milkers should wash their hands carefully after milking each cow. Do not use the milk from affected cows until they are cured.

Beautiful Art Calendars.
Following our annual custom of distributing some token of remembrance to our friends and patrons, we have this year secured the most beautiful Art Calendar that has ever been given in Dallas. It is the prettiest thing that we could get for you, and we have no apology to make for it as a work of art. "Cascade Falls, Yosemite Valley," by Thomas Moran, is a masterpiece by the foremost of American scenic painters.
The only favor we ask for it, is that you will give it the most prominent place possible. We haven't the slightest doubt that you will do this, if it appeals to your good taste and judgment as it does ours. This picture will ever command a high place among landscapes by reason of its absolute truth, its brilliant coloring, and its keen conception of beauty.
We do not wish to have you gain the impression that this springs entirely from the goodness of our heart, for in this age of commercialism there is usually a motive behind a gift of this nature, and we are no exception to the rule. Our motive is this: To get in closer touch with you in order to whisper in your ear the mutual benefit of a trade alliance between yourself and the UGLOW CLOTHING HOUSE, and incidentally to "Foot Our Own Horn," so to speak.
No doubt you have learned by observation that the steady growth of our business continues. This, we believe is the result of the fair and square treatment we give. We are bending every effort that conservation will permit to merit new patronage, and we should be pleased if those who have not dealt with us will give us a trial.

HOW TO OBTAIN OUR CALENDAR.
The beautiful calendar we have is worthy of a place in any home, and as it will cost you nothing there is no reason why you should not have one. They are too valuable to be given out indiscriminately. We must, therefore, be particular in their distribution. If you care for one, please come to our store any time before December 21st, and register your name. We will reserve one for you when they are ready for distribution, which will be January 1st, 1909. We can not hold a calendar for you later than January 10th, and you must call before this time to get it. This offer is limited to grown-ups only. Don't send children.
Thanking you for past favors, hoping our relations in the future may be such that we may continue to have your good wishes and patronage, with a kind word in our behalf to your friends for theirs, we are with best wishes,
Yours most respectfully,
UGLOW CLOTHING HOUSE,
12-11-31

California has been called the Mecca of the winter tourist. Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.
Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California.

Now is the Time to visit California
When summer has passed in these northern states, the sky is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate.
California has been called the Mecca of the winter tourist. Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.
Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California.
Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California.
The rate from Dallas to Los Angeles and return is $58.80
Limit six months, allowing stop-overs in either direction. Similar excursion rates are in effect to all California points.
For full information, sleeping car reservations and tickets, call on, telegraph or write
