plete recovery are very bright.

By calling on C. H. Morris, the leading jeweler, you will see the largest assortment of 10, 14 and 18k plain and wedding rings ever shown in Polk county. This is no idle boast. 12-8-tf

The morning trains Wednesday and yesterday were slightly late owing to the heavy holiday travel and both of the hotels in the city were crowded to the limit by the throng of transient guests.

The members of the Apostolic Brotherhood have secured the building formerly occupied by the bakery and have removed the partition, making it into one large room. They will move their mission into the newly acquired room about the first of January.

Mr. Dashiell, a young man employed in the lumber yards at the Willamette Valley sawmill, narrowly escaped serious injury under a loaded lumber truck Tuesday. The truck was being run down the slip at full speed and Dashiell, who was coming up the slip toward it, looked up and saw it too late to spring aside. He grasped the ends of the boards on the load to save himself from being run down and was dragged nearly 40 feet under the truck before it could be brought to a stop. Although he was badly bruised and shaken his injuries are considered light considering the danger to which he was exposed.

Grange Elects Officers.

The Dallas Grange elected the following officers for the ensuing year at its recent business meeting: Hon.
G. W. Myer, master; G. W. McBee, overseer; Dr. T. V. B. Embree, lecturer; G. A. Brock, secretary; Conrad Staffrin, treasurer; J. E. Coover, chaplain; O. F. McBee, steward; Miss Battie Coover, lady assistant steward; Mr. Chooley, assistant steward; L. H. McBee, guard; Mrs. U. M. McBee, Ceres; Mrs. G. W. Myer, Pomona; Mrs. G. A. Brock, Flora.

Holiday Rates.

For the holidays the S. P. Company will make a round trip rate of one and one-third fare to all points on S. P. lines. The C. & E. R. R. make a rate of one fare for the round trip. Sale dates are December 23, 24, 25, 31, and January 1. Final return limit, January 4, 1909. I. N. Woods, S. P. agent, Dallas, Oregon.

For Christmas bargains call on C. H. Morris, the leading jeweler, who has been giving you the best goods for the money for the last 15 years, and this year prices will be lower than ever before.

Holbrook Brothers, who were among the heaviest prize winners at the recent poultry show, reside near Dallas instead of near Salem as was reported.
They have only recently gone into the poultry business but are already ranked among the largest breeders in Polk county.

George Nessling came down from Black Rock, Tuesday, to spend the Christmas holidays. The mills and logging camps near that place have closed until January 4 according to their usual custom to give all the employees of the company an opportunity to visit their homes.

The social committee of Company H. is issuing its invitations for the grand New Year's Eve ball to be held in the Armory, Thursday night, December 31. The plan to postpone the dance was reconsidered and the committee will now bend all its energies toward making the ball a complete success.

The committee appointed by the Merchants' Protective Association to investigate the proposed removal of the Spaulding Logging Company's mill from Dallas, held its final meeting Tuesday night and drew up a list of resolutions bearing on the subject, which will be laid before the Association at a meeting to be called by the president next week.

Notwithstanding the fact that the postoffice has just been moved into new and strange quarters and that this is the most crowded season of the year for the postal employees of Uncle Sam, Postmaster C. G. Coad and his assistants are handling the Christmas rush in fine shape and no one has yet had any complaints to make about the promptness with which the mails are distributed.

Because of low water in the river the Spaulding Logging company could not secure logs and consequently has shut down for an indefinite period.
It is hoped that by the end of the holidays the river will have reached sufficient height so that logs may be handled. The company employs about 72 men and the last of these were laid off Saturday night. The logs are at Luckiamute.—Statesman.

The installation services for the Rev.
R. E. Reeves were held at the Presbyterian church, Tuesday evening, a number of ministers from neighboring cities being present and a large crowd of Dallas people being in attendance. The Rev. Elliott, of Albany, presided over the meeting and preached the sermon. Rev. W. T.
Wardle, of Lebanon, gave the charge to the people and Rev. J. B. N. Bell, of Corvallis, gave the charge to the pastor.

Olives, Pickles Etc

WISE TALKS BY U. S. LOUGHARY'S
OFFICE BOY

I know what's the matter with me.
I thought I had indigestion or dyspepsia or something like that. By gum, I couldn't eat lately and felt weak and lifeless. Now, I know what it is. I'm in love—got it bad too. If I didn't, you wouldn't think I'd kiss Julia right in the mouth, in front of everybody, too. Father has warned me, though, to keep myself heart free for at least seven years yet. You see, I'm only 13 coming in, and he says it's foolishness for a boy like me to get that calf look on my face, and roll my eyes like I had 'em, and to CUT IT OUT. Now to business—you can't mix love and vinegar, or sentiment with pickles and chow-chow. Don't tell anyone about my being in love, for if the old man hears of it again, he'll wallop me good and plenty.
When you want good pickles or olives or any nice kind of relishes, come straight to Loughary's store. We have received 650 pounds of candies for Christmas trade. We are now using on our third sack of those fine walnuts, everybody says they are the best ever. WILHE

Keep Your Horses Warm

Freeze yourself if you enjoy it. Sit on the seat and shiver all the time you are driving, but for goodness sake when you hitch, see that your horse is blanketed. You owe that much to your faithful servant, even if you didn't—its business—it costs less to keep a horse if you keep him warm.

Many a horse has gone to the bone yard because of the need of a blanket.

There's no sense in it when I sell blankets as low as I do.

Full-lined blankets from $1.50 to $2.50.
