BUENA VISTA.

Reuben P. Hall was killed last Wednesday morning by a falling tree which had been deflected from its course by striking against a snag and bounded sidewise falling full upon the unfortunate man. Death was instantaneous.

Reuben Payne Hall was born May 18, 1846, while his parents were enroute from Illinois to Oregon, their train being, at the time of his birth, on the Cow Creek river. His age at time of his death was about 62 years and 9 months.

His parents, Reason B. and Martha Hall, settled in Oregon in 1847, on their donation land claims where Buena Vista is now located. Ruben Hall was married December 13, 1868, to Miss Francis Adaline Bevens, who survives him. To this union were born seven children, three of whom survive, Nettie M. and Rupert Hall, of Buena Vista, and Mrs. Grace E. Miller, of Corvallis.

In his father's family there were the following children: Mrs. Mary Croisan, of Salem; Mrs. Sarah Smith, of Oregon City; E. D. Hall (deceased); L. M. Hall, of Monmouth; E. C. Hall (deceased); W. R. and A. J. Hall, of Buena Vista and B. F. Hall, of Woodburn.

The deceased was converted under the ministry of Rev. Jenkins in the Methodist church of Buena Vista about 35 years ago and during the remainder of his life lived as an active and consistent Christian. The funeral services over the remains were held in the church in Buena Vista, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, interment being made in the family plot in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.
