IN THE SOCIAL REALM

Pleasant Entertainments in Many Homes Mark the Past Week in This City.

Mrs. J. H. Hollister entertained thirty invited guests at her home Friday afternoon with an enjoyable party in compliment to her friend, Mrs. E. C. Patton, of Salem, who is soon to leave for California. Mrs. Hollister was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Phelps and by Miss Lyle Phelps. The front parlor, where a guessing contest was held, was prettily decorated with Scotch broom, while a profusion of red and pink carnations and beautiful ferns surrounded those who played 500 in other rooms. The card prize was won by Miss Keating, of Salem, and Mrs. W. V. Fuller, of this city, received the prize in the guessing contest. During the afternoon, Miss Zeta Hollister, of Portland, sang several selections, receiving high praise for her sweet and well trained soprano voice. Light refreshments were served toward the close of the afternoon.

Miss Allie Fuller entertained several of her girl friends with a pleasant dinner party at her home Saturday evening, in celebration of her birthday. After an elaborate dinner was served, the remainder of the evening was spent with music and various social amusements. Miss Fuller was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The guests were: Misses Vera Cooper, Alice Grant, Bobbie McCallion, Hallie Coad, Pauline VanOrsdel, Fay Percival, Gladys Canter, Ethel Johnson, Zeta Hollister, Leone Williams and Nada Scott.

A china shower was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Jacobson last night for Miss Ida Stafrin, whose marriage to Mr. Fonso Manston is to take place next Wednesday. A large number of guests was present and the evening was most enjoyably spent. Dainty refreshments added to the pleasure of the occasion. The bride-elect was the recipient of many beautiful pieces of china.

Miss Sadie Lynn was given a surprise party at her home Saturday afternoon in the form of a linen shower, the occasion being her birthday. About 30 of her friends were present, and the afternoon was spent in a most enjoyable social manner. Delicious refreshments were served.

The field work in the assessment of Polk County is nearly finished and the work of writing up the rolls will probably be begun about the second week in June. A WORD OF WARNING

Just recently a citizen of Patterson, New Jersey, contracted leprosy by wearing clothing that was sprinkled through a Chinaman's mouth in a Chinese laundry. Dr. Spaulding in charge of the department of contagious diseases of Chicago says: "The method of doing up clothes in Chinese laundries is dangerous and ought to be prohibited by law." Phone us and our wagon will call at your door. We want your bundle, large or small. Your linen will last longer when laundered by one who knows how. Special attention given to shirts, collars and cuffs.
