DALLAS, OREGON, JUNE 8, 1909

The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

In the election of Hon. Joseph Simon to the office of Mayor, Portland is to be congratulated on having placed the management of the city's business in the hands of a thoroughly competent and conscientious business man.

The advice of the sage "Whatever you are, be a good one," applies, if slightly paraphrased, equally well to civic affairs as to individuals. Dallas has decided to have a Fourth of July celebration and the money to pay the expenses of the big entertainment has been pledged. Now it is up to the citizens of Dallas to do everything in their power to make the celebration indisputably the biggest thing of its kind that has ever been held in Dallas.

Earlier in the season before the Oregon strawberries had ripened, the imported California fruit met with a ready sale. The home grown berries have now begun to be placed in the local markets and in choosing between them, the purchaser shows little hesitancy in favoring the larger and better flavored berries of this state over the inferior imported fruit. Oregon's fruits may be a trifle more backward in getting ready to be placed on sale, but once ready, there is no discounting their merits.

Ralph Adams went to Portland yesterday for a short business visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Staats, of St. Louis, Missouri, are visiting at the home of his cousin, Tracy Staats. He graduated from the Oregon Agricultural College several years ago and afterward went to St. Louis, where he studied surgery and finally took up his practice in that city. This is his first visit to Oregon for a number of years.

Christian Revival.

From the beginning the attendance at the revival in the Christian church tent has been very large and enthusiastic. The tent will seat over 500 and each night it is filled. Whiston is preaching great sermons and getting stronger each night. His delineations of character and apt illustrations are unsurpassed. A varied program of solos, duets and choruses are rendered each night. Longman is par excellence as a soloist and chorus leader. These meetings will continue each night at 8 o'clock sharp. The evangelist requests people to come as nearly on time as possible, and especially that they will not talk on the outside of the tent during the services. The next three subjects are Whiston's special: Tuesday, "The Second Coming of Christ;" Wednesday, "A Good Man;" Thursday, "Sowing and Reaping."

Needlework Guild Will Meet.

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger announces an informal business meeting of the Dallas Needlework Guild on the lawn at the J. G. VanOrsdel residence Tuesday afternoon, June 15, at 3 o'clock. Officers were elected at the preliminary meeting a few weeks ago and the meeting next Tuesday will be in the nature of a membership campaign. Refreshments will be served and pleasant social features will add to the attractiveness of the meeting. It is the desire of the Guild that every woman in Dallas who is interested in the organization and the important charitable work which it is to accomplish should be present and take part in the meeting which is to be held Tuesday.

Council Holds Routine Session.

The session of the City Council last night, while exceptionally long, was devoted mainly to routine work such as discussion of street work, allowing claims against the city, etc. The city marshal was instructed to notify all automobile owners in the city to slow down to a speed of six miles an hour while driving within the city limits. W. L. Tooz, Jr., was appointed to the position of city attorney. Oscar Hayter, who has for many years served as the city's counsel, having declined to assume the work further.

Dies After Long Illness.

Marcus G. Bevans died Saturday, June 5, at his home in Arlie, after an illness of six months from an attack of tuberculosis. He was a son of Truman Bevans, a well-known resident of Polk county. The deceased was the owner of a large sash and door factory at Ranier and the body was sent to that city where it will be buried under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World, in which lodge Mr. Bevans had for a long time held membership. He is survived by his wife and three children.

Offers Fine Choice.

The western immigration movement is bringing thousands of prospective home buyers into Oregon and many of these are visiting Polk county with a view to acquiring land and settling in this vicinity. The list of real estate bargains published elsewhere in this issue by H. G. Campbell, one of Polk county's most active real estate dealers comprises the very best pieces of land that can be secured in this locality and is well worth the close inspection of the intending buyer.

Picnic at Falls City.

Saturday, June 19, has been set for the big Knights of Pythias picnic at Falls City and every preparation is being made to assure the success of the affair. A fine program of sports has been arranged, an important feature of which will be a baseball game between Dallas and Chemawa. Ample provisions will be made for transportation of visitors from neighboring cities and large crowds will attend.

Begin on New Block.

The street crew began work on the newly graded block on Washington street between Church and Levens this week, the first loads of coarse rock for the first layer being hauled from the crusher yesterday. Other blocks are being put in preparation for the coat of macadam as fast as possible and the work will be continued almost without intermission during the coming season. Outside of the business section the majority of the streets will be graded 40 feet between curbs.

Mistletoe Circle will hold a meeting.

Mistletoe Circle will hold a meeting tomorrow (Wednesday) night for the purpose of electing officers and transacting other business of great importance. All members are requested to attend.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned as administratrix of the estate of John C. White, deceased, has filed her final account in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Polk County, and that she has been appointed by said court to receive the balance of said estate on the 15th day of July, 1909, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the court room of the said County Court in the City of Dallas, Oregon, has been appointed by said court as the time and place for hearing of objections to the said final account and the settlement thereof.

Advice For The Tired Women

Is it a headache, a backache, a sensation of irritability or twitching and uncontrollable nervousness? Something must be wrong with the head or back, a woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the womanly organs. In nine cases out of ten the seat of the difficulty is here, and a woman should take rational treatment for its cure. The local disorder and inflammation of the delicate special organs of the sex should be treated steadily and systematically.

Dr. Pierce, during a long period of practice, found that a prescription made up of the active medicinal principles of native American roots, extracted by the use of chemically pure glycerine, cured over ninety per cent. of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in his private practice he put it up in a form that would make it easily procurable, and it can be had at any store where medicines are handled so close your eyes to what is in this (R) prescription of Dr. Pierce. He tells you all about it and puts a label with all the ingredients upon the bottle - they are Lady Slipper root, Golden Seal root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and triple-refined glycerine. These various ingredients are all extolled and recommended by various medical authorities. Thus F. Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of Lady Slipper root: "exercises special influence upon nervous conditions depending upon disorders of female organs; relieves pain."

Prof. John King in the American Dispensary, says of Black Cohosh root: "This is a very active powerful and useful remedy. By its special affinity for the female organs it is an efficient agent for suppression. In dysmenorrhea (painful periods) it is superior to any other drug, being of greatest utility in irritative and congestive conditions, characterized by dragging down pains. The same author says of Blue Cohosh that it has enjoyed a well-merited reputation for when used by delicate women it gives tone and vigor to the parts and relieves much pain." Hale says it controls chronic inflammatory states of the (female) organs and gives tone in cases of debility."

Dr. John F. Salsbery, Conn., says of Unicorn root (Helonia Dioica) one of the chief ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription: "A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator and always favors a condition which makes for normal activity of the entire system, cannot fail to be of great usefulness and of the utmost importance to the general practitioner of medicine."

In Helonia we have a medication which more fully answers the above purpose than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent. Acting from head to foot, it restores the condition of health to some women at stated periods - backache, dizziness, and pains almost unbearable. An honest and safe remedy, it relieves a woman afflicted with the most distressing complaints which weaken a woman's vitality is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription - an honest, medicinal which has the largest number of cures to its credit and a deserved popularity for two score years all over the United States.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, constiveness, or constipation of the bowels, loss of appetite, indigestion, sour stomach, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred ailments of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Persons who are subject to any of these troubles should never be without a trial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. In proof of their superior excellence it can truthfully be said that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial.

One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. As a "dinner pill" to promote digestion, take one each day. To relieve the distress arising from over-eating, eat one or two before going to bed. They are, in fact, the most reliable, antibilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

How to live in health and happiness is the special theme of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great work on medicine and hygiene, containing over 1000 pages and more than 500 illustrations, is now being published in a series of stamps to pay expense of mailing. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers.
