Hon. B. F. Jones came over Saturday evening and Monday passed up to Otter Rocks, where he is installing some new gold mining machinery at his beach placer mine. This machine it is anticipated will save a larger percent of the fine beach gold than any that has yet been tried. Mr. Jones has just had a new cottage built at Otter Rocks which he will shortly occupy with his family for the summer.—Newport News.

W. W. Cotton, general counsel for the O. R. & N. Railway system, accompanied by Mrs. Cotton and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wick, came up from Portland in his big touring car Sunday afternoon. The party spent several hours yesterday morning in visiting the many places of interest in and about the city.

Declaring himself innocent of the last, Joe Anderson, convicted of the murder of Harry Logan in Portland in 1908, was executed at the penitentiary Friday. The trap fell at 12:32 o'clock and in 14 minutes he was pronounced dead. His pulse had stopped beating within six minutes from the moment the trap fell.

F. L. Ziegler, an expert oil and gas driller from Bakersfield, California, arrived yesterday to take charge of the drilling operations at the Whiteaker well east of Dallas. Mr. Ziegler is enthusiastic over the prospects of striking oil in Polk County. He says the machinery now being taken to the Whiteaker well will drill to a depth of 5000 feet, if necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Love, of York, Nebraska, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brobst. They are making a leisurely tour of the Coast states, having left home nine months ago. They spent the winter in Pasadena, and came to Salem, Oregon, early in the Spring. The Seattle Fair will be visited on their return trip to Nebraska.

"New York After Dark" is the title of the lecture to be delivered by Dr. J. B. Olmsted at Woodman Hall tomorrow, (Wednesday,) night. The lecture is given under the auspices of the United Artisans, of which the Doctor is Supreme Medical Examiner. He is noted as one of the most entertaining speakers on the Pacific Coast, and no one should miss hearing him. Admission will be free, and all are invited.

The finance committee of the celebration and pioneer reunion will meet in the Observer office tonight to receive the various sums of money collected and to audit bills. The committee will hold their last meeting for the auditing of bills on Friday evening of this week, as they are desirous of closing up the business as soon as possible. All persons having claims against the fund are requested to govern themselves accordingly.

Carpenters and plumbers began work yesterday morning on the store room recently vacated by Horace Webster and soon to be occupied by the Uglow Clothing House. The entire store will be remodeled and a new front put in. Mr. Uglow is sparing no money in fitting up his new place of business, and says that his furniture and fixtures will surpass in beauty and cost those of any clothing store in Oregon, the big shops of Portland not excepted. He expects to move from his present location about the last week in July.

Complimentary words were heard on every side at the Dallas band during the picnic and big celebration. Manager Stockwell had strengthened the organization by adding the best musicians in the county, and five first-class band men were brought up from Portland, among them John Coomer, one of the pioneer musicians of the state. The band participated in all of the parades and programs and gave enjoyable concerts on the Courthouse lawn each evening.

YOUR SITTING ROOM LIGHT

It is bright enough and well distributed enough to allow the whole family to read or work in any part of the room in comfort? Is it a vertical burner that wastes its best brilliancy on the ceiling? The Angle Lamp throws its light down upon your book or table. It is oil lighting at its best, with the smoke, smell, and bother of ordinary lamps eliminated by new methods. Yet it is fully one-half cheaper to burn than even the ordinary lamps.

The ANGLE LAMP

resembles a handsome gas chandelier in appearance and is a perfect substitute for gas in operating convenience. It is lighted and extinguished like gas. It may be turned up once or twice a week. Floods every corner of a room, floor and ceiling, with a splendid light. Call and see it or write for catalog.
