WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION.
On September 29th, "Woman's Home Companion" assumed its final regular price of $1.50. The larger and better magazine and the increase in price have been endorsed during the past year both by our old friends and by one hundred and fifty thousand new readers. We are proud of the success of the Greater "Companion" will be better still. It will be larger and richer than ever and will contain new features never before attempted by a woman's magazine. The greater "Woman's Home Companion" at the Dollar-and-a-Half price will be the most interesting, the most useful and the most beautiful woman's magazine published. With nearly a score of different practical departments for women, every one a complete little magazine in itself, "Woman's Home Companion" can promise for 1910 the most useful woman's magazine in the world.

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS
is the magazine which is preeminently up-to-the-minute as regards the topics of the day. Non-partisan in its attitude, impartial in its scope, and not only the busy man's short-cut to keeping abreast of the times, but the one "necessary" magazine for people of culture and discernment. Each month Dr. Albert Shaw interprets current events with a clarity and accuracy that are born only of a keen insight and a rare knowledge of men and affairs. In his profoundly illustrated editorial, "The Progress of the World," the Review's character sketches of notable people are intensely interesting; of world-wide fame are its concise and comprehensive reviews of the best which has appeared in other periodicals; and its clever and graphic cartoon reproductions are culled from the newspapers of the world.

McCLURE'S MAGAZINE
Optimistic, enthusiastic, and fearless, "McClure's" is truly the real exponent of the "can-do" life in the magazine in point of article making—its energy, merit, "McClure's" action is the best—being so positive that that of our own period magazine on it. From cover to cover you find distinctive snap and sparkle. "McClure's" that will compel attention and a regard for the truth. "McClure's" theme is to point the accusing finger at the spot in the social, political world. It is done in a correct, plain, but with a smack-for-the-fact, but with a correct. For "McClure's" and very American. That

ELECTRICITY FOR LIGHTING

Is only expensive to people who are wasteful and careless. To you who are naturally careful, it does not come high.

It is economical because it can be quickly turned off when not needed. With gas or kerosene there is the temptation to let light burn when not needed to save bother of lighting and adjusting. In some homes the electric light bills amount to only one or two dollars per month. You can probably get some kind of artificial light for less money than electric light, but does it save you anything when it limits opportunities for work and recreation—ruins your sight—smokes your walls—makes decorations and increases household work. You could probably save a dollar tomorrow by going without your meals but it wouldn't be economy. It is not so much what you save, but how you save that counts.
