DALLAS, OREGON, JUNE 21, 1918

The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

Yamhill County Republicans recognize the assembly plan as the best plan for conducting the affairs of the party and will meet next Tuesday to fix a date for holding a county meeting.

Frank Davey, Receiver of the Burns Land Office, and editor of the Harney Valley News, says in the latest number of his paper:

If our old friend Cary Hayter, of the Polk County Observer, would write more of his editorials for the benefit of his readers and less for the purpose of having them copied by the Oregonian, his good newspaper would be more popular and useful.

This is no orthery it does not deserve an answer. It is reprinted here merely to show what measly, low-lifed stuff some men can write.

Down in Coos county the republicans held an assembly and suggested a ticket for consideration of the voters at the September primary. The Myrtle Point Enterprise, discussing the results, says: "The republicans who favor the assembly form of suggested candidates have named a ticket, which many will agree, is a good ticket, and it is subject to the approval of the members of the party at the September primary. They have the final say whether they want it to stand as their ticket. There is no machine or ring rule possible with it. Every individual voter has the right to vote for or against it, with the assurance that as far as the assembly is concerned, the ticket nominated will have the united support of the republicans."

Fellow blew into the office the other day. Breezy sort of a cuss. Said he was from Portland. Said he had been a life-long Republican. Said George Chamberlain was the best man Oregon had had in Washington in twenty years. Couldn't think of anything in particular George had done, but said he was a mighty good man there anyway. Offered to bet us John M. Gearin, (he called him Johnnie,) would be the next United States Senator. Said he was opposed to the Republicans holding an assembly. Told us a lot of things we can't recall just now. He was an interesting chap. Interesting for the reason that he is one of those politicians who shout their Republicanism from the housetops—and vote the Democratic ticket. Oregon has many of them.

HERE'S STRAIGHT TALK.

(Tillamook Headlight.)

We have had several editorials and articles sent us in opposition to the Republican party holding an assembly. We wish to remind the sender that the Portland Journal is a Democratic newspaper and is fighting the Republican party in every possible manner, for so long as it can keep Oregon Republicans from getting together and keep them fighting on side issues, there is a good chance of electing more Democrats to office. We wish to remind our Republican friends of Tillamook County that Statement No. 1, our fool initiative and referendum laws and U'Renism gone crazy, are not fundamental principles of the Republican party and are only side issues worked up by scheming politicians to defeat the party. But if Republicans want to take their political gospel from democratic newspapers, that is their privilege. We wish to remind our friend that there are two sides to this question, but the soap shot man is not going to be misled by Democrats or disgruntled politicians, who are talking so much about "the people," "ring rule" and what an awful thing it will be for the Republican party to hold an assembly.

WEDDING WAS QUIET

Residents of Buell Married at Friend's Home in Dallas.

The wedding of Mrs. Eva Anderson and Herman Leonard, both of Buell, was solemnized yesterday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of J. M. Todhunter, in Dallas, Justice Hardy Holman officiating. The event was unheralded and the witnesses included only those necessary to the occasion.

The contracting parties are well-known residents of Buell, the bride being a daughter of James A. Roberts, of that place. The groom is in the employ of Uncle Samuel, being in charge of the mail route between Dallas and Buell. The newlyweds will make their home at Buell.

Praise Given Miss Magers.

Miss Minetta Magers, for many years supervisor of music in the Salem public schools has voluntarily resigned her position. In accepting the resignation, the school board presented her with the following letter of commendation: "In regretfully accepting your resignation as supervisor of music, we desire to place on record our deep appreciation of your valuable labors, and to testify to your worth and ability as an instructor in music. Your work has been uniformly successful and satisfactory, and we but voice the sentiments of the school patrons when we voice the hope that the severance of our ties will be only temporary and after a well-merited vacation you will return with renewed vigor to the work and profession in which you have shown such great proficiency."

WILL SELL OLD MILL

Falls City Lumber Company Will Dispose of Plant No. 2.

Two years ago the Falls City Lumber Company doubled the capacity of its saw mill known as Number 1 and closed down Mill Number 2 that they might concentrate their forces in the one plant and decrease the expense of logging and sawing their timber. Since that time Mill Number 2 has lain idle.

Sunday, J. W. Moore, of Adna, Washington, a partner in the Adna Mill Company, came to the city and made a trip to the abandoned mill with a view to purchasing the machinery to replace the equipment of his mill recently destroyed by fire. Mr. Moore said, before leaving the city, that he expects his company to purchase the mill and move it to Washington.

It was pleasing to the writer to hear the many very complimentary remarks made by Mr. Moore concerning the local lumber plant and its proprietors. —Falls City News.
