THE TYPHOID FLY.

Professor Washburn, chief of entomo-agriculture at St. Anthony Park, Minn., says the house fly, better known as the typhoid fly, passing the winter as a perfect insect, or as a pupa, now appearing in alarming numbers, is laying her eggs, which will quickly hatch into maggots.

These reach mature growth in from six to seven days, and after resting about the same time become a perfect fly. It breeds in manure piles, in decaying vegetables, in sewerage, in waste from the human intestines and in other filth.

The typhoid fly does not bite, but sucks or laps up its food in a liquid state and, crawling over bread, pastry, candy, vegetables and other articles of human food, infects it with bacteria, which taken into the human system causes intestinal disorders typhoid fever, tuberculosis, etc. This filthy insect is found to be a serious menace to human health by the discovery of disease germs on its feet and body.

One hundred thousand bacteria have been found under the microscope on the body of a single fly, known to have been in contact with matter voided from the human intestines.

These flies crawling over human food infect it with deadly germs and inoculate wounds and abrasions on the skin with loathsome diseases. It my be the case of epidemic suddenly appearing in a community for which no reason can be assigned.

The remedies are screened windows and doors, fly paper, sticky or poisoned, doing away with manure piles, covering of slops, filth, swill barrels and thoroughly sterilizing intestinal discharges from patients suffering from typhoid or other fevers, or infectious diseases, before being emptied into sewers or cesspools or otherwise deposited where flies can have access to them.

TAXING MORTGAGES

State Tax Commissioner Galloway Comments on Subject.

State Tax Commissioner Charles R. Galloway explained the taxing of mortgages in an interview recently. He said in part:

"The editorial in The Telegram Tuesday evening under the title 'Taxing Mortgages,' is a good contribution to the subject. We hope it is true as stated that the recent letter of the Tax Commission to the county assessors has 'opened up the question of mortgage taxation in all its complicated economic aspects.' A fair and open discussion of this problem can do no harm and may be productive of valuable results.

"The sudden interest being manifested in the subject just now seems rather unusual in view of the fact that nothing new has really happened. The county assessors are acting under a law enacted in 1907; it is plain and positive and admits of no more than one interpretation. In the classification of personal property subject to taxation (section 3, chapter 268, laws of 1907) there is included 'all debts due or to become due from solvent debtors, whether on account, contract, note, mortgage or otherwise, either within or without this state; all public stocks; all bonds, warrants and moneys due or to become due from this state, or any county or municipal subdivision thereof.

"This Oregon law is not a mortgage tax law. It is not the mortgage that is assessable but the note. Likewise all other notes and accounts, due or to become due from solvent debtors, secured or unsecured, are assessable.

"The Tax Commission has not taken up the defense of intangible personal assessments as an economic question, but we have urged county assessors to exert their best efforts to comply with the law in this respect as in all others. We are trying to follow the law as we find it, not as we may think it ought to be. That's another question."

Cigar Stub Fires Barns.

Two barns in the vicinity of Airlie, belonging to Alex Lewis and Hugh Williams, were burned this week. The fire is supposed to have originated from a carelessly thrown cigar stub. Two hacks, some harness and a large quantity of feed were lost.

MRS. L. A. WALTER DIES

Passes Away at Home of Her Daughter In West Salem.

Mrs. L. A. Walter passed away, from a complication of diseases, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Browning in West Salem, Oregon, July 15, 1910. She was an invalid for the past four years, her last illness, however, was of short duration, being less than three weeks.

Louisana Plank was born in Adams county, Pennsylvania, where the earlier years of her life were spent. At the age of 13 she removed with her parents to Carrol county, Indiana, later going to Cass county, where in 1843 she was united in marriage to S. B. Walter, who passed away in 1882. To them were born five children, all of whom survive her, and one step-son. They are J. F. Walter, Salem; E. J. Walter, Eyota, Minnesota; Mrs. C. E. Browning, Mrs. T. V. Walter, Mrs. D. K. Brannan, Salem; W. J. Walter, Bessemer, Michigan. She is also survived by twenty-four grandchildren and twenty-two great grandchildren. Her brothers and sisters, of whom there were seven, have all preceeded her to the grave.

In 1860 they removed to Olmsted county, Minnesota, where she resided until 1905, again journeying westward, coming to Salem with Mrs. C. E. Browning.

While a young girl she became a member of the Lutheran church and was always a faithful worker in the church wherever she lived. Later in life she joined the First M. E. church in Eyota, Minnesota. She was loved and respected by all who knew her, her unselfish life and loving characteristics winning for her staunch friends wherever she went. Her life was one of devotion to her church, her home and all who needed her help and sympathy.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. H. Selleck of the First M. E. church of Salem. The remains were shipped to Eyota, Minnesota, where they will be met by her two sons, E. J. Walter and W. J. Walter, and laid to rest eside her husband in Oak Grove cemetery.—Salem Statesman.

FIRE UNDER CONTROL

Flames in Forest Near Black Rock no Longer Dangerous.

A serious fire has been raging in the timber near the logging camps of Black Rock during the past few days, and on Wednesday the smoke from the fire became so heavy that it was very noticeable in Dallas and in other towns farther out from the mountains and nearer the Willamette river.

News was received from Black Rock Wednesday evening, however, that the fire fighters after a hard struggle have gained control of the flames and that all danger of their spreading is practically past.

The fire has consumed considerable timber, and done much damage in general, and in the last few days it was feared that it would reach some of the logging camps of the Spaulding Lumber company, and also the town of Black Rock. The fire fighters now, however, have it under better control than ever before, and unless a high wind should rise it is not believed any further damage will be done.

Ladies' Aid Gives Social.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church held a social in the parlors of the church Wednesday afternoon. Coad and Miss Georgia Martin, and readings were given by Mrs. H. Woods, Miss Pauline VanOrdel and Miss Vera Cosper. Dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon.
