THE BEE HIVE STORE

I. O. O. F. Bldg A Reliable Place to Trade Dallas, Oregon

Mrs. Ira Mohrling and daughters, of Falls City, were visitors in Dallas last week.

Thomas Kinchin and family, for many years residents of the Pedee neighborhood, where they had charge of a large dairy farm, left this afternoon for Arleta, Oregon, where Mr. Kinchin has opened a lumber yard. Their many friends regret their departure from Polk County.

Mrs. D. D. Young left Saturday afternoon for Des Moines, Iowa, where she will visit her parents for two months. Dr. Young accompanied her as far as Portland, and while in that city made reservation on the steamer Beaver, which sails August 1 for San Francisco, where he will attend the National Osteopathic Convention. He will return to Dallas about August 11.

Republican Press Association.

Twenty-five Republican editors of the state met in the parlor of the Commercial Club in Portland last Wednesday afternoon and organized a Republican Press Association. Officers were elected as follows: J. S. Dellinger, Morning Astorian, president; J. C. Hayter, Dallas Observer, vice president; W. G. Gilstrap, Eugene Morning Register, secretary-treasurer. The members of the association will work for the upbuilding of the Republican party and for mutual benefit in their profession. The next meeting will be held the first Monday in October.

Christian Church Services.

The Reverend Leon Myers, a graduate of the Eugene Bible University, has come to take up the work as minister of the Christian Church of this city. He comes highly recommended as a minister of the gospel. Services will be held as usual. Bible School each Lord's Day at 10 a. m. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Next Sunday the morning sermon will be "Forgiveness." Evening, "Freedom."

Pastor Is Appreciated.

In appreciation of Pastor W. A. Elkins, the Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church on Sunday presented him with a handsomely engraved gold watch. The presentation was made by the president, Mr. Clarence Boyd, and was responded to by Mr. Elkins after he had sufficiently recovered from his surprise. That the minister is proud of the gift goes without saying—Cottage Grove Sentinel.

Free Lecture.

Alexander H. McMillan, of New York, will lecture in the Dallas City Hall on the afternoon of Sunday, July 31, at 2 o'clock on the subject, "Has Christ's Mission Been a Failure?" The lecture will be held under the auspices of the International Bible Students' Association. All will be welcome. Seats free; no collection.
