

HOFER AND TOOZE TO DEBATE

Will Express Views of Assembly Plan in Dallas Tomorrow Afternoon.

Handshakes are out announcing a debate between Colonel E. Hofer, of Dallas, and Hon. Walter L. Tooze, of Dallas, to be held in the City Park at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The subject to be debated is "The Assembly and the Anti-Assembly Under the Oregon Law."

Colonel Hofer will denounce the assembly as everything that is unrighteous, and as he is a fluent speaker, he will probably be able to make a strong case against the plan as could be made by any anti-assembly man in the state. Mr. Tooze is also fluent as a speaker, and it is expected that he will spring some argument that will at least make the Colonel look at his hole card.

Speeches will be wasted in the argument, and it is not probable that a vote will be changed.

FUNERAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Late Harvey W. Scott Will Be Buried With Masonic Honors.

Telegraphic advices have been received announcing that the remains of the late Harvey W. Scott will reach Portland over the North Bank line Saturday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Scott and her son, Leslie M. Scott, says yesterday's Oregonian.

President Elliott, of the Northern Pacific Railway, tendered the use of his private car for the trip. From Spokane to Portland they will come over the North Bank road.

Upon arriving in Portland the body will be conveyed to the Scottish Rite Cathedral, Morrison and Lowndside streets, where it will lie in state between 2 and 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The public will be given an opportunity to attend the Kadosh funeral service of the Masons on Saturday night. Although this is also known as the midnight service, it will be held at 9 o'clock, and all who wish to attend must be seated before 8:30, as the doors will be closed promptly at that time. The service will last 30 minutes and will be the most impressive known to the order.

Sunday morning the body will be removed to the home of the family, at Twelfth and Morrison streets. Private funeral services at the house will be conducted at 2 p.m. by Dr. T. L. Elliot, who has been at Bellingham, but who will return in time for the services. Two songs will be rendered by a quartet in charge of Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer.

Portland Lodge No. 55, A. F. and A. M. will gather at the Masonic Temple at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, in preparation to conduct the body of their brother to the grave. Other organizations, many of which were honored by Mr. Scott's membership, have asked that they be assigned places in the funeral cortege, and their requests have been granted by the officers of the lodge.

All organizations participating in the funeral will take their positions in the street in front of the Scott residence between 2 and 3:30, when the body will be conveyed to Riverview Cemetery. There the ritual of the blue lodge will be observed.

Among the passengers to Newport, Wednesday, were Hon. U. S. Loughery and family, Mrs. J. H. Hollister and son, Claude, Mrs. D. F. Harris, Mrs. A. P. Starr and Mrs. Ollie Kimball.

Tom C. Stockwell came out from Newport on a business visit yesterday and will return to the beach this morning. He says the crowd of Summer visitors at Newport is larger than ever before.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holman, former residents of Black Rock, have been enjoying an outing in Tillamook County. They found life so enjoyable in that country that they are unwilling to leave it and will locate in Hemlock.

The Reverend and Mrs. T. H. Starbuck, Miss Edith Starbuck, Dr. A. B. Starbuck, Mr. and Mrs. George Gerlinger and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, Jr., were the members of an automobile party that returned Wednesday from a short trip to Netarts and Tillamook.

James Muir, of Hamilton, Canada, is visiting at the home of his brother, A. E. Muir, in this city. The visit of his brother was a complete surprise to our townsmen, and as the two men had not seen each other since they were boys together at the old home in Canada 41 years ago, the pleasure of the meeting may well be imagined.

Mrs. Oscar Hayter arrived home last night from a two months' visit at her old home in Minnesota. She greatly enjoyed the trip, despite the hot weather prevailing in the North-western states in July. She was accompanied on the homeward trip from Seattle by her husband, who met her in that city Monday night.
