is now the justly deserving object of a national campaign in the interest of the public health. Flies carry filth and disease germs wherever they go. We are sincerely glad that we are able to co-operate effectively in the fight against the housefly. Flies and Electric Fans do not agree. Flies cannot alight in a breeze and it is a simple thing to keep your kitchen, your living room and the sleeping room of your child free from the contamination of these insects. One electric fan in a small household can usually be made to serve all three purposes, besides freshening and cooling the air. The new 8-inch household fan is both practical and inexpensive. ### CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION

Judge Galloway Holds Adjourned Term of Department No. 2.

Judge William Galloway held an adjourned term of Circuit Court, Department No. 2, in Dallas yesterday. Because of the illness of Miss Claire Padrick, the court stenographer, only a few cases in which default was made by the defendants occupied the attention of the court during the day. A number of divorces were granted and an order was made in a suit for partition.

A session of court was held in the evening, a stenographer having been secured from Salem in the afternoon, and the suit of Mrs. V. A. Kersey against John Brown was tried. This is a suit between heirs of the late W. C. Brown. After hearing the testimony, the cause was taken under advisement by the court. Orders were made yesterday as follows:

Franklin E. Knower vs. Mary E. Knower, partition; McNary & McNary for plaintiff; Sibley & Eakin for defendant. Report of referee confirmed. Alva C. Miller vs. Cora Miller, divorce; W. L. Toose, Jr., for plaintiff; Default and decree.

D. B. Taylor vs. All Whom It May Concern, detainer, registration of title; L. D. Brown for plaintiff. Decree of registration granted.

Leah Phillips vs. M. C. Phillips, divorce. Default and decree.

Rithel Woods vs. M. V. Woods, divorce; Oscar Hayter for plaintiff. Default and decree.

Emma Nixon vs. John J. Nixon, divorce; L. D. Brown for plaintiff. Default and decree.

Ida M. Cornell vs. D. E. Cornell, divorce; L. D. Brown for plaintiff; N. M. Newport for defendant. Suit money to be paid into court on or before October 13.

ARE HOPS TO BE CORNERED

Growers and Dealers in Oregon Are Now Asking That Question.

Is Louis Lachmund trying to corner the 1910 crop of Oregon hops? The local trade is asking that question, for it has just developed that the big New York operator has recently taken about 1500 bales of hops in this state. The goods taken were choice and are believed to be for export.

Not only has Mr. Lachmund been credited by local dealers with the purchase of 1500 bales of hops during the week, but his representatives are said to be offering money for the remaining lots in the state.

Together with Mr. Lachmund's purchases the trading in hops in Oregon this week is said to have aggregated 4000 bales. Most of the purchases were made under cover and seldom has the price been made public.

Nearly all the big operators are said to have been in the hop market during the week. William Brown & Co. of Salem, have taken the Fennell lot of 250 bales at Independence at 13c a pound, besides several other lots that cannot be confirmed. George Lacey took 200 bales at Woodburn, but the price could not be confirmed. Cattle & Linn were purchasers of around 200 bales in the vicinity of Salem at 13c a pound. McNett Brothers were heavy purchasers during the early part of the week in Marion and Washington counties and Isaac Pincus & Sons of Tacoma, and Klaser, Wolf & Neidermeyer of this city purchased a number of lots during the six days.

So far as known none of the dealers were above 13 1/2 c a pound the past week.—Portland Journal.

HOW ORDER AFFECTS DALLAS

Reduced Freight Rates Fixed by Oregon Railroad Commission.

The recent order of the Oregon Railroad Commission reducing the class freight rates on the Southern Pacific will affect the charges between Portland and Dallas as follows:

Class 1 2 3 4 5
Old rate...24...20...22...21...22
New rate...27...24...19...17...15
Class A B C D E
Old rate...22...18...14...11...9
New rate...15...11...11...9...7

If the order of the commission is not adopted by the Southern Pacific Company these new rates will be in effect at an early date.

Cuts Out All But Newspapers.

One of the most important meetings ever held by the Hood River Business Men's Association was held Friday night at the Commercial club rooms. One item considered on calendar of business advertising on calendars, church and show programs, telephonic directories, pamphlets and kindred matter, and it was decided by a unanimous vote to cut it all out. The merchants who have ordered their 1911 calendars will be permitted to use them, but no one will order calendars for the future. It was estimated that this sort of advertising was costing the business men approximately $10,000 per year. The merchants of Hood River use more advertising space in the home newspapers than do the business men of any other city in Oregon outside of Portland.

CHOOSE NEW CAPTAIN

W. L. TOOZE, JR., SUCCEEDS DR. L. A. BOLLMAN, RESIGNED.

Company H, Oregon National Guard Holds Important Business Meeting and Outlines Work.

DALLAS, OR., Oct. 1.—(To the Editor)—Quarterly inspection of Co. H, 4th Infantry, Oregon National Guard, was held in the Armory in this city last Thursday evening. Captain L. A. Bollman, assisted by Lieutenants Staffin and Toose, conducted the inspection. There was a good attendance, and the soldiers boys showed up in full uniform. This was the first meeting of the company since the recent encampment at Cosgrove, Washington. After the inspection, a short and snappy drill was held, and the boys conducted themselves like veterans.

Because of his large increase in business in the professional line, Captain Bollman has resigned as Captain of the company, feeling that he could not do complete justice to both the company and his practice, and, of course, his practice was the first thing to be considered. The members of the company sincerely regretted this resignation, but fully appreciated the motive thereof. Working under obstacles of the worst kind, and without the co-operation of the citizens of Dallas, Captain Bollman has, during the past two years, built up a Military Organization here that is a credit to the town. He has, by diligent effort and attention to his command, placed this company in a position where now all that is needed to make a complete success of itself. Should this Company ever become one of the best in the State, the whole credit will be laid at the door of this pioneer work on the part of Captain Bollman. During the two years he has commanded this Company, Captain Bollman has at all times had the welfare of the members of the company at heart, has been a good fellow with his men, and consequently, the whole company as a man respected him. However, Captain Bollman will not leave the Guard, but will probably soon be appointed on the Surgical Staff of the Army.

OUR MARKET LETTER

Receipts and Sales at Portland Union Stock Yards.

PORTLAND, OR., Oct. 1.—Receipts at the Portland Union Stock yards for the week ending today have been as follows: Cattle, 2939; hogs, 2961; sheep, 5260; horses and mules, 173; goats, 292.

Reasonable upheavals have occurred during the past week in the cattle and swine trade. The cattle supply continued enormous, while the market on good steers remains firm at $5.50, the bulk of the run comprised only fair to medium beefs. Butcher cattle sold well from the start, cows and weaners were in good demand and the market on cow stuff was very steady. Good bulls made a new top of $4.00, and although calves realized $8.00 in one instance, the market dropped back to $7.00, a firm basis.

The hog market was very erratic and unsatisfactory, with a general upward trend. Early transactions on Monday were made at $10.75, but the market showed signs of breaking later and by Wednesday had dropped to $10.50. Sales Friday and Saturday closed 25 to 50c lower than the week ago. Receipts have been liberal both from Nebraska and Northwestern points.

The sheep movement this week has been enormous, as is usual at this time of the year, but the total receipts for the month closed just fair, out of a total of 100,000 head. Choice yearlings realized $4.25 and the other grades brought fair prices, considering the supply. The demand for lambs was not strong and the market was shaded 10 to 15c on the best offerings.

Representative sales have been as follows: Steers, $5 to $5.25; calves, $4.75; hogs, $10.50 to $11.00; weaners, $4.50; lambs, $5 to $5.05.

BLOW ON HEAD KILLS LOGGER

Ben Roff Meets Instant Death at Simpson Brothers' Camp.

AHLBIE, OR., Oct. 1.—Ben Roff, a laborer at the Simpson logging camp on the Luckiamute River, was struck on the head by a heavy chain and instantly killed late Friday afternoon.

The accident happened at 6 o'clock, just as the men were ceasing work for the day. Mr. Roff was assisting in hauling a load of logs when the chain holding the load gave way. One end of the chain struck him on the back of the head with terrific force and killed him instantly.

Mr. Roff was 25 years old and was married. His wife was at the logging camp at the time of the accident. Their home was in the Alesia valley, from which place they had moved to the camp to work. Mrs. Roff is a daughter of John Miller, of Airlee.

BALKS AT JONATHAN

STATEMENT NO. 1 EDITOR NOT FRIENDLY TO BOURNE.

Says Oregon's Senior Senator Wants Anything Else Than United Republican Party.

(E. H. FLAGG in Oregonian.) I am a believer in the direct primary and Statement No. 1. I think those who read my little country paper have no doubt as to this. But I have never been a personal follower of, or voted for, either George Chamberlain or Jonathan Bourne. I have read carefully Mr. Bourne's ukase in Friday evening's Journal, and to one who has been to a certain extent behind the scenes it is merely a renewal of the effort to perpetuate strife in Republican ranks in order to make more effective the combination between our United States Senators.

Mr. Bourne's advice to Republicans to vote against the nominees of the direct primary who favored the assembly plan is, of course, aimed particularly against Jay Bowerman, and yet it is a fact that the personal followers of Jonathan Bourne, including Postmaster Merrick, favored the nomination of Mr. Bowerman (believing it would result in the election of Chamberlain's personal friend Oswald West), and by their course in encouraging the candidacy of E. Hofer, defeated Dimick and nominated Bowerman.

Upon the invitation of Mr. Hofer I attended, during the primary campaign, a meeting held in Mr. Merrick's private office in the postoffice building, at which were present Mr. U'Ren, Mr. Hofer, Mr. Orton, Mr. Merrick, Mr. Abbott, the business partner of Mr. Dunaway, and one or two others. I objected to Mr. Hofer, as did Mr. Abbott, and urged that the opponents of the assembly concentrate their votes upon Mr. Dimick, which, as the result shows, would have secured his nomination. But Mr. Merrick would not consent, and I have it from those who were present at this conference that the game was to nominate and defeat Bowerman, so that the political game of battlers and shuttlers might be continued.

Mr. Bourne does not wish the questions at issue settled. He recognizes fully that a united Republican party will never re-nominate him, and that his only chance for success lies in a combination of Chamberlain and Bourne beneficiaries, aided by a large number of conscientious Republicans who stand for Statement No. 1 and the direct primary law, any and all means to that end. He is the flotsam of a great political revolution and as long as he can ride its waves he has no desire for calm.

Had Mr. Bowerman appeared directly to the people at the primaries there is no doubt he would have received more votes by very many than he did. There was no objection to him personally. He is a young man who has earned by hard work and good service all the honors that have been bestowed upon him, and he is the nominee of the Republican primary, as fully entitled to receive the loyal support of Bourne as is any other nominee.

Mr. Crawford or any other anti-assembly nominee. It is time to get together and disregard the advice of those who are attempting to prostitute a great principle for their own personal political advantage. While we are smashing machines, let's take a crack at the Bourne-Chamberlain personal machine.

LYLE SHREVE SHOT IN ARM

Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shreve Victim of Serious Accident.

Lyle, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shreve, was painfully injured Monday afternoon by being accidentally shot in the right forearm by a boy companion, Leo Willing.

The boys had a 22 calibre rifle with which they were shooting at a mark back of the electric light station, when the gun was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking the Shreve boy just above the wrist and ranging upward toward the elbow.

The lad was taken to Dr. Brewer's office where the injury was dressed, but the bullet could not be located and it is thought it has lodged between the bones. It will not be disturbed unless signs of infection should develop. The lad is now doing nicely and the injury promises to heal rapidly.—Stuyton Mail.

DO RIGHT THING AT LAST

California Authorities Relent and Commit Williams to Asylum.

W. H. Williams, who for several months has been sending threatening letters to Governor Benson and Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, has been committed to the insane asylum at Stockton, California. Williams, it is said, has been to Washington to lay his fancied grievances before President Taft, and was on his way back to Oregon with the purpose, it was alleged at his hearing, of killing Governor Benson when arrested and brought here.

When Williams learned the result of the hearing today, he shouted: "May the curses of God be on Oregon and its people."

The fact that the California authorities at first refused to commit Williams to an asylum in that state and that it was necessary to send Dr. Tammle south from Salem for the purpose of bringing him back here, caused considerable excitement in Salem, and was the cause of Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the asylum, declaring that California lunatics could be turned loose from the institution here and herded over the state line.

Dr. Steiner was incensed at the attitude of California authorities in refusing to commit Williams, stating that the rule of the state should be that California patients in the Oregon asylum would be turned loose in California at the earliest possible moment, and that California must take a different attitude in the future before it can expect to receive favor from alienists in this state.—Salem Statesman.

Why Portland Grows Fatter.

(From The Weston Leader.) Portland grows constantly in population, while a good share of the rest of the state is a stagnant. One reason is that nearly every Oregonian who has "made his pile" feels impelled to take his family to Portland to live. Hundreds of homes have been bought and built in the metropolis by just such men, leaving eastern Oregon, for instance, with a lot of state residents here and spend it there. It's all right; it's their blessed privilege to do what they will with their own. Yet they should reflect that here they were men of some consequence, while among the herds of the metropolis each becomes an inconsequential unit, bowed to only when he pays his bills.

HOW CAME DEMOCRATS TO BE ALL OF ONE MIND?

Observer Would Suggest That Perhaps Mental Telepathy Took Place of Assembly.

(To the Editor.)—I have been thinking about how to vote, and I am completely flabbergasted. I will give you a view of my mental processes and perhaps you can help me out. I started out opposed to the assembly—opposed to everything that looked like a gathering of men to talk over candidates; so, of course, I was against the Republican assembly ticket. I was obliged in fairness, however, to concede that, after all, the work of the assembly was submitted to the Republicans at the primary for approval or rejection. Some candidates were approved; some rejected, and the ticket nominated looked to me quite a little like a completely flabbergasted. I will give you a view of my mental processes and perhaps you can help me out.

PEARS BRING GOOD PRICE

Comice and d'Anjou Varieties Sell for $2 a Box in Portland.

Fruit dealers reported a fair movement in all lines at the opening today, and with few exceptions prices held at last week's closing level. Among the features of special interest were the arrival over Sunday of limited consignments of Comice and d'Anjou pears, from Hood River and other points, which were put on the market at $2 a box.

These are two of the varieties that have made Oregon famous for the production of pears. Fancy offerings of both have frequently in recent years sold at $4 to $6 a box in the New York market, in carload lots. Their superiority is conceded in all quarters. The shipments received here are exceptional in quality. For the most part they were quantities left over at shipping points after carload lots had been made up for consignment to the distant markets.

Pears grading as common to fair on the street today were quoted at $1 to $1.75 a box, and the supply was scanty. Of Bartlett's there is nothing left beyond storage stock, and this is rapidly working off.—Telegram.
