WHY NOT TELL THE TRUTH?

One of the claims of certain advocates of prohibition is that withstanding the loss of $2400 a year saloon license in Dallas, the city has saved more than this amount on the expenses of its police court since the saloons were voted out. In other words, that the expense of punishing lawbreakers while the saloons were running cost the city more than the $2400 it received from saloon licenses.

The Reverend Leon Myers, pastor of the Dallas Christian Church, arrived home with his bride from Portland last Thursday evening. On Friday night, a reception was given to the newly-married couple at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Ellis.

Little business of importance was transacted by the city council at its meeting last night. Several new sidewalks were ordered built, and an ordinance regulating the storing of explosives within the city limits was passed. This law forbids the storing of dynamite or nitro-glycerin and limits the amount of black powder to be handled to 100 pounds. An ordinance providing for a dog license was read first time.

Will Move to Portland.
H. R. Patterson, Jr., has secured employment in the office of VanOrsdel & Huell, surveyors and civil engineers, in Portland, and will leave tomorrow morning for that city. Mrs. Patterson will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Eugene Hayer, for two weeks before going to her new home.

Skating Masquerade.
A masquerade on roller skates will be given in the Colosseum rink in this city on the evening of October 25.
Handsome prizes will awarded for the best costumes. Watch for further announcements.

Drug Store. If you have headaches or

AN EXCELLENT EXHIBIT

FALLS CITY HOLDS GREAT AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

Display of Fruit and Vegetables Wins Admiration of Hundreds of Visitors.

The people of Falls City had good cause to be proud of their second Agricultural Fair, held on Thursday and Friday of last week. The exhibit was successful beyond the fondest anticipations of its promoters. The display of fruit, vegetables and other farm products was neither too large nor too small, but was just extensive enough to show that the Luckiamute Valley can produce anything in the line of the seed and nursery catalogue, and that for excellence of quality the farm products grown in the vicinity of Falls City are unsurpassed by any state in the Union.

The display comfortably filled the auditorium in the large Wagner Hotel and consisted of specimens of fruit, vegetables, grains, grasses, cookery and fancy work. The arrangement of the exhibit had been well planned, and the exhibit itself gave evidence of careful and intelligent preparation.
And what splendid specimens of fruit and vegetables! None but in the Williamette Valley could their equal be found. Squashes as large as an old-fashioned churn; apples twelve and fourteen inches in circumference; cucubers 18 inches long; clusters of grapes bursting with their juicy sweetness; box after box of second-growth strawberries, as highly colored and as delicious as those kissed by the morning rays of the June sun. Truly, the Williamette Valley, Oregon, is a goodly land!

The display of the Ellis Realty Company attracted much attention as it demonstrated what can be accomplished in the Williamette Valley by artificial irrigation. Melons, corn, cucubers, beans, peas—all as perfectly formed and of as good quality as any produced in the summer months—were on display, notwithstanding the fact that Christmas is only two months away. This display was raised by William Ellis on a small tract of irrigated river bottom land on his farm one mile east of Falls City. This display proved the correctness of the claim that with artificial irrigation, the productivity of Williamette Valley land would be increased four-fold.

The Observer only regrets that time and space forbid proper mention of each individual display at the Falls City fair. It must be sufficient to say that the fair was one of the best ever held in Western Oregon, and that, encouraged by the success of their second annual exhibit, the people of the Luckiamute Valley are already looking forward and planning for a bigger and better display next year.

FALLS CITY HAS BIG RALLY

Republican Orators Address Crowds on Political Issues of the Day.

FALLS CITY, Ore., Oct. 17.—The Republican rally held here Saturday night was a decided success. Speakers addressed the crowd for two hours.
Among the orators were Colonel E.
Hofer, Mayor George F. Rodgers and Senator T. B. Kay, of Salem; C. N.
McArthur, of Portland; L. C. Powell, of Monmouth; R. E. Smith, of Dallas, and C. L. Hawley, of McCoy. Walter L.
Tooze was chairman of the meeting. It was the greatest political rally ever held in this county and was the concluding feature of the agricultural fair. Letters were received from Dan J.
Matarney, Willis E. Dunway and A.
M. Crawford, expressing regret at their inability to attend.

FOR SWEET CHARITY'S SAKE

Needlework Guild Will Make Annual Collection of Garments.

The annual tea and exhibition of garments of the local branch of the Needlework Guild of America will be held Friday of this week from 2 to 7 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Louis Ger-linger, Jr., 1013 Main Street.

The twenty directors are busy now getting in the contributions from their members and they report a most liberal response both in clothing and in cash. Nearly every director has more than the required ten members in her group, so the number of garments will be well over the four hundred mark.
A number of out-of-town guests have been asked to the tea in the hope that branches may be started in near-by towns.

Anyone having second-hand clothing to give away will do the Guild a favor by notifying any of the officers, or leaving such garments at Mrs.
Kaerth's house opposite Woodman Hall. After the tea, the new garments will also be stored at Mrs. Kaerth's and this will be the central distributing point during the winter.

Last year, in addition to the 300 new garments given out, there were several hundred old garments sent out in the different bundles which meant warmth and comfort to many men, women and children.
