Pleasant Birthday Event.
Mrs. M. M. Ellis was treated to an enjoyable surprise on her 57th birthday last Saturday afternoon. The surprise was in the form of a handkerchief shower. About 40 ladies called during the afternoon, each bringing a handkerchief. Mrs. Ellis received 51 handkerchiefs, quite a number of them coming from friends living at a distance.

Mary Attend Auction.
The auction sales at Shores' Department Store are attracting large crowds every afternoon and evening. Mr. Shore is the auctioneer, and his manner of disposing of his goods shows that he thoroughly understands his business. A big hole has been made in the stock in the last few days by these sales.

Skating at Colosseum Rink, Thursday afternoon, November 24, from 2:30 until 5:30.

BRING YOUR PENNY STRIPS

Presbyterian Church Will Entertain Contributors to Organ Fund.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold its next Penny Strip Social for the benefit of the organ fund on Tuesday evening, November 29. All persons having penny strips, or those wishing to contribute to the fund, are cordially invited to be present.

A. J. Langworthy Dead.
A. J. Langworthy, at one time a merchant of Dallas, died at his home in Portland, Friday, aged about 85 years. His son, Dr. Perry Langworthy, is a practicing dentist in Portland. Mrs. Mary F. Lee, widow of the late George Lee, resided with her father until his death.

Union Thanksgiving Service.
All the churches of the city will unite in a Thanksgiving service in the Baptist Church, Thursday morning, at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. Edgar Miles, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will deliver the sermon. Special music will be furnished by a selected choir. A large attendance is desired.

Lodge Notice.
Regular communication of Jennings Lodge, No. 9, A. F. & A. M., Friday evening, November 25, work in the M. M. degree. Visiting brothers cordially welcomed. By order of the W. M., J. C. HAYTER, Secretary.

NOTICE.
All notes and accounts of the Adams-Brost Company have been turned over to me for adjustment. All persons knowing of themselves indebted to the Adams-Brost Company will confer a favor on me and avoid a lot of extra trouble and expense by calling at my offices in Dallas, Oregon, (over Stafin's drug store) and settling the same at once. We desire to straighten up these matters as soon as possible.
WALTER L. TOOZE, JR.

PERSONAL MENTION

H. O. Wishart was a visitor in Portland over Sunday.
Conrad Stafin as a business visitor in Portland this week.
Claud Dunn, of Woodburn, visited relatives in Dallas, Friday.
A. C. Taylor, of McCoy, was a business visitor in Dallas yesterday.
Mrs. C. B. Sundberg arrived home last night from a several weeks' visit in Seattle.

P. M. Smith came down from Black Rock yesterday. He will spend the winter in Rickreall.
Miss Lena Bobbit, of Kenesaw, Nebraska, is a guest at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Young.

E. G. Stram, of Falls City, was in Dallas, Friday. He is preparing to move to Oroville, California.
W. J. Wagner, of Centralia, Washington, is spending a few days at the home of his brother, Fred Wagner.

Mrs. Hughes left for her home in Spokane, Friday, after a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. S. Martin.
Miss Lovetta Campbell, of Portland, visited over Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell.

Mrs. I. A. Allen, of Rickreall, has gone to Newport, where she will spend the winter in the hope of benefiting her health.
L. Gerlinger, Jr., general manager of the Salem, Dallas & Falls City railroad, went to Portland on a business visit today.

Mrs. Mattie Chambers, of Eugene, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Martin, and is enjoying a visit with many old-time friends.
Ira C. Powell, cashier of the Polk County Bank at Monmouth and representative-elect from Polk County, was a county seat visitor Friday.
