The way to build up Dallas is to put Dallas people.

BIG INDOOR CARNIVAL

BOYS OF COMPANY H WILL ENTERTAIN PUBLIC.

New and Original Amusement Enterprises Planned to Raise Needed Funds For Company Treasury.

A great Indoor Carnival will be given in Dallas on Friday evening, and Saturday afternoon and evening, December 16 and 17, in the Woodman Hall.

Many things have been arranged to amuse the public, and all who attend will enjoy the time of their lives. A special train will be run between Falls City and Dallas on Friday evening, leaving Falls City about 7 P. M., and returning, leaving Dallas about 11 P. M.

The great, wonderful, mysterious "MZUMPSA" will be there; there will be the "Wild Animal Show" running full blast. The wild animal show is composed of some of the best trained animals now appearing before the American public.

There will be the wonderful, awe-inspiring, roaring "Cave of the Winds." A dark place, but too treacherous for boys and girls for love-making. This will be "ZALLAH" the wonderful fortune teller, a treat for the young boys and girls who desire to look into the future, and something of interest for the "old ones" who desire to look back.

THE BEST BOOSTER OF ALL

Gathered in Salem this week to help "boost" Oregon were many merchants and business men who do not even carry an advertisement in their home newspapers, and the local newspaper is everywhere recognized by men of affairs as the greatest and best booster of all.

O. C. Lelter, the capable city editor of the Oregonian, told these men some straight truths when he turned to speak. He told them that a live local newspaper was the best asset any town could have; that the first thing a man did who was going to a new town was to look up the local newspapers.

Commercial clubs should give the home newspapers their support, and the merchants should liberally patronize their advertising columns. The place to show your patriotism is in supporting your home newspaper.

Mr. Lelter closed his excellent address by declaring that the man who does not boost the town by boosting his own business is the biggest detriment to the community. A town is judged by its newspapers, and these papers do more to advance the growth and development of the town and its surrounding country than all other agencies combined.

Oregon contractors are experiencing great difficulty in securing enough brick to keep building operations under way. A contractor in Eugene recently bought 295,000 at the almost prohibitive price of $20 a thousand. This in the winter months, when building is usually at a standstill and brick are hard to sell at any price.

The demand for brick next spring and summer will be the greatest ever known in Oregon, and it is feared that the supply will prove so inadequate as to seriously hamper building operations. It is reported that the Dallas business men's organization is fully alive to the situation and that it is already working to secure the establishment of a brick yard near this city in the early spring.

The movement is timely, and it is hoped that it will be successful. Such an industry cannot fall to be profitable to its owner. The establishment of a brick factory will do much to stimulate building activity in Dallas and induce property owners to replace undesirable wooden structures with substantial and modern business blocks. It is not improbable that the entire output of a local plant will be bought at home, although it is certain that the demand would be strong for every neighboring town in the Willamette Valley.

Editor Fliske, of the Temizer, defends the city council's action in leasing the city hall lot for a moving picture show. We rather thought that he would.

With Hawley in congress from Oregon and Hawley as governor of Idaho, the name seems to be pretty well thought of out here in the west.—Eugene Register.

Do not overlook Hawley in the Oregon Senate, elected by a unanimous vote of the people of Polk and Benton.

Enjoyable Surprise. A complete surprise was given F. B. VanNoy, who had been invited to a Monday evening by the Willing Workers and the Business Men's classes of the Christian Church in honor of his birthday. Dashiell. Those present were: The Reverend and Mrs. Leon Myers, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCann, Mr. and Mrs. R. L.
