

Polk County Observer

J. C. HAYTER, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

Published Semi-Weekly at $1.50 per Year. Strictly in Advance.

Entered as second-class matter March 1, 1907, at the post office at Dallas, Oregon, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

DALLAS, OREGON, FEB. 28, 1911.

The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

THE GOVERNOR'S BLUNDER.

The Observer has little patience with the continual Republican howl against the Democratic Governor of Oregon. Every Democratic Governor since 1859 has had in the last twenty years been elected by Republican votes.

The Observer does not blame Governor West for vetoing the "second choice" amendment to the direct primary law. In the first place, the Legislature had no moral right to pass such a measure.

The Observer does not blame Governor West for vetoing the "second choice" amendment to the direct primary law. In the first place, the Legislature had no moral right to pass such a measure.

No one can rightly blame the Governor for taking advantage of a Republican mistake to advance the political fortunes of the men who elected him to office.

It appears that the Observer's protest against illegal liquor selling at Black Rock is having its effect. Let the good work go on.

"Do not, Don't Knock," is the title of the leading editorial in last week's Independence Enterprise. That is good advice, and the editorial is well written.

SEES WISDOM OF SUGGESTION. The only argument advanced against the shipping post is that it is a relic of barbarism.

SHERIDAN WILL PROTEST. The Sheridan citizens and early settlers of this part of the country do not take kindly to Senator Chamberlain's act in recommending the removal of the old Fort Yamhill building from Grand Bonds in Dayton.

PIONEER BETHEL RESIDENT

Death of Harvey L. Jones at Amity, Aged 69 Years.

In the death of Harvey L. Jones, which occurred early Sunday, February 19, another pioneer of Yamhill and Polk Counties passed. Mr. Jones was born in Platte County, Missouri, August 21, 1842, and came to Oregon near Bethel in 1853.

There are still citizens of Sheridan who were personally acquainted with the general, were his personal friends and comrades and who are anxious that the old fort made famous by reason of his activity at or near the town that was given his name.
