They also won the general staff trophy in the Class B state team match, besides individual bronze medals for the members.

The team was composed of Sergeant A. W. Bennett, Privates A. H. Harris, H. G. ("Toot") Stingley, and Linza M. Dennis. First Lieutenant Conrad Stafrin, First Sergeant Peter Greenwood and Duty Sergeant Leon Elder were also in attendance.

Opens Market at Rickreall.

A. E. Weest has opened a meat market at Rickreall, and is kept busy supplying meat to the farmers of the rich country surrounding that village. He says he believes he has the only absolutely sanitary, horseless meat wagon in the Willamette Valley—which would sound a good deal like he intends to deliver his meat by automobile.

Dr. Edward North, a traveling dentist, now in jail in Corvallis, charged with the murder of Mrs. Eliza Griffith at her lonely mountain home near Philomath, was a resident of Dallas about twenty years ago. HEAT WAVE VISITS DALLAS

Thermometer Registers 104 and People Hunt Cool, Shady Spots.

The wave of heat hovering over the valley during the past week apparently reached the climax Sunday, and people were given a chance to appreciate the sufferings of Easterners under similar conditions. As the mercury began to climb, the usual activity of the city was suspended and cool, shady spots were at a premium No two thermometers seemed to agree, and it is hard to tell just how hot it was. At one placee the heat was registered at 104 degrees in the shade and at others it ranged on down to 100, which is perhaps a close average During the evening church services the male portion of the congregations sat in their shirt sleeves and the ministers hurried through their sermons. The court house plaza was a popular resort during the twilight, and many sat about on the grass until it was cool enough to go to bed.

The records at Portland show it to have been the hottest day since 1907, and all up and down both sides of the Willamette the warmth was unusual The heat reached 102 in Salem, and two men were overcome while on the streets, while a teamster working at the Asylum farm became crazed from the effects of it.

Painting Epidemic.

Within the last week or so the appearance of a number of business blocks in Dallas has been improved by appropriate coats of paint The Gail Hotel, the row of frame buildings recently moved onto the Otho Williams property on the north side of Court street, between Main and Church, the new location of the Union Meat Company's shop on Main and Mill, and the front of Craven Brothers' hardware store have been among the number bearing the sign, "Fresh Paint."

Return to Duty.

After a pleasant vacation of six weeks I. N. Woods, agent at the Union depot, has returned to his desk in time to get the full benefit of the hot weather. R. D. Jennings, who was acting agent in his absence, has been promoted to the agency at Hillsboro and has taken charge there. His place as operator here will be filled by H. O. O'Brilen. Ben Werner will be away some time on a vacation and during his absence A. A. Carper, a relief man, will perform his duties.

Former Resident Returns.

A. V. R. Snyder, former newspaper man and widely known resident of Dallas, was in the city from Salem, Monday, visiting and looking about the town. He has been offered the Polk County agency for the Oregon Fire Relief Association, of McMinnville, and is thinking of locating here with his family.

Dr. Lowe will be in Independence, Friday, July 28. Remember the day.
