IS A SMASHING FARCE

'Flirting Princess Has 21 Musical Hits With Two New and Stunning Features.

No happening has been more fraught with the sensational and the startling than the production by Mort H. Singer of 'The Flirting Princess,' with Harry Bulger in the leading role, the smashing musical farce by Adams, Hough and Howard.

'Don't go to this Chicago revival of Weber-Fields' spirit unless you want to be very young,' said Mr. Stevens. 'If you have in you any of the instincts of the Mormon, stay far, far away from this matchless chorus. Chicago may lack in smooth streets and hard coal, but as a producer of a girl, beautiful, Chicago is in truth the center of the country.'

'There never was a handsomer lot of girls, and costumes in a touring musical entertainment than there are in 'The Flirting Princess,' wrote Percy Hammond, the critic of the Chicago Tribune. 'Altogether we are proud of Mr. Singer and the way he puts on his musical comedies.'

O. L. Hall, the critic of the Chicago Journal, called 'The Flirting Princess' the most gorgeous affair the Singers have given the stage.

Harry Bulger in 'The Flirting Princess,' will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House, Salem, Oregon, Saturday, October 14. Seats on sale at theatre Friday a. m.

EDUCATORS INSPECT NEW MODEL RURAL SCHOOL. President Ackerman and Superintendent Seymour Observe Workings in Elkins District.

J. H. Ackerman, president of the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth and County Superintendent Seymour made an official call of inspection last Friday at the Elkins school in District No. 28, which is one of the two rural schools of Polk county chosen by the normal for use as a model in the state teachers' training course.

OBSERVE NEW HOLIDAY

Next Thursday, October 12, Set Apart By Last State Legislature As 'Columbia Day.'

After over 400 years of obscurity, Christopher is to be given due credit for his discovery of this country, for the Legislature last winter designated October 12 as 'Columbus Day,' and it will be celebrated in this state for the first time next Thursday as a legal holiday.

From the fact that Columbus was by birth an Italian, the residents of Portland and state, who claim sunny Italy as their former home or the home of their forefathers, will hold elaborate ceremonies.

Was a Donkey. Chas. Caster, living on Kinzler & Kohl place, made a catch of the largest salmon ever caught on Salmon river with a hook and line. The fish when dressed weighed over 50 pounds, and in landing it the boat with him and another gentleman was towed out to sea over two miles. He was a dandy.—Willamina Times.
