A DEPENDABLE "O. K." ON SHOES

Look for the "BROCKTON CO-OPERATIVE" Trade Mark ON ALL OUR MEN'S SHOES

The Co-operative

When a man puts his "O. K." on a piece of work or anything, and then signs his name or initials, he stands responsible for it---for its correctness.

His "O. K." is his assurance that everything is all right, and he doesn't "O. K." anything until he has examined it, tested it, inspected it thoroughly---until he is "dead sure" its right.

The Co-Operative Trade Mark on The Sole is Their "O. K."

That the shoes are absolutely right.
