

FORD MOTOR CARS LEAD

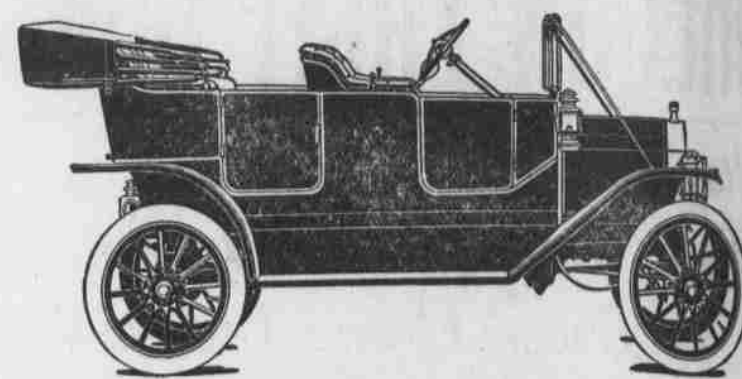

"The Car of all Countries, The Car for all Roads"

TORPEDO ROADSTER
$685 Completely Equipped

COMMERCIAL ROADSTER
$685 Completely Equipped

5-PASSENGER TOURING CAR
$785 Completely Equipped

Specifications

Motor—Four (4) cylinder. Cylinders are cast en-bloc. Cylinder bore is 3 1/2 inches; piston stroke is 4 inches. Motor is rated at twenty (20) horsepower. Vanadium steel is used in all Ford crank and cam shafts and connecting rods.

Three-Point Suspension—Each of the Ford Model T units is suspended at three points of the chassis Transmission—Special Ford Spur Planetary type.

Magneto—Special Ford Design, built in and made a part of the motor. No brushes, no commutators, no moving wires to cause annoyance, on the Ford Magneto.

Lubrication—Combination gravity and splash system. Cooling—By Thermo Siphon water system.

Clutch—Multiple steel disc, operating in oil.

Valves—Extra large, all on right side of motor and enclosed by two small steel plates, making their action absolutely noiseless.

Control—On left side of car. Three foot pedals control high and low speeds, reverse and brake on the transmission. Hand lever for neutral and emergency brake on left side of car.

Brakes—Dual system on all Ford Model T cars. Service brake operates on the transmission and is controlled by foot pedal. Expanding brake in rear wheel drums serves as emergency brake.

Springs—Both front and rear springs are semi-elliptical transverse, all made of specially Ford heat-treated Vanadium steel.

Tires—Front, 30x3 inches. Rear, 30x3 1/2 inches.

Final Drive—Ford triangular drive system with all shafts, universal joint and driving gears enclosed in dust proof and oil proof housing. Only one universal joint is necessary. The Final Drive of the Ford Model T is patented in all countries.

Front Axle—Of I-beam construction, specially drop-forged from a single ingot of Vanadium steel.

Weight—Touring car 1200 lbs; others in proportion.

Wheel Base—100 inches; Standard tread 56 inches; 60 inches for Southern roads where ordered. All Ford Model T cars will turn in 28-foot circle.

Equipment—All Ford Model T's are sold completely equipped—no Ford cars will be sold unequipped. Standard equipment includes Top, Windshield, Gas Lamps, Generator, Speedometer, Three Oil Lamps, Horn and Kit of Tools.

GUY BROS., Dallas, Polk County Agts. For Ford Cars

POLK COUNTY NEWS FROM OBSERVER WRITERS

FALLS CITY

Mr. J. T. Daley, of Rock Creek, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Ward in this city.

M. A. McLoughlin, foreman of the Spalding Logging camp at Black Rock, transacted business in Falls City one day last week.

Walter L. Toose spent three days last week in Salem, returning Sunday.

J. W. Sweeney, of the Dallas Flouring mills, was in the city on business last Friday.

Arthur Allan, of Rickreall, was in this city last week.

Henry Dabritz, who conducted the billiard and pool hall on Main street, died in the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland, Friday, February 2, from kidney trouble. Deceased was 66 years of age and has lived in Falls City about six months. His death was very sudden and greatly shocked his many friends in this city. He had been ill about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Hyde returned to their home in Corvallis, Friday, after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rich and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Starr in this city.

Hans Dabritz attended the funeral of his father in Portland Monday.

John C. Mahr was a Salem visitor recently.

A. J. Wurzburg spent one day last week in the Cherry City on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Starr and sons Paul and Eugene, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Starr in Salem over Sunday.

Professor L. E. Mills, of Black Rock, passed through Falls City Saturday en route to Salem.

County Surveyor B. F. Beesley was a passenger to Dallas Saturday.

R. H. Hostetter, of the Siletz Basin, was in Falls City Saturday purchasing supplies.

Charles Elkins, of Black Rock, passed through this city Sunday en route to Dallas.

The first high school debate to be held under the auspices of the Polk County League will be held in the school house tonight, Friday. The local school will contest with Independence. Roy Bowman and Miss Edythe Harris will support the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, that direct legislation embodying the initiative and referendum, should be more generally adopted by the states of the United States." Independence will hold the negative of this question.

S. Bleiweiss spent the week-end with his family in Portland.

Mrs. William T. Grier was a visitor in the Cherry City Saturday.

A. E. Teal transacted business in the county seat Saturday.

W. B. Stevens was a passenger to Dallas Saturday.

Miss Elsie White spent the week-end with her parents in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stevens, of Portland, returned to that city Sunday after spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Teal.

Wilson A. Ayres, of Dallas, made a business trip to Falls City Saturday.

J. W. Bishop has gone to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wingard have moved to Salem. They formerly occupied apartments in the Taverner hotel.

Miss Dora Elkins, of Dallas, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Elkins, in this city Saturday.

Miss Violet Pfandhoefer, a student of the Capital Business college, at Salem, spent Sunday with her parents in this city.

Abner D. James made a business trip to Dallas Saturday.

C. O. Johnson and daughter are visiting friends and relatives at Centralia, Washington.

John White, of Portland, spent a few days last week with friends in this city.

Five thousand apple, pear, peach and cherry trees have arrived in this city, consigned to the Falls City Orchard Tract company. Planting has begun under the supervision of Robert Taylor, an expert orchardist, of Portland. This is the first consignment of the ten thousand trees which will be planted by the company on their tracts south of the city.

The Pythian Sisters will give a leap year dance in Wagner's hall, St. Valentine's day, February 14. This promises to be one of the greatest balls ever given in this city and preparations are being made to accommodate a large crowd. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. W. R. Hinshaw, Mrs. H. C. Brown and Mrs. Walter L. Toose.

J. J. Sammons has returned from Newport where he has been surveying county roads.

Postmaster J. E. Beesley states that the postoffice will be moved into the Williams building about March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sears, of Dallas, spent Sunday with relatives in Falls City.

Orval Hills Onderkirk, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Onderkirk, died at the family home Friday, aged two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beesley entertained Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Ellis and daughter, Caroline, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hopkins and Mrs. Susan Bryant at dinner last Friday.

Ariste Moser is visiting his family in Portland.

Valeros Dennis has gone to his claim in the Siletz Basin.

S. Raphael Skeels visited relatives in Salem Saturday.

Miss Edna Seymour visited friends at Salem Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Nelson Chapin was a Dallas shopper Saturday.

Dee Chamberlain was a passenger to the Capital City Saturday.

Phillip Porter has completed the construction of a wire fence about the property of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hinshaw, which greatly improves its appearance.

J. R. Bell was in Dallas Sunday.

Fred Smith returned Sunday from a few days' visit in Dallas.

R. G. Masters made a business trip to Black Rock Sunday.

Dr. F. M. Hellwarth made a visit to Black Rock Sunday.

Thomas B. Masters was a Black Rock visitor over Sunday.

Henry Otte went to Black Rock Sunday.

A very pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stanton, Monday evening. The occasion was Mr. Stanton's thirty-seventh birthday. The time was enjoyably passed with dancing and other amusements. About fifty invited guests were present to assist in celebrating the occasion.

Rev. Leon L. Myers, of Dallas, delivered a sermon at the Christian church last Sunday.

Mrs. Ross Flower visited her mother in Falls City, Sunday.

A. W. Porter was a Sunday visitor in Dallas.

George McCormick and W. Osborn gave a dancing party to a number of guests at their home five miles east of Falls City Saturday evening. Delightful refreshments were served. The following were the invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Truxax, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krebs, Misses Lois Osborn, Mattie Osborn, Frances Harris, Edith Harris, Eva Harris, Ola Martin, Neta Martin, Alta Holsington, Beanie Holsington, Carrie Murray, Florence Dorton, Kate Truxax, and Messrs. William Burns, B. Burns, Charles Truxax, David Martin, Claud

Holsington, Ernest Holsington, Frank Osborn, W. Osborn, Edward Osborn, U. Stone, Edward Morris, Robert Bennett, Harold Frink, G. Yetter, Joseph Gage, Floyd Harris, Charles Neudel, Henry Neudel and Randolph Butler.

Dr. L. A. Bollman, of Dallas, made a visit to Falls City Sunday.

B. W. Robinson was a Salem visitor Monday.

Cleveland Powell returned Monday from Albany where he has been on a hunting trip.

Superintendent H. C. Seymour, of Dallas, inspected the local schools Monday.

John Brady transacted business in the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Chapin were the victims of a surprise party given by their friends in honor of their silver wedding anniversary, at their home Thursday, February 1. A number of friends assisted in making this anniversary one long to be remembered. Rev. E. A. LaDow presented to Mr. and Mrs. Chapin, on behalf of the guests present, a very pretty silver set. The time was passed with music, games and other amusements. Refreshments were served. The following were the invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. William Gilson, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. White, Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Titus, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Titus, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frink, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McKown, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paul, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. LaDow, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. O. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Calkins, Mayor and Mrs. F. K. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trimble, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Wurzburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Wenderly, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rehmel, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beesley, Mrs. George Bell, Mrs. A. Hyde, Mrs. Charles Young, Miss Edna Barnhart, Miss Pearl Titus, Miss Leone Chapin, Miss Mildred Chapin, Mr. Park Calkins, Mr. L. A. Tyler, Mr. S. R. Skeels, Mr. Ronald White, Mr. Harry Taylor and Mr. Fred Chapin.

Claud Hickey was a Dallas visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Cora Ford returned Monday evening from a short visit in Dallas.

James Ford made a trip to Dallas the first of the week.

G. D. Treat, L. R. Murray, J. H.

Flower and George Brown represented the local lodge of the Odd Fellows at the Salem encampment Tuesday.

John Parker left Monday for the Siletz Basin via Corvallis.

MONMOUTH

Monmouth has been in a hurry and excitement all this week on account of the Normal exercises and it brought a good many strangers into town, among the noted ones were Governor West and State Superintendent Alderman, and the Board of Regents. All praised the workings of the Normal under President Ackerman's administration and the class of seven acquitted themselves well.

Mrs. Nettie Burke has gone to Prairie City, Eastern Oregon, to visit her son that is teaching there.

Grant Wolverton, of Spokane, brother of Postmaster O. A. Wolverton, was in town this week.

Mrs. Ida Goodnight, of Vancouver, Washington, and sister of Miss Rosea Smith, teacher in a Portland school, were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith, the latter part of the week.

Winegar & Lawrence are having an addition built on to their hardware building to make room for the spring stock of goods.

The new hotel proprietors have taken possession of the hotel and expect to make considerable change in the building besides enlarging it.

C. C. Lee has been somewhat under the weather for a few days.

Ben and Carl Polen made a business trip to Dallas Wednesday.

Mrs. Lina Murphy Guthery, of Corvallis, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Laughy was in town Monday.

Mr. Frank Laughy and father were in town Wednesday.

PERRYDALE

Fred Hedding went to Portland.

Miss Laura Berg, of Dallas, made a week-end visit at the home of John Foster.

John Duignan has bought some fine Toulouse geese and is going in for thoroughbred geese raising.

Miss Hazel Duignan is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Durant, at Amity. Old friends were glad to see Mrs. Charles Miller at the band concert.

Mrs. H. J. Elliott has returned from Corvallis where she was called suddenly on account of her father's illness. He is much better.

The band concert given Saturday evening at the Christian church was enjoyed by all who attended. Everybody agreed that the band boys were making wonderful progress. This is the first program of a series of concerts to be given this season by the boys.

The C. W. B. M. met at the home of Mrs. H. G. Kite recently. After the meeting the ladies were served with lunch.

Mrs. Joseph Goetz left for Portland recently.

Mrs. Engle Engleson is visiting at the home of her father, Mr. R. F. Flannery.

Some unknown person went into Alf Jones' barn half mile north of Perrydale and stole a valuable four year old mare on the evening of the 6th.

BUELL

We are having nice spring weather and everybody is enjoying it.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Braley and family, who have been making an extended visit in the East, returned home last Sunday.

Gilbert Sloper, of Salem, was visiting old friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lenhardt spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Southmayde, of Sheridan.

Charley Jones is working for his brother Lynn at Harmon.

Arch Reed spent Sunday with friends on the creek.

A. W. Fletcher lost a very valuable colt last week. The veterinary was called, but too late to save it.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jones spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Jones at Harmon.

Rainey Blair was transacting business on the creek Monday.

Mrs. Bray and Mrs. Delaney spent Saturday with Mrs. R. R. Jones.

Mr. D. C. Walker made a business trip to Dallas Saturday, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Southmayde are spending the week with relatives and friends on the creek.

Miss Helen Coffey made a business trip to Dallas Saturday.

Mrs. D. C. Walker spent the latter part of the week in Dallas with Mrs. Barber.

BETHEL

Miss Eva Darr went to Amity, Saturday evening.

Daphne Richards, of the Monmouth Normal, is visiting at the home of

(Continued on Page Three)