

TO THE PEOPLE OF DALLAS AND VICINITY

After six weeks of continuous work, I beg leave to announce to the public of Dallas and vicinity that I expect to open for business on or about Wednesday, March 13. Our entire stock will be complete and will be literally seething with all the latest style novelties.

Stock consists of Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shoes and all kinds of furnishing goods.

WM. HERZOG LEADING CLOTHIER

408 Main Street, Next Door to Dallas City Bank

Dallas, Oregon

POLK COUNTY NEWS FROM OBSERVER WRITERS

FALLS CITY

Floyd Rice, of Dallas, visited with friends in Falls City last Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Russell, of Portland, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Courter in this city.

James R. Barclay, the lecturer, gave a very interesting entertainment in Wagner's hall Friday evening under the auspices of the Commercial club. According to the sentiment of the audience this was one of the best attractions ever seen in Falls City. The last entertainment in this course will be the Mendley Quartette, which will be here on March 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hamar and children left Sunday for their home at Nashville, Oregon, after spending three weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Porter.

J. H. McMillan, of the Siletz Basin, was in this city from his claim a few days last week.

Frank Heydon attended the Forest Fire association in Portland this week. Mr. Heydon is chief fire warden for Polk county.

Miss Violet Pfandhoefer, of Salem, spent the week-end with her parents.

Miss Ella Mührling, of Dallas College, visited her parents in Falls City Saturday and Sunday.

John Flannigan, of Seattle, Washington, made a business trip to this city last week.

Mrs. Sarah Commerford, of Seattle, Washington, gave a very eloquent address in the Methodist church Sunday evening on the subject of Equal Suffrage. Mrs. Commerford's remarks were well received by a large audience. While here she organized a local suffrage league. The following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. E. Seymour; vice president, Mrs. Merton G. Ellis; secretary, Mrs. I. G. Singleton; treasurer, Roy F. M. Washite. A vote was taken at the meeting and the result was unanimous in favor of equal rights for women.

A most enjoyable dance was given in Wagner's hall Saturday evening. The Walker orchestra furnished the excellent music for the dancers. About 40 couples were present.

R. L. Thomas, of Selma, Josephine county, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Corbin for a few days last week.

Lina Dennis, of Portland, spent one day last week in this city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dennis.

M. A. McLoughlin, foreman of the Spaulding Logging camp at Black Rock, has left for Manila, Philippine Islands, where he will inspect a large belt of hardwood timber recently purchased by a Salem company. The belt extends over 455 square miles of territory.

William Ellis has returned from Portland where he served on the Federal jury.

John Charles was a Salem visitor three days last week.

D. M. Deacon, of Salem, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Elkins in this city.

Professor J. E. Dunton made a business trip to Dallas Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Starr, of Salem, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Starr Saturday.

J. H. Flower made a legal trip to Dallas Saturday.

J. S. S. Powell transacted business in the county seat Saturday.

Jackson R. Moyer was in Dallas Saturday on business.

Clarence E. Powell visited his family in Oregon City the fore part of the week.

Mrs. A. E. Teal and daughter Marie, were passengers to Dallas Saturday.

Mrs. W. S. Johnson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Tetherow, left Saturday for her home in Klamath Falls.

T. B. Hooker has been appointed district assessor by County Assessor Carl S. Graves.

The girls of the Ell Dee society of the Falls City High school entertained the boys of that society at a party given in the school building Saturday evening. The time was enjoyably passed in games and other amusements. An elaborate luncheon was served.

J. R. James attended the lecture on loganberries in Dallas Saturday.

C. J. Pugh was in Dallas Saturday on business.

Dewey James and Lawrence Mahr returned Saturday from a trip to Eugene.

Fountain Murphy was a visitor in the Cherry City Saturday.

S. Bietweiss spent the fore part of the week with his family in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Black, of Black Rock, spent Saturday in Falls City.

F. A. Lucas, of Chelto Harbor, Washington, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Calkins in this city Saturday. Mr. Lucas formerly was a resident of this city and was at one time mayor.

T. B. Hooker has declared his intention of becoming a candidate for the republican election of delegate to the National convention at Chicago in June. Only seven candidates have filed, while ten are to be elected.

R. A. Titus visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Titus at Jefferson the first of the week.

Herbert Hanson of Salem, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

T. B. Hooker was a business caller at the county seat Saturday.

Mrs. Calvin Sheppard, of Bridgeport, was a shopper in this city Saturday.

Nola Dimick, of Dallas, was a Falls City visitor Saturday.

Verne Compton of Dallas, attended the dance in Wagner's hall Saturday night.

Harry A. Packard, of Portland, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier in Falls City.

Jack Page, of Salem, spent Sunday in Falls City.

U. S. Loughary, of Dallas, was a business visitor in this city Sunday.

Victor Mahr returned Saturday from a trip to Eugene.

Marion Corbin has purchased the barber shop of George Bell. He will remodel the interior and make other improvements.

Miss Franc Newman, of Salem, was a visitor in Falls City Sunday.

Harold Hart, of Dallas, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harle E. Starr.

A. E. Seymour, who has been employed in a sawmill at St. Johns, returned to Falls City Monday.

Mrs. Mary Spencer spent a few days this week in Salem.

Charles Hartung made a business trip to Dallas Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Jenkins, of the Siletz Basin, visited relatives in this city from Saturday until Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Gilbert, of Dallas, spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Tetherow.

Miss Susan Bolton has gone to Toledo.

Miss Viola Selig is visiting friends and relatives in Portland.

MONMOUTH

The series of meetings at the Christian church will continue over Sunday.

Mr. S. A. McClellan, of Colorado, arrived in town with his car last week. He brought all of his farming implements and six head of mules and two horses, besides his household goods in one car. He has rented the William Riddell, Jr., place and moved on to the same. He said he grew tired of being burned out of a summer and frozen of a winter, and he came here expecting to like it. His family will be here Friday or Saturday.

C. W. Stewart, of Suver, was in town the latter part of last week.

John Levick, of Lewisville, was in town Thursday of last week on business.

Oliver Fleming, of Salem, was visiting in our city Friday.

John Yater, of West Monmouth R. F. D. was in town Friday on business.

Exercises in the Normal chapel were conducted by the junior class and were quite entertaining.

J. C. Johnson, of Salem, was in town Saturday having been to his farm near Airlie. He has a fine farm there. He said he had lived in Salem 22 years.

J. T. Vick, of Salem, was doing business in town Monday.

Marshal Suver, formerly of Suver, Polk county, was in town Monday on business.

Grove A. Patterson, of Suver, was in town Monday transacting business concerning his father's estate. He said things looked well on the farm.

Robert Steele, who has been in California for his health, returned home last week much improved and is glad to get back to the valley.

W. M. Shewey, of Airlie, was in town Tuesday looking hale and hearty.

Phy Simpson, of Airlie, passed through town Tuesday enroute to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moran and four children, of Tacoma, are visiting friends and relatives in town.

T. Churchill moved to his ranch south of town Tuesday.

This fine warm sunshine and showers makes the Easterners smile after coming out of the frozen states. The farmers around town are busy plowing. J. B. Stamp has several three horse teams plowing for him.

C. E. Herren is busy working his hops. He does the most of the work himself.

J. D. Mickle, candidate for pure food and dairy commissioner, was in town last week looking as pleasing "as a basket of chips."

The new gasoline car created quite an excitement in town. It was something new to most of us and the new train service is all right for we can go in any direction we wish on the train and return in good time.

Last Sunday we had the pleasure of attending the Christian Science meeting held every Sunday in the Murdock hall and found it quite entertaining and very instructive.

AIRLIE

Bert Conn marketed a nice lot of pork Wednesday.

J. M. Staats who formerly operated the telephone exchange here was calling on Airlie friends this week.

Our road supervisor was in Airlie Monday looking after affairs connected with the road district.

Everybody had a holiday here on Washington's birthday, February 22. Our rural mail carrier had a day off.

R. G. Dykstra, who is teaching school in the Ward district, was calling on Airlie friends Saturday night.

The Southern Pacific company is building stockyards and chute here for the loading of stock for shipment. This is the first improvement of this kind for Airlie.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. McGee, of Pelee community, were in Airlie one day this week on their way to Portland.

Albert Ronco has been delivering cream here from the Pelee valley for shipment to the creamery.

J. M. Johnston, of Salem, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Simpson.

Miss Netta Hall, one of Airlie's telephone operators, is visiting relatives in Buena Vista.

J. S. Condon a member of the Pelee Lumber company, was in town one day this week on business.

Mrs. Bonnie Smith, of Dallas, is visiting her brother-in-law, J. J. LeVick.

G. A. Peterson was in Airlie the other day on business.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Falkenberg on Friday, March 15.

E. Caughery fell from the porch at Alcorn's store accidentally one day recently and struck on his head. He was unconscious for a time.

Elder Wood, of Corvallis, preached in the hall here last Sunday at 7 o'clock.

McNARY

Mrs. F. B. Gwin went to Portland Tuesday.

The families of E. M. Young and John Robbins and Ernest Brown went to hear Mrs. Gwin's photograph Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robbins and Ernest had Sunday dinner at the home of E. M. Young.

Mrs. A. O. Brown has her incubator set with 160 eggs.

Mrs. Gwin and Mrs. Robbins visited Mrs. A. J. Brown Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Young went to Salem Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brown had dinner with their son Sol, Tuesday.

E. M. Young is putting a new wire fence in front of his property.

A. J. Brown and E. M. Young have started their plows.

Mrs. Anna Holmes, daughter of Mrs. A. O. Brown, has returned to her home near Newberg.

Armine Young went to Salem Wednesday.

John Robbins went to Salem Wednesday and bought a work horse.

Frank Brown is hauling grain from Independence.

Mrs. F. B. Gwin came home from Portland Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Young went to Salem Thursday and came home Friday.

O. A. and Ernest Brown went to Salem Friday.

E. M. Young has another car load of hop stakes from Falls City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brown went to Salem Saturday.

Mrs. E. M. Young went to Salem Saturday.

The father and brother of A. O. Brown of Almsville, visited him Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gwin visited at the home of F. B. Gwin Sunday.

Reynold Schute of Eola, visited at the home of A. O. Brown Sunday.

Sol Brown and wife visited at the parental home Sunday.

BALLSTON

J. W. Butler, of Williams, visited at the home of his brother, J. H. Butler, Friday night while enroute home from Portland.

The leap year party given for the High school Thursday night was well attended and all report an enjoyable time.

District Superintendent James Moore preached at the Methodist church here Sunday night.

Mr. Fanning, of Sheridan, is clearing some land which he will plant

(Continued on Page Three)