

News of City and County

No more lumber at Ward's mill.

Dr. McNicol, Osteopath, 719 Court.

Girls, we have those pink marsh-

Boots.

J. H. Mills, of Salem, visited in the city over Sunday.

Bert Dennis, of Falls City, motored

Dallas, Tuesday.

Dr. Sheetz was a business visitor

Portland Monday.

Get your fresh country butter at Ward's General Store.

Piano for rent. Inquire of L. D.

Ward—the piano man.

George Tice, of Falls City, was a

Dallas visitor Saturday.

Miss Ella Mehring spent Sunday with her parents in Falls City.

Mrs. Helen D. Hartford, of New-berg, was in the city Sunday.

G. L. Hawkins was a business visit-in Independence last week.

J. H. Lockman returned from a visit to Portland, Sunday.

Miss Leota Lewis, of Lewisville, was in Dallas today, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lynn, of Perryville, visited in the city over Sunday.

Mrs. Elmer Lewis, of Falls City, visiting at the home of Mrs. J. B.

Ward.

Miss Blanche McKinney visited Miss

Ward Titus at Falls City Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. J. H. Almstead and daughter, of Portland, were registered at the Gall

Monday.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be at Hotel Gall Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Meyers, of Spokan, are in the city visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Opal McDevitt visited in Independence last week at the home of Mrs. L. W. Conkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman and son, Chapman, Jr., visited relatives

city, Sunday.

Miss Marguerite Shinner, a teacher of Independence, visited her sisters in the city over Sunday.

Full line of hop twine, hop cloth,

and sulphur, etc., and other supplies

at Coder's General store.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Starr passed through Dallas Saturday on their way to Falls City, to visit relatives.

William P. Snyder visited friends and relatives in McMinnville last week, returning home Monday.

Miss Opal McDevitt left for Corvallis Monday to visit her brother, C.

Chris McDevitt of that city. Mrs.

McDevitt expects to give a reception on Wednesday and Miss Opal will be.

The New Scott has 9 more pleasant rooms for regular boarders at low rates. Try our 25c and 50c breaks. None better.

You Can Afford to

Buy an Encyclopedia

I have secured three astonishing deals in Encyclopedias and Dictionaries and am going to give my customers the benefit of the low prices. These books are all brand new and are the latest revised editions. They are beautifully and substantially bound and are worth twice

what we ask for them.

New International Encyclopedia

Dual-Meal edition; corrected and revised from cover to cover. Seventeen beautiful volumes, bound in maroon Morocco. Will be sold on easy payment plan, if desired.

Publisher's price, $115. Our price,

$75.

Americanized Cyclopedia Britannica

The beautiful volumes, three-quarter morocco. An ornament to any library. Publisher's price,

$75. Our price, $45.

Twentieth Century Encyclopedia

Large-volume set, three-quarters morocco. Splendid reference work.

Publisher's price, $140. Our price,

$90.

These books are on display in our front show window. Come in and see them.

J. C. HAYTER

Bookseller and Stationer

428 Main Street

L. W. Jose, of Salem, was in the city Sunday.

Roy Sparks, of Newport, is a Dallas visitor this week.

F. H. Morrison was a business visitor in Salem Saturday.

G. W. Burne, a merchant of Aurora, was in Dallas Monday.

Ivan Jackson, of Oregon City, is in town on business this week.

George Cramer, of Albany, was in Dallas the first of the week.

V. R. Dennis, of McMinnville, was in the city on business, Monday.

George H. Carrol, a business man of Salem, was a Dallas visitor Monday.

W. L. Smith and Harry Gelvin, of Salem, were visitors in the city Sunday.

Roy Brenner, fish warden, of New-berg, was in the city on business Saturday.

Albert Feal and Ira Mehring of Falls City, were in town Monday and Tuesday.

E. E. Hubbard, of Falls City, was a business visitor in Dallas the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Shriver returned from a visit to Hillsboro the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. O'Brien, of Seaside are in the city on business

this week.

Remember Lane's new ice cream parlor. Only the best of everything at all times.

D. F. Burgess, of Bowersville, was in the city attending to business matters Monday.

Misses Winnie Lee and Mabel Nunn, of Independence were visiting in the city, Sunday.

Clarence Ireland and Mr. Borden visited Mr. Ireland's aunt, Mrs. Anna

Coad, last week.

Registered at the Dallas are: R. E.

Hudson, of Falls City, and G. J. Whitman, of Jefferson.

Mrs. A. V. R. Snyder was called to McMinnville Monday, to visit her daughter, who is indisposed.

W. A. Spinner and J. K. P. Harris

of Independence, were in the city

looking after business interests Monday.

Lane has the only modern ice cream parlor in the city and he takes pride in pleasing his patrons.

My him.

Our next visits to Dallas will be

May 3 and June 7. Drs. Freeze &

Rice, eye specialists, at Staffin's drug store.

A. B. Knowlton, of Portland, Hon.

L. S. Elliott of Seattle and H. Olson of Newport, are recent arrivals at the New Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Smith are the happy parents of a baby girl, born

Saturday, April 13, at their home on Maple street.

Beginning April 10 I will give one sailor hat with each purchase amounting to three dollars or more in cash.

Mrs. B. Toner.

Phone 1252. French dry cleaning, sponging and pressing. Clothing called for and delivered. McKnight

514 Mill street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. D. Paul, of La

Sai ranch, near Buell, were in the city on Saturday. They were registered at the New Scott.

Headquarters of the Oregon Fire

Relief Association will be found in Room 21, New Bank Building, at the head of the stairs.

P. M. Cushman, a pioneer of Polk county, now of Sheridan, visited his daughter, Mrs. A. S. Campbell of this city, over Sunday.

Mrs. George Gerlinger and little daughters, Irene and Georganna returned last week from an extended visit in California.

L. O. Shumway, manager of the Sheridan Logging company, was in the city attending to business matters

the first of the week.

Recent arrivals at the Dallas are:

W. Hayes, Portland; L. V. Fisher,

Portland; Harry Hall, Portland; L.

Fisher, Independence.

J. O. McCrady, with the Electric

Vacuum Carpet Cleaner, is now in Dallas again. Write him for work or for estimates on work.

To close out our stock of new

White sewing machines we will offer them for $12.50 each. Cost not considered. Come and get one while they last. Sterling Furniture Co.

New Sanitary Stand.

C. L. Crider, proprietor of the Main street general store, has just completed a sanitary vegetable and fruit stand in his store, which places his establishment in the lead in this regard in the city. A portion of one of the front windows has been screened off and a system of piping throws a stream of water over the fresh vegetables. There is outside ventilation, and, during the warm months, an electric fan will keep the air pure.

President Winter Returns.

President A. A. Winter, of Dallas College, reached Dallas Friday from an extended sojourn in the East in the interest of the local institution, although he has been in the state several weeks. He reports the outlook for the college good and will remain here about a month before returning East to complete his mission. Mrs. Winter is still in the East.

Sues for Money.

The Merchants National Bank of Portland has begun suit in department No. 1 of the Polk county circuit court against Mrs. A. J. Paul to recover on a note, and asks judgment against defendant in the sum of $996.54 and interest on $1000 from April 15, 1911, at 8 per cent, and $100 attorney's fees.

To Build New House.

Workmen in the employ of S. Taylor Jones, superintendent of the Salem, Falls City & Western railway, have begun excavation for the basement for a modern dwelling which Mr. Jones will erect on his lots on Shelton street, between Clay and Ash.

Dallas Wins From Salem.

In a close and exciting base ball game Saturday, the Dallas High school team defeated Salem by the score of 3 to 2, on the Dallas college campus grounds in this city.

"Boost For Falls City."

Boost for Falls City! Vote for John B. Teal for county judge.—Falls City News. (Paid advertisement.)

Legal blanks for sale at this office.

From now until further notice the Union Meat Co. will have bulk lard (home rendered) for sale in any amount. Phone No. 13.

The Young Men's club of Dallas entertained the Young Women's club Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Riley Craven.

J. J. Sammons, of Falls City, civil engineer who is surveying for the county around Dallas, is in the city. He is registered at the Dallas.

The Sterling Furniture company is now offering New White sewing machines for the unheard of price of $32.50 to close out their entire stock.

Misses Leone Williams and Hazel Knight motored down to Perrydale Wednesday for a week-end visit with Miss Williams' aunt, Mrs. F. E. Lynn.

Ladies, call at Lane's new ice cream parlor on Court street. All the latest creations in ice cream service and sodas, and a quiet place to enjoy them.

H. J. Fleming, of Eau Claire, Wis., was registered at the New Scott Saturday. He recently came West to look over the country and, if possible, to find a location.

Kersey carries the only complete line of fudges, turkish nutmeg, caramels, jay caramels, penoche, log cabin creams, fluffy-ruffles, taffys and salted almonds in town.

Tom Watson, brother, Willis Howell, son, Mrs. Ella Ellis, Mrs. C. G. Coad, Mrs. V. E. Fiske, and A. V. H. Snyder, relatives, attended the funeral of Mrs. Josephine Rowell at Sheridan, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Uglow and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Volheim motored to McMinnville Sunday afternoon. Mrs. H. L. Toney, of that city, who had been visiting friends in Dallas, accompanied them.

Boyt Carey, Lloyd Westley, E. Hampt and A. Humphrey, of Salem, "hooked" to Dallas Monday morning, arriving here about 6:30 a. m., and returned to Salem immediately after lunch. They were not walking on a wager or for notoriety, they say, but merely for the "fun of it."

Among the few Dallas girls who have won the praise of critics through the medium of their voice is Mrs. Georgia Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Shriver, of this city. Mrs. Jennings now makes her home in Hillsboro, where she