A Barbed Wire Cut, Collar or Saddle Gail not properly healed leaves a disfiguring scar.

Ballard's SNOW LINIMENT

is the Right Remedy for All Abrasions of the Flesh.

If the wound is cleaned and the liniment applied promptly, the healing process begins at once and the wound heals from the inside outwardly, thus performing a perfect cure that leaves no scar. If the wound is left on the outside too quickly, it pus forms under the surface and breaks out into a running sore that is hard to cure and inevitably leaves a bad scar.

Of the blooded stock breeders and to all others for the reason, and they use it not only on the animals, but on human flesh, as it does its work quickly and thoroughly.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00.
