Portland.—Under the first presidential preference primaries held in Oregon Roosevelt was the choice of the Republican voters, with Senator La Follette a good second. President Taft was a bad third in the race, both in Portland and the state at large.

The race between Roosevelt and La Follette was spectacular, the early returns showing them running neck and neck. La Follette has a plurality in Portland and he made an exceptional showing in the counties covered in his recent speech-making tour. La Follette's recent speech in Portland, where he addressed an audience of 10,000 people, undoubtedly is responsible for the heavy vote given him.

Roosevelt ran strong in the rural districts. In the cattle country of eastern and southern Oregon he was an easy winner, with La Follette second. Through the thickly settled Willamette valley district Roosevelt also won with ease.

Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, was the choice of the Democratic voters for president, though Speaker Champ Clark received a substantial vote in many counties. Governor Harmon, of Ohio, received a very small vote and was not a factor in the race.

Woodrow Wilson did not have a walkaway in obtaining the Oregon preference for democratic nomination for president. While Multnomah county went strong for Governor Wilson several of the other counties gave Champ Clark heavy pluralities. The result is that on the face of the incomplete returns Governor Wilson is leading his opponent by less than 1000 votes in a total count of 12,410. This total probably represents two-thirds of the democratic votes cast in the state.

The figures available give the following: Wilson 6387, Clark 5433, Harmon 590. Wilson's plurality is 954. In the vote for president on the republican ticket, President Taft apparently has carried six counties.

A feature of this fact is that two of the big stock counties, where it might have been inferred Roosevelt's interest in the range would gain him votes, have gone for Taft. These are Crook and Harney. In addition President Taft has apparently won in Morrow, Polk, Sherman and Yamhill.

There is no certainty that La Follette has carried more than one county, Multnomah. Incomplete returns on Jackson county give him a slight lead over Roosevelt. La Follette also has a slight lead over Roosevelt in Josephine in the incomplete returns, and is close on the heels of Roosevelt in Tillamook.

Roosevelt, it seems probable, has carried all of the following counties: Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Curry, Douglas, Gilliam, Grant, Hood River, Klamath, Lane, Lincoln, Malheur, Marion, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Wasco and Washington.

The total vote counted is 62,805, which, it is believed, is about 12,000 short of the complete returns.

In this total Roosevelt has 25,391, La Follette 20,194, Taft 18,219. Roosevelt's incomplete plurality over La Follette is 5197, over Taft 7172. La Follette's plurality over Taft is 1975.

It will not be known who the republicans endorsed as candidate for vice-president until the official count has been made. The names of C. W. Fulton, Thomas McCusker, Dan Kellner, United States Senator Borah, of Idaho, and numerous others were written on the ballots.
