Eugene Register: The county court has decided to build two first class steel reinforced concrete bridges on the river road beyond Santa Clara. One will be eight feet in width and the other about 20 feet.

Milton Eagle: Those living in the rocky section of the valley have the opportunity to rid their places of stone at small cost. During the past two months the rock crusher furnishing macadam for the county road from Freewater to State Idne, has taken approximately 100 yards of rock per day. The county has paid 30 cents per yard for this.
