Week In Society

Entertains for Mrs. Pascoe.

On Thursday last Mrs. S. B. Taylor entertained informally for Mrs. W. W. Pascoe (nee Helen Wright) of Tacoma, Washington, who has been her house guest for the past week. Those calling during the afternoon were friends of Mrs. Pascoe who knew her when she was instructress in the kindergarten in this city several years ago. The hostess was assisted in serving a dainty lunch by Misses Dorothy and Marjorie Bennett. Cards were left by Mesdames: J. R. Allgood, Oscar Hayter, George R. Gerlinger, L. L. Chapman, Conrad Stafrin, C. A. Bennett, C. L. Crider, J. G. VanOrstrand, J. L. White, W. A. Schol.

Elaborate Card Party.

One of the largest as well as the most elaborate card parties of the season is to be given by Mesdames Elizabeth W. Fuller and Otho Williams at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Williams on May 23, the invitations for which will be out next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fonso Manston entertained at cards last week for Mrs. Manston's brother, Dr. Stafrin, of Portland. They had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. William Kaerth, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sundberg, Mr. and Mrs. Lodge Bicknell, Miss Dessie Ridgeway and Miss Clara Pfesner and Herman Laylor, of York, Nebraska, who are the house guests at the Manston home. Dr. Stafrin left Tuesday for Washington, where he will remain for several months.

Mrs. George Gerlinger entertained informally for Mrs. Helen Wright Pascoe, on Saturday, May 11.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will hold their anniversary services next Sunday evening, May 19, at 7 o'clock. A good program will be rendered.

Misses Fannie Dempsey, Ada Longmeyer and Cora Tuft returned from their short visit at Salem the first of the week, where they were sent as delegates to the Epworth League convention, held in that city at the South Methodist church.

Miss Frances Dempsey was elected secretary of the Epworth League of Salem district, comprising Sheridan, Woodburn, Forest Grove, Dallas and McMinnville and surrounding cities, at the last annual conference. She will commence her duties immediately.

Literary Section to Meet.

The literary section of the Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Oscar Hayter Wednesday afternoon, May 22, at 2:30 o'clock. This will be the last meeting for the summer, and all members are requested to be present. Officers are to be elected and other business of importance must be settled at this time.

Remember Their Teacher.

The pupils of Mrs. Frank Wing, who will leave for an extended visit East in a few days, presented her with a beautiful book Tuesday evening, several of them calling to make the presentation, under the chaperonage of Miss O'Connell. The evening was pleasantly spent at games, and refreshments were served late in the evening.

Philogians' Society Feast.

An old swinging bridge, just north of the city, overhung with dense green foliage and surrounded by a soft carpet of ferns and short grass, was as picturesquely beautiful a spot as could possibly have been chosen for the D. H. S. Philogian society's feast on Wednesday night. Miss Jean Kuykendall (one of the chaperones), was undoubtedly mistress of ceremonies, spending most of her time building fires, toasting marshmallows, reading and introducing jokes. During the evening she read "Pigs is Pigs," after which Miss Lillian Fellows read "Pleas is Fleas," by the same author, both of which caused a great deal of merriment. This popular young women's society is strictly a feminine organization, composed of about 37 co-eds of the Dallas High. One of the rules of the society is that no male members shall be admitted, to ridicule its secret workings. It has been a decided success this year, most of the girls being faithful and regular in their attendance at its weekly meetings, held on Monday nights. Each girl has taken her "turn" on the different programs presented, which were highly interesting and entertaining, as well as educational. The celebrated debating team of the school was taken from the ranks of this exclusive society. The chaperones Wednesday night were: Miss O'Connell, Miss Cora Rossiter, Miss Marguerite McCosky, and Miss Jean Kuykendall. The members of the society and guests were: Misses Miriam Hart, Lola Ramsey, Susie Ramsey, Muriel Grant, Georgia Plske, Marie Griffin, Lillian Fellows, Leonilla Smith, Olive Coulter, Biedie Odum, Dovie Odum, Claudia Brown, Pearl Phillips, Caroline Ghorke, Josephine Luebke, Pauline Coad, Dora Hayes, Georgia Ellis, Elva Lucas, Anna Farmer, Alice Miles, Lucile Hamilton, Louise Miles, Mabel Grant, Ava Coad, Lena Skerries, Mildred Skerries, Oda Blodgett, Dorothy Bennett, Marjorie Bennett, Ruth Littlepage, Ruth Campbell and Alfreda Garner.

BUYING AN AUTOMOBILE IS AN IMPORTANT MATTER TO MOST PERSONS

A few are rich enough to buy on impulse and change if they find they were mistaken, but with most persons the automobile is, next to the home, the most important purchase. MITCHELL Cars are built for people who cannot afford to make a mistake, the more you know and the closer you investigate, the more you'll realize that Mitchell Cars give you the most for your money and are made to last indefinitely.

Mitchell cars are economical to operate, and in appearance they class with cars that cost three times as much.

Don't buy a car hastily, look around; learn the important points; study all the cars you can; every step in such things will emphasize the conviction that the value offered in a Mitchell car is the greatest value in the automobile field today.

The new Mitchell "Baby Six" will electrify the American public, because it is the car that the American public has been demanding for some time. Moreover, it will cause a readjustment of the public estimation of automobile values, or we are out of our element as prophets.

The five-passenger "Baby Six" at a reasonable price is a LOGICAL COMPROMISE which the people will receive with the keenest possible pleasure.

Be sure to see our new five-passenger "Mitchell Six," six cylinders, 48-horse power, Splittorf dual ignition system, self-contained oil in crank case; three speeds forward and one reverse; rear axle full floating, demountable; tires 36x4; wheel base, 125 inches; five-passenger, fore-doors; price $1950; equipment; top with cover, five lamps, Presto-Lite tank, speedometer, windshield, robe and footrail, one extra demountable rim and holder.

The car you ought to have at the price you ought to pay.

V. B. Sears Comes to Dallas on High Speed From Ballston Home.

V. B. Sears, the well-known capitalist of Ballston, who owns a generous chunk of the northern part of Polk county, has a Ford five-passenger touring car of 22 1/2 horse-power, he says. Some of the neighbors in his locality have been handing him a little guff to the effect that his Ford wasn't such a very great affair, and that it couldn't accomplish what their more expensive machines could do with ease. So, the other day, just for a josh Mr. Sears hitched up his machine and, taking O. E. Focht, another reliable citizen of Ballston, with him, jumped into his car, threw over the thingamajig until it jibed with the kedinkus, pulled the lever that controls the doohickey and slapped the feter over into the highest notch and chugged away toward Dallas. You couldn't see him for smoke, and the way he sailed along the county highways was a caution. He didn't move a lever nor bust a gallas button until he reached the Nightengale place, when he slowed down enough to take on a passenger and proceeded on to Dallas, arriving here in 38 minutes from the time he left home. Up hill and down dale the Ford chugged blithely along and never missed a chug. There was simply nothing to it but speed, and Col. Sears says he can do it any time. Focht says he did it all right, and John Foster thinks it is possible, so we have all the expert opinion necessary. The owners of the alleged high priced benzine buggies are therefore respectfully requested to go chase themselves.

Judge Percy R. Kelley left for Dallas to hold court. His plan is a good one. Friday and Saturday he sits a docket, establishing the cases that are for trial. He also has the grand jury appointed at the previous term meet and do its business, so that when court convenes on Monday, with its jury, there will be no delay, but business from the start.—Albany Democrat.

Jax. C. Dahlmann, serving his third term as mayor, Omaha, Neb., again was successful in receiving the overwhelming support of the voters in the primary election. He also successfully rid himself of a bad case of kidney trouble by the aid of Foley Kidney Pills, and writes: "I have taken Foley Kidney Pills and they have given me a great deal of relief, so I cheerfully recommend them." What Foley Kidney Pills have done for Mayor Dahlmann they will do for any other person bothered with back-ache, rheumatism, or any other form of kidney or bladder trouble. Just try them for quick and permanent results. Sold by Conrad Stafrin.
