SCHOOL DAYS END FOR CLASS OF SIX

tears to the eyes of many, brought back to them the memories of the parting hour of their own school days, and made them feel again the pangs of loneliness and the new feeling of responsibility, of starting out into the world, to either ascend or descend the ladder of fame, as they had felt it, some of them, years before.

Following the program, Professor D. M. Metzger gave an address to the class that will linger long in the minds of those who heard it. The subject dealt principally with character building and the size of the world wrought by each individual for his own life. His remarks were forceful and to the point and were appreciated by the audience as well as the members of the class.

Principal Walter I. Ford presented the diplomas with a word of congrat-ulation to each graduate, after which the platform was crowded with the friends and parents of the first class of Dallas High, showering upon them congratulations and wishes for a successful and happy future.

Entertains Eighth Grade.

Miss Lucy Kopan, teacher of the Eighth grade of the Dallas public school, was mistress of ceremonies at an ice-cream treat for her pupils on Friday, June 7. The Cozy Corner was the scene of this happy gathering, and the management was obliged to give over all the floor space available to the crowd of youngsters.

Besides Miss Kopan, her guests were: Floyd Ellis, Clifford Helgerson, J. D. Smith, Theodore Berg, Vey Coffin, Arthur Miles, Phillip Miles, Raymond Scott, Stewart Bennett, Henry VanMoss, Pauline Rickli, Mary Kraher, Anna Mae Longnecker, William Lockman, Gertrude Wilson, Genevieve Coad, Anna Cerny, Esther Gates, Blanche Musey, Adah Campbell, Gladys Loughary, Lowell Stubblefield, Edward Ghorke.

Bids Wanted.

The Scott Hotel will receive bids for ten days commencing Friday, June 7, for 75 cords of dry second growth fir.

Sells "Little Four."

L. D. Daniel, local agent for the Reo and Apperson cars, and "The Little Four," last week sold one of the latter cars to C. H. Crawford, of the Olympia bar. The machine is a neat little two-passenger affair and has attracted considerable attention on the streets.

Bee Hives.

Eight frame hives with super, (cups), nailed and painted, already for the bees. You get the benefit of my experience in preparing hives for best results. Prices right. Also would work bees on shares or would buy new swarms hived in my hives.
Would take orders for pure bred Italian Queens.

Banquet at Hotel Gail.

Change in arrangements has been made by the association whereby the annual banquet of the Dallas College Alumni association will be held at the Hotel Gail on Wednesday night, instead of at the Hotel New Scott, as announced last week.

Attends Masonic Meetings.

Oscar Hayter will be absent from his offices this week, he says, in attendance upon the various sessions of the Masonic grand lodges in Portland. All branches of the order meet this week in annual convention, including the grand lodge, Royal Arch, grand chapter of the Eastern Star, and the Scottish Rite. Several other Dallas Masons are also in attendance.

New Display Stands.

Don't fail to see the new display stands at Craven Bros.' where 10c, 15c and 25c articles are displayed in great profusion and to good advantage. These stands were designed by Craven Bros. and were made by the Dallas Planing Mill company. They are built of Oregon fir and finished in golden Japanese oak stain. They add materially to the attractiveness of the store.

Pictures For June Brides

You could not select a more appropriate gift for the June bride than one of our genuine photographic sepia prints in a Circassian walnut frame. These prints represent the very height of dignity and refinement in art, and will prove a welcome addition to the walls of any home.

Another dainty wedding gift is a Knaff landscape, framed in gold. We sell only one of each subject, thus assuring the purchaser that his gift will have no duplicate in any home in the city.

Our stock of moulding is replete with the new 1912 designs. No art store in Oregon can show you a more modern line.

Pictures suitable for wedding gifts range in price from $2 to $12.

Your inspection is invited.

ONCE IS SUFFICIENT

If you visit the Loyal Sons class just once you will be sure to go a second time and many more times. They believe in helping "The Other Fellow" and they sure go at it in a way that will make your heart glad. Come around next Sunday to the First Christian Church at 10 o'clock. You will be welcome.

THERE ARE TWO POINTERS about "Oregon's Best" flour you should not overlook. The first is that with it even the beginner can hardly help doing better baking. The second pointer is that it takes less than the usual quantity of "Oregon's Best" flour to produce the same sized loaf, or cake. Order a sack of "Oregon's Best" and you can prove it for yourself.
