IS BOON TO INVALIDS

Oregon Power Company Renews Offer of Free Electric Fan Service to Indigent Invalids.

The free electric fan service for the benefit of the indigent sick, which was offered to the public last summer by the Oregon Power company, will be renewed this summer, according to Manager J. L. White. The offer the company makes in effect is that electric fans, and where necessary the current to operate, will be furnished without cost to persons seriously ill who are unable to pay for the service. The only conditions are that the attending physician must certify to the reasonable necessity for fan service and to the patient's inability to afford it. The offer, of course, applies where the sick room is within reach of the company's lines.

Charitable Move, Only. It is a charitable proposition and not in any way allied with efforts to obtain additional business on the part of the company. No hard and fast rules are enforced regarding free service, our aim being to make it do as much good as possible. During the summer there are always cases where the use of an electric fan greatly improves the condition of the patient, and sometimes represents the narrow margin between life and death. Last summer the offer was made for the first time, at all the electric properties operated by H. M. Byllesby & Company. It was received with approval and was at once utilized by physicians. The offer was then an innovation, having been made previously in but one or two cities in the United States. It attracted attention all over the country and many editorials were printed indorsing the act and expressing gratitude that public utility corporations desired to express charitable efforts in this practical and personal way. Unquestionably much good was accomplished and other public utility companies inaugurated similar service. This year probably many other central station companies will do likewise.

It has been asserted that this free fan service is offered to obtain favorable advertising for the company. In reply to this, I would say merely that the service cannot be rendered at all without a certain degree of publicity, inasmuch as the public must know of the offer in order to take advantage of it.

signed and the resignation of Mr. Schaad as supervisor followed. The board then removed the man in charge of the rock crusher and substituted J. V. Chitty who had had charge of the crusher at plant No. 2. The selection of a supervisor who would be acceptable to the interested ones was then undertaken. After much trouble and many conferences they agreed upon Mr. Lady but he declared that he would be unable to accept the position on account of his personal duties. Later, however, at the urgent solicitation of his neighbors he agreed to accept for a limited time, and it is believed that the matter has been arranged satisfactorily to all concerned.
