IMPROVED FENCE EXHIBITION

Excelsior Injury Proof Fencing to be Seen in Dallas For 10 Days.

Don't fail to see the free Excelsior fence exhibit on the county jail grounds in Dallas, which opens on Saturday, June 15, and will continue for 10 days. Representatives of the company are now in the city and will have charge of the exhibit. Exclusive agency for the counties of Polk and Washington now open. This is a wonderful opportunity for an up-to-date and very profitable business. Let us show you. You will be under no obligation to buy. Our object is to show the merits of this wonderful fence and the Excelsior system of bracing end and gate posts.
Be sure and call and inspect the fence while the demonstration lasts, for your own benefit.

Week In Society

(By Gladys Canter.)

Grindheim-Grant.

DURING the past week the atmosphere of the social world has been so permeated with incense burned at the altar of hymen that all other forms of social diversion excepting, of course, the festivities usually cognizant with commencement, have been almost obscured.

The most noteworthy wedding of the week was that of Miss Freda Grant and Simon W. Grindheim at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grant, 618 Hayter street, Wednesday, June 12, the impressive ring ceremony being used.
Rev. Leon W. Myers officiated.

Elaborate decorations in all of the rooms made a pleasing background for the handsome gowns of the bridal party. In the drawing room where the ceremony was performed under a beautiful canopy of white brides' roses and trailing green fern, were festoons of brides' roses and great banks of ivy. The archway between the living room and reception room was entrellised with a net work of tiny green fern and intermingled with red brides' roses. The color scheme in the living room was distinctly red.

The dining room was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and ivy, carrying out the color note of Helen pink and green. In one corner on a pedestal, a huge wicker basket held an artistic bunch of green ferns.
Misses Nola Coad and Roberta Mc-Callon presided at the punch bowl.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the bridal party came down the stairs to the solemn strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march played by Miss Opal McDevitt. Miss Alice Grant, sister of the bride was maid of honor.
William Caldwell was best man.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe-meteor, fashioned entirely and elaborated with pearl-lace motifs and rich lace. She wore a mop-cap effect veil of tulle held in place by a wreath of lilies of the valley. The bridal bouquet was of brides roses and lilies of the valley in long streamers held with yards of narrow ribbon.

The maid of honor wore a dainty blue costume trimmed with rich lace and carried shell pink carnations.
Tiny Miss Mildred Grant was as dainty as a little fairy in her pretty white dress with blue ribbons. She carried a basket filled with pink and white sweet peas in which the wedding ring reposed in a bed of blue leaves.

The groom wore the conventional full dress suit.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Opal McDevitt sang "Because."

The bridal lunch was elaborate and very daintily served.

The going away costume of the bride consisted of a severely plain man tailored suit of whipcord, black and white chip hat with Paul Pirot ruffle of rich lace.

The guest list included: Misses Nada Scott, Roberta McCallon, Hallie Coad, Opal McDevitt, Bertha Foster, Sadie Meyer, Nola Coad, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Strayer, Charles H. Lane, L. A. Bollman, V. C. Staats, W. G.
Vassel, Joel Shaw, J. A. McCann, Will Collins, J. R. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Doughty and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Grant, Mr. and Mrs. M.
Grant, Mrs. H. R. Grant, Messrs Harold Rich, Robert VanOrsdal, R.
R. Hill, Clarence Reynolds, Robert Fisher and Thomas Magers.

The bridal couple motored to Salem early in the afternoon and after a short honeymoon in Portland they will be at home at 901 Jefferson street.

Utopian "Love Feast."

The club rooms of the Utopian Literary society were a bower of beauty Monday night when the annual "Love Feast" was given by the members. The tables were artistically decorated with cut flowers, principally American beauty roses, and each guest found her plate by unique and dainty place cards. Miss Inez Ridgeway, president of the society this year, was toast mistress and the different toasts given during the evening follow in consecutive order as they were given: "Utopia," Vera Casper Strayer; "The Philos," Helen Gurney; "Reminiscences," Edna Morrison; "The Faculty," Lillah Mc-Daniel; response, Hattie Teats; "Sensations," Ella Mehrling; response, Addie Boydston; "The Alumni," Bertha Magness; response, Alta Savage;
"Our Married Girls," Gladys Canter, response, Lula Dempsey-Sibley.

The guests were: Misses Inez Ridgeway, Leone Williams, Hazel Knight, Nada Scott, Gladys Canter, Vera Burns, Alta Savage, Lu'u Dempsey-Sibley, Vera Casper-Strayer, Edna Morrison, Iva Stanley, Beth Deal, Edna Shore, Meryle Hall, Ella Mehrling, Bertha Magness, Hattie Teats, Myrtle Withrow, Barbara Chamberlain, Ada Farmer, Azalea Hastings, Addie Boydston, Helen Gurney, Florence Barclay, Roberta Mc-Callon, Lillah McDaniel, Norma Holman.

Invitations Out.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Maude Elizabeth Hart and Walter I. Ford to be solemnized Wednesday, June 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hart.

Birthday Reunion.

The home of Mrs. Mary E. Palmer in Salem was the scene of a happy reunion, Sunday, June 9, the occasion being the seventy-fourth birthday of Mrs. Palmer and the fiftieth birthday of her daughter, Mrs. Harry B. Cosper, of this city. All of the family were present including a brother and sister and a daughter of Mrs. Cosper, Mrs. Vera Cosper-Strayer of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Cosper returned to Dallas Sunday evening.

Alumni Banquet.

The annual Dallas College Alumni banquet was held Wednesday night, June 12, at the Gail hotel.

Preceding the banquet a short business meeting was held in the parlor and several matters of importance were settled. Rev. C. P. Gates was elected president to succeed Miss Lillian McVicker. Miss Veva Burns was elected vice-president, succeeding Miss Alice Grant, who has acted as president in the absence of Miss McVicker, and Miss Addie Boydston was elected secretary and treasurer to succeed Miss Alta Savage.

The party marched into the banquet room lead by Miss Alice Grant, acting president.

The snowy white linen and rich table appointments with large vases of cut flowers and a rich red rose at each plate in place of place cards were a dazzling sight.

The menu was as follows:

Menu.
Shrimp Salad. White Bullion
Boiled Halibut with Duchesse sauce Fried Chicken
Mashed Potatoes. Cream Gravy
French Peas
Strawberries and Cream
Cake. Demi-Tasse

Between the different courses Miss Vera Cosper played a beautiful piano solo. Miss Anna Garner sang "I Choose But Thee." Rev. Chester Paul Gates delivered a short address which was highly appreciated.

The members of the alumni and their guests included: Misses Alta Savage, Anna Garner, Hallie Coad, Veva Burns, Alma Huesby (Falls City), Florence Barclay, Edna Shore, Edna Barnhart, Addie Boydston, Inez Ridgeway, Helen Gurney, Mina Hughes, Hattie Teats, Alice Grant,

Metzger, Mrs. Vera Cosper-Strayer (Portland).

Rich-Foster.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Thos. Foster home at Bridgeport June 12, at high noon, when their daughter Bertha Estelle became the bride of Harris Rich, of Dallas. Rev. Edgar W. Miles of Dallas was the officiating clergyman.

Gordon-Buchanan.

William Gordon, of Multnomah county and Miss Adda Buchanan of near Dallas were married at the Methodist church parsonage on Saturday, June 8, by Rev. D. L. Fields.
Mr. Buchanan is a resident of Portland and the young couple will probably make their home in that city.
They left on the afternoon train for Independence where they intended visiting a few days before going on to Portland.
