Week In Society

(By Gladys Canter.)

AFTER the excitement prevalent with brides' roses, satin ribbons and old shoes, of last week, the social affairs this week have been comparatively few. The Rose Carnival in Portland took away a good many of the society folk, some going down for a few days only, some for the entire week. With commencement festivities forgotten, excepting, of course, a few weddings scheduled for June, the social affairs will be dull for the rest of the summer... Shower For Miss Hart.
The principal event of the past week was the miscellaneous shower complimentary to Miss Maude Hart, who will become the bride of Walter Irvine Ford June 26. Misses Nora Robertson, Mina Hughes and Effa Brown were hostesses and the affair was given at the home of Miss Robertson on Monday, June 17... Strings of hearts were hung about the rooms and tiny candy duplicates were hidden. The guests were obliged to hunt for them, and Mrs. N. Griffith won the favor... During the evening a huge basket was hung in a conspicuous place and each of the guests sent a wireless telegram to the bride, dropping them into the basket as they passed. The reading of the messages by Miss Hart caused a great deal of merriment, most of them containing good advice in humorous form... The honor guest was the recipient of many handsome as well as useful presents, among which were several very beautiful pieces of linen and haviland... Misses Effa Brown and Mina Hughes assisted Miss Robertson in serving. The invited guests were: Mesdames N. Griffith, J. H. Hart, G. L. Hawkins, W. Ross Ellis, W. H. F. Manston, Will Greenwood, W. L. Soehren, Herbert Dunkelberger, D. M. Metzger, W. Dodge Bicknell; Misses Alice Grant, Effa Brown, Flora McCallion, Roberta McCallion, Anna Staffin, Edna Morrison, Alta Savage, Nola Coad, Nada Scott, Sadie Lynn, Marjiam Hart, Nina Hughes... "Cheerful Liar" at Oak Grove
Oak Grove society will doff its chapeau this week to my lady of the footlights. Rehearsals have occupied the time of the participants for the past month, and now all Oak Grove is on the qui vive for the performance on Saturday night, June 22... The "Cheerful Liar" is the name of the play, and it is to be given by a dramatic club called the "T. E. C." The proceeds which will be realized by charging an admission fee of 25 cents, are to be used in beautifying the Oak Grove public hall... The cast of characters is as follows: Judge Hussel... Alvin Oliver General Boomer... Clay Jones Rev Ezra Stiggins... Charles Roberts Guy McGussin... Frank Farmer Lucretia Stiggins... Mabel Oliver Flora Boomer... Blanche Falk Randolph Dearborne... Seth Falk Mrs. Sweetlove... Josephine Farmer... Band Serenades Newlyweds
Wednesday night the members of the Dallas band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harris Rich at their new home on Washington street. After nouncement being made. The secretary was requested to acknowledge receipt of the invitation... A proposition from the Union Pacific Railway company, urging that Dallas take space in a forthcoming advertising booklet to be issued by the company, without cost to the city, was referred to the committee on publicity and promotion... WOODS-GRANT
The wedding of Milo Woods and Mrs. C. L. Grant came as a complete surprise to most of their friends. Judge Ed Coad performed the ceremony at the court house on Tuesday evening, June 18... THERE are just two kinds of Box Stationery in the world--- Hurd's and the other kind.

the concert a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Rich, assisted by Miss Madge Gage, Leif Finseth and Carl Williams. A delightful surprise came when Mrs. Rich was presented with a huge basket and asked to unwrap it. It contained a beautiful cut glass water set, presented by the members of the band... Musical Recital.
Music lovers are greatly interested in the coming recital to be given by the pupils of Mrs. C. W. Dodge Bicknell in the Presbyterian church, Monday evening, June 24. The following program will be rendered:
Parade March (Lindsay), Eunice Martin.

Spring Song (Mendelssohn), Tarentelle (Mills), Marjiam Hart... Of interest to a great many Dallas folk is the announcement of the wedding of J. Walter Crider, brother of Chauncey L. Crider and son of J. W. Crider, to Miss Lydia Belle Currier of San Jose, California. The wedding will take place on Thursday, June 27, at high noon, at the Christian church in San Jose... Invitations have been received by friends of Miss Jean Kuykendall, announcing her wedding to Mr. Arthur Porter, of Falls City, Oregon. The wedding will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Kuykendall, near McMinnville, on Sunday, June 23... Esther E. Fisher and Fred E. Hogue were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fisher, in Monmouth, Wednesday, June 19. Rev. W. A. Gueffroy was the officiating clergyman... Invitations are out for a "500" party, to be given by Mesdames W. H. F. Manston and William J. Kaerth, at the home of Mrs. Manston, 1217 Main street, on Thursday, June 26... Mrs. William Ballard has as her house guest this week Mrs. Jack McClellan, of Portland.

3 Miles of Cooling Breezes for less than One Cent
Three miles of cooling breezes for less than one cent is a hot weather bargain you can't afford to lose, especially when you can have it right in your home or office by simply moving the starting switch of a
G-E 8-inch Oscillating Fan
This fan swings its breeze to and fro, thus keeping all the occupants of a room comfortable. The breeze blows at the rate of 3 miles per hour, and blows when most needed—that's something more than one can say of the sea breeze or of the mountain breeze.
Let us help you to make an investment that will keep you cool all summer for less than a-cent-an-hour.
