WEEK IN SOCIETY

young couple went directly to the Turvine ranch in Polk county for residence. —Daily Capital Journal.

Entertains Grand Officers.

After the regular meeting of the O. E. S. on Tuesday evening, June 25, the new grand officers of the order including several grand officers and past grand officers, were escorted to the East to a seat of honor and were proclaimed master and mistresses of ceremonies for the evening. The two fated grand officers were worthy Grand Matron of the O. E. S. of Oregon, Mrs. Marguerite Hayter, and Grand Sentinel of O. E. S. of Oregon, A. B. Muir. Other honor guests were: Mrs. E. S. Bargett, of Marshfield, past grand matron; Mrs. Frank E. Lynn, of Perrydale, past grand matron of Oregon; Miss Nellie McKinley, of Portland, grand secretary; Mrs. J. F. Bater, of Elgin, grand electa, and Oscar Hayter, grand high priest of the Royal Arch.

Each of the officers gave short addresses which were interesting and highly entertaining.

After a short business session at which Miss Flora McCallon, worthy matron of Naomi chapter, presided, the banquet doors were thrown open and a delicious supper was served. Mesdames V. P. Fisk, Ellsworth W. Fuller, Ross W. Ellis and Miss Lillah McDaniel presided at the different tables. The snowy white linen, silver and tall cases of roses in pink, red and white, with beautiful gowns and soft lights made a gorgeous picture.

Miss McCallon gracefully superintended affairs of the evening in a clouded wisteria gown of bordered silk marquette over soft meshed. Mrs. Frank E. Lynn was a picture in lavender marquette with a corsage bouquet of violets.

Mrs. Marguerite Hayter was a distinguished figure in an elaborate costume of blue crepe-de-chine with rich lace and French knots.

Mrs. E. S. Bargett wore buff chiffon over satin with gold ornamentations.

Miss McKinley was dainty in an exquisite gown of embroidered white lingerie.

Mrs. J. F. Bater wore lavender elaborated with rich lace.

The success of the affair was proven by the statement of the honor guests who are unanimous in the decision that they have never been more royally entertained than at the banquet Tuesday night.

Shower for Miss Berg.

The members of Rev. D. Lester Fields' Sunday school class were hostesses Tuesday night at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Laura Berg who became the bride of James Otis Foster on Wednesday, June 26.

The members and invited guests called at the Berg residence, 1002 Hayter street, in a body and spent the evening in conversation. Light refreshments were served by Misses Francis Dempsey, Dollie Burk, Ada Longnecker and Mrs. W. H. Bortoff. A short program was rendered by some of the members which included a solo, "Dreamy June," by Mrs. W. H. Bortoff, several instrumental solos by Miss Ada Longnecker and a solo, "Song of a Heart," by Miss Edna Morrison.

The guests were: Mesdames C. S. Graves, W. H. Bortoff, A. M. McNicol, Peter Burg, Misses Pearl Burk, Mable Adams, Iva Stanley, Edna Morrison, Faye Barber, Blanche Barber, Helene Syron, Ada Longnecker, Nora Robertson, Laura Berg, Francis Dempsey, Dollie Burk, Goldie Vaughn.

Surprise for Miss Grant.

A pleasant surprise was given Miss Myrtle Grant at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Grant, 508 Lyle street, when a number of her young friends called on Thursday evening, June 20.

Games, delightful to the younger set were played and at a late hour a delicious lunch was served by the mother of the young hostess. The invited guests were: Misses Maude Barnes, Georgia Shaw, Mildred Shaw, Marguerite McKin, Hallie Smith, Ruth McCollm; Messrs. W. J. Mulkey, Edward Cutler, Edward Gohrke, Guy Nixon, Ray Scott and Phillip Miles.

Whitcomb-Martin.

A wedding of much interest to Independence society was that of Miss Arrah Martin and Lee A. Whitcomb, both of Independence. The young couple were married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. D. Lester Fields and left for their home near Independence where they expect to reside in the future.

Porter-Kuykendall.

Miss Jean Kuykendall and Arthur R. Porter were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents near McMinnville, Sunday, June 23, at high noon. After a short wedding trip to Portland and the seaside resorts they will be at home in Falls City.

Riddle-Herren.

Miss Dorris Herren and Earnest Riddle both young people of Monmouth, were married at the home of the Presbyterian minister at Independence on Sunday, June 23. Mr. and Mrs. Riddle will probably make their home in Monmouth.

Circle Entertains.

The members of Entertainers Circle No. 33 W. O. W. entertained their friends on Wednesday night at a small dance after the regular business meeting. About 25 couples were present. These dances are popular affairs and are always greatly enjoyed by the younger set.

Ballard's SNOW LINIMENT

It neutralizes poisons, subdues inflammation, relaxes contracted muscles and restores healthy conditions. For leaping cuts, wounds, burns or scalds, there is nothing like it in the whole list of curative agents. It cures by a mild power that is more effective than the strong, harsh liniments. When rubbed in for rheumatic pain, neuralgia or sciatica, its wonderful penetrating and relieving influence is very gratifying. It is an all-around household liniment that is useful in a thousand ways and its application is always followed by beneficial results. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00. James F. Ballard, Prop., St. Louis, Mo.

COMMITTEE WILL INVESTIGATE PROPOSAL.

Plans had been made to secure a special train from Dallas to Albany on July 4 and the amusement committee was instructed to have badges printed to be worn by the Dallas people, containing some appropriate slogan. This brought up a discussion regarding a suitable slogan for the use of the city and the amusement committee was instructed to suggest a number of appropriate ones to the club, following which a selection could be made. In this connection it was suggested by J. L. White, that the committee offer a prize for the best urged for a slogan. The matter of adopting an official button for the club was also discussed but nothing was done pending the selection of a slogan.

Railroad Matters.

Chairman W. L. Soehren, of the railroad committee called the attention of the club to the advisability of securing better train connections at Whitesboro from Dallas which would enable people from this city to visit Tillamook beach resorts and reach there, or return home, the same day. The committee was instructed to confer with the railroad officials and endeavor to arrange such a schedule. The committee was also instructed to confer with the officials of the S. F. C. & W. railroad relative to a slight change in their schedules which would permit better connections at Salem with the Oregon Electric.

Bids Wanted.

Will receive bids up to, and including July 15, for the delivery of 40 tons of oat, wheat or cheat hay at our barn in Dallas. 6-21tf twenty years ago she and her daughter, Miss Annie, who is an invalid, removed to Colorado Springs.

"Champ is the logical man for the place," declared Mrs. Pitzer, "and I am not saying this just because he is my brother-in-law. He has served his party well and faithfully for more than twenty years, and he deserves the nomination. He is honest—a more honest man cannot be found in public life—and he is unpurchasable. Above all, he is one of the people and stands for what the people want, and he will get it for them, too, for he is not afraid to say what he thinks, and more than that, he is not afraid to make a fight for what he believes to be right."
