

DETERMINED to close out all Summer goods during the current month I wish to announce that I have made further sweeping reductions on all Men's, and Boys' Summer Suits, Hats and various other articles in Summer wearing apparel. My Motto is, and always will be---

"Never to Carry Anything Over From One Season to the Other."

and if reduction in prices count for anything my object will be accomplished.

Although we have sold a great deal of goods since we started the Clearance sale, the variety is still large and we can no doubt fit and suit most of 'em.

"The Store That is Anxious to Please You."

Spirited Brush Between Two Polo Playing Society Women

SMART New York society is suffering from—no, one should say, enjoying—a sharp attack of poloitis. Probably the visit of the British polo team last year and the victory of the American players gave the game its present boom. At any rate, interest in it is particularly intense this season and most particularly so among the women. One of the strongholds of polo has always been the Meadowbrook club at Westbury, N. Y., the men of which have figured largely as champions at home and abroad. Now the wives and sisters of these men have formed a club of their own—the Meadow Lark—with their own field and are taking up the game in earnest. The men coach the women and play with them on mixed teams. Among the best known players are Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock and Mrs. J. Watson Webb, who are seen in the illustration in a spirited rush for the ball. Mrs. Hitchcock is in the foreground. The Hitchcock family is well represented on the polo field, not only Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock, but their daughter Helen and their son Thomas being enthusiastic players.

Pure Food.
What a comfort to the nation
Is a pure food ministration
On an up to date and scientific line.
When a purchaser is able
Just by looking at the label
The spurious to distinguish from the fine
Yet the decorative posters
Of the histrionic boosters.
With adjectives all fervidly aglow,
Must remind us on occasion
As we yield to their persuasion
That the label doesn't guarantee the show.
And the foliage narcotic
That exerts a sway despotic
O'er so many as in smoke it drifts away
Is so splendidly embellished
That at sight it must be relished
For the beauty of the bands and boxes gay.
"Alta precioso fina."
"Colorado concertina."
With a picture of a Spanish dancing star,
"Buena herza, vencedora."
"Don Quixote, grandiflora."
But the label doesn't make a good cigar.

Thing Worth Knowing.
A young man who was paying court to a girl for the first time ate some onions, and not wishing to go to his friend's house with the odor of onions on his breath, he asked his sister what he could do.
She secured a small white kernel and, banding it to him, said, "This will take the odor of onions from your breath." The young man ate it remarking:
"Gosh, that burns! What is it?"
"That's garlic," replied his sister.

A Nice Store.
A girl in a bargain rush got hurt.
They bumped her nose, and they tore her skirt.
But a nice house surgeon took her case,
Put bargain bandages on her face.
Put bargain liniment on her back
And sent her home in a bargain hack.
Next day she was back with three girls more.
Who wouldn't patronize such a store?

The automobilist who will crowd a team of a narrow highway is full brother to the teamster who is deaf to a chauffeur's toot for half the road and keeps his horses in a slow walk to tantalize the fellow behind him.
